Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1866.

☞ At Norwalk, Ohio, on Tuesday about noon, as the train stopped for a few minutes, the President made a brief speech, in which he said he wanted to heal the wounds inflicted upon the country, and desired no more shedding of blood. A man in the crowd exclaimed, "Why don't you stop it at New Orleans?" To which the President responded, "He should like to see that man's face; could not an American citizen express such a sentiment without being insulted?" The cars at this moment began to move, leaving the man who had asked this question closely surrounded by his dissenting neighbors.

In the President's speech at Cleveland, Monday, he exhibited himself in a very poor attitude. It was pitiful that a President should talk of "Congress that is trying to break up the government," and "your Congress;" should accuse loyal American citizens of being cowards, traitors and cheats; should confess that he did not care for his dignity, but was ready to meet whoever assailed him; and should other wise abuse the dignity of his high office as he did on that occasion.

Carried away by his egotism, deluded by receiving the popular demonstrations as evidence of personal popularity, and inspired by a passionate determination to override and punish all opposition to his usurping policy, the President has worked himself up, during the electioneering tour in which he is engaged, to a pitch of political frenzy that overrides all ideas of decency, and exhibits him as a pothouse politician. It is a mortifying sight, but one that was needed, perhaps, to show the character of the man who aspires to dictate the terms on which a great rebellion shall be settled, irrespective of the people's will.

☞ In the Loyal Southern Convention at Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the Committee on Resolutions were busy with a large pile of them, out of which to make a platform. Here is the resolution drafted by Judge Bond of Maryland, about which there was so much debate in the Convention:

Resolved, That this Convention urges upon the loyal men of the North to support the Congress of the United States in demanding of the Southern States the wise guaranty of the constitutional amendments passed by Congress, and call upon the patriotic men of the loyal States to use every exertion to secure the ratification of the amendments by the States; and as we believe that the justice which we mete out shall be the measure of our safety, in our opinion there can be no permanent peace or security for the loyal men at the South without a return to negro suffrage.

The real question is the expediency of recommending impartial suffrage; and if the strong outside pressure should induce Convention to ignore the question of negro suffrage there may be a secession, or independent action by those who regard this as the panacea for our national ills.

At the meeting of the Northern Loyal Governors and ex-Governors, Tuesday, the questions discussed were: First, Whether it was desirable that the Northern Convention should meet again; and second, Whether, if the Southern Convention adopted the negro suffrage in its platform, it would be wise or politic to adopt it.

The general expression of sentiment was in the negative of both these propositions, the Governors generally taking the ground that, while individually they were in favor of negro suffrage, the people of their States were not yet educated up to that point, and that, therefore, to avoid this difficult question it was desirable that there should be no regular convocation of the Convention.

☞ On Saturday afternoon last, as Mrs. Eliza Durvin of Medfield, Mass., was passing from her house to get water at a spring near by, she encountered a rattlesnake in her path, about to spring at her. She fled, pursued by the reptile, to the house, where, seizing a gun, she turned upon her foe and shot him dead. The "serpent," on measurement, was found to be five feet ten inches in length and nine inches in circumference, with eleven rattles.

☞ The Taunton, Mass., Gazette reports a case of cholera in that city on Sunday. Edmund Flynn, a laboring man who resided in a filthy locality, surrounded by stagnant drains, after attending church apparently well in the morning, was attacked and died before 12 at night. The disease was probably engendered by the infectious air in which he lived.

— Advices from Iowa state that in seven populous counties of the Fourth Congressional District not a Johnsonized Republican can be found, and there is not a Johnsonized Republican paper in the State.

— A man named Healey, of Sutton, was found drowned in Singletary Pond, in that town, last Sunday. He was an elderly person, and unmarried. For some time he has been in depressed spirits, and was a man of intemperate habits.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— I. De Witt Carter of Ossipee, and Joshua N. Piper of Albany, captured a bear on Mt. Chocorua on the 25th ult., which weighed 300 pounds. The same parties caught one of the same size in the same place the week previous.

—— Andrew Swett and Stephen Wentworth have commenced making preparations to construct a new steamer to run on the Lake next season. She is to be built at Center Harbor, will be 70 feet long, and have an engine of from 20 to 25 horse power, and is designed to carry passengers, freight, pleasure and fishing parties, &c. She will be ready to run in the spring.

—— A new Organ, built in Epping by John Billson, has been placed in the Congregational Meeting House in that town. It has two banks of keys and 24 stops. The great organ has 12 stops, the swell organ 7, and there are the usual couplers. The pedal organ contains one diapason of 20 pipes, the largest pipe being 16 feet in length. The entire instrument has 870 pipes. The case is 18 feet high, 12 feet wide, 8 feet 6 inches deep.

—— Capt. Guptil and Benj. Wentworth, of the steamer Dolly Dutton, passing Ship Island a few days since, landed to pick some berries, fastened the steamer to a small tree. While they were busily engaged in picking, the wind shifted, the boat swung round, and taking the tree up by the roots, floated off with it. She had got several rods from the shore, and was under pretty good headway before she was discovered. Fortunately the unfortunate berry pickers found two small logs of drift wood on the shore, and binding them together they made a raft, and using for paddles the staves of an old flour barrel, which they picked up on the island. Sitting astride their frail craft, with their feet in the water on each side, they overhauled the stray steamer, after paddling some three miles.—Wolfeboro' News.

☞ Edmund Blunt, a respected citizen of New York, died Sunday evening at the age of 67. He was born in Newburyport. His father, Edmund H. Blunt, who died a few years ago at a great age, was the author of the "American Coast Pilot," which made the name of Blunt famous among seamen all over the world. Edmund Blunt followed the profession of a surveyor, and since 1833 has held an important position in the U. S. Coast Survey.

☞ At Washington on Tuesday, a report was received from Gen. Baird, Assistant commissioner for Louisiana, in reference to the New Orleans riot. It is quite lengthy, and is confirmatory of the views of the affair hitherto presented in the correspondence of Generals Sheridan and Baird, and is understood to agree substantially with the report of the Military Commission.

☞ Maj. Gen. Robinson, who reviewed the case of Maj. Gee, the rebel prison keeper at Salisbury, N. C., approved the findings of the court martial, but cannot agree with the commission that the only responsibility of the accused was weakness in retaining position as commandant of the prison. While evidence clearly establishes the fact that higher authorities of the rebel government were fully responsible for these violations of the laws and customs of war, and that the accused was constantly calling their attention to the condition of the prison and asking for supplies, it is believed he had it in his power to relieve much suffering of the prisoners under his charge. There was an abundant supply of running water and wood enough for fuel and shelter within a quarter of a mile from the prison pen. Men who had served in the field would soon have soon have built huts for themselves, if permitted to do so. Not only were the prisoners starved, but they suffered for want of water and fuel, which they might have procured themselves; but because it was feared they might effect their escape, prisoners were shot down in cold blood, and the perpetrators of these murders were allowed to go unpunished. There seems to have been more anxiety to prevent the escape of prisoners of war than to preserve their lives.

THAT BROOKLYN SEAT IN CONGRESS.—In regard to the Chittenden-Yeaton contest for Congress in Brooklyn, we think every day makes it clearer that Mr. C. has not a living chance, and that in order to save the district to the Republicans, our friend Yeaton must be placed on the track. Chittenden must realize, if he possesses any brains at all, that no Radical so bitter and black as he is can be elected in the entire State of New York this year, much less in Brooklyn; while Yeaton has a natural popularity and strength which become more strikingly developed with every hour that passes. Troops of friends have flocked to his standard from all quarters of his district, and strangers call upon him continually expressing their good wishes for his success, and only anxious to be informed how they can help his canvass. Depend upon it, Van Anden, that one Alden machine will beat both the Eagle and Chittenden's dry goods boxes. In no political struggle of the last ten years have we felt more absolute confidence than that Yeaton can knock the everlasting hind sights out of three such candidates as Chittenden.—N. Y. Citizen.

☞ The utmost freedom of discussion prevails in the Loyal Convention at Philadelphia. The Committee of the Southern Delegations, on Resolutions, it is said have agreed to adopt and fully sustain the action of Congress,—in the proposed Amendment, and the laws enacted over the Veto.

GOLD, Wednesday, 146 1-2.

BALTIMORE RIOT.—The evidence is fully that the attack upon the camp meeting last Friday, near Baltimore, was a preconcerted movement on the part of whites, who came to the ground armed with clubs and revolvers, and for several days previously rebels in the city and in the railroad cars had frequently been heard to say that the camp would be broken up and that there would be fun at the camp meeting. Many of the whites were returned rebel soldiers and spoke of commands to which they belonged in the rebel army. One of these approached a visitor at the camp, with a slung-shot in his hand, and swore he wished he had the little rifle he had fought with during the war; he would fight as hard with it now as ever he did. It was a murderous affair—a counterpart of the New Orleans massacre—and one of its natural results.

VERMONT ELECTION, which took place on Tuesday, September 4, is not very favorable to the Johnsonian policy; and our garrulous President, who talks so fondly of appealing to the people, must experience cold comfort as he looks over the returns. His newly fledged party there have done their best, and the result is simply that they are not utterly extinguished. They stand far worse than the Democracy did last year. Then the Republicans' majority was 18,000; this year it will be about 23,000. Republicans of the Pine Tree State will please take notice.

Of the fifty towns heard from on the Governor vote, all report Republican members of the Legislature but two. The Senate, will, as usual, be unanimously Republican.

In the 3d Congressional district, where a hard fight has been going on between rival Republican candidates for Congress, there is no choice. As far as heard from, the two candidates—Hon. Portus Baxter and Romeo H. Hoyt—are about even—Mr. Baxter, perhaps, leading Mr. Hoyt by a few hundred votes. Another canvass will be ordered by the Governor, when a plurality will elect. In the First and Second Districts Messrs. Woodbridge and Poland are elected by overwhelming majorities.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR IN VERMONT.—The third exhibition of the New England Agricultural Society commenced on Tuesday, in Brattleboro', in connection with the sixteenth annual exhibition of the Vermont State Agricultural Society, and will continue until Friday evening. A storm began at 5 o'clock P. M. Probably not more than four or five hundred were on the grounds during the day, and these were chiefly exhibitors.

Some fast trotting and running horses are on the grounds. In the department of sheep, as well as neat cattle, the exhibition is the finest ever held in New England. Nearly all the large sheep raisers of Vermont, Massachusetts and Connecticut contributed extensively.

As a freight train was coming through Ashburnham Tuesday noon, a brakeman named Marshal Waite, belonging at Greenfield, struck a bridge and was fatally injured.

☞ A private dispatch from Detroit, Tuesday morning, says Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut are in Detroit, having left the Presidential party at Cleveland. They took the steamboat Monday night, and arrived at Detroit Monday morning.

This dispatch was read in the Loyal Southern Convention, Tuesday noon, and received with cheers.

☞ It is said that on Monday the President decided to visit St. Louis, after the exercises at Chicago. Returning thence to Washington, he will tarry at Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Columbus and Pittsburg.

MORTALITY.—There seems to be a great deal of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus about just now, and our list of deaths is much larger than we are usually called upon to record. Eating unripe or decayed fruit seems to be the principal cause.

Cook's Dyspepsia Cure will be found an invaluable remedy for all such troubles, and should be kept in the house and immediately used at the first attack. It is also a sovereign cure for dyspepsia in it worst forms. Those who have tried everything else and failed, will rejoice that an infallible remedy has been found. s3

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. To sure as it cures the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au29

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY!

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS SYSTEM is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unex' called as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare Sherry Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality has discovered a remedy for those discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all Druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Colds, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., there is NOTHING SUPERIOR THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has induced me to give this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

NAVAL.—Below we give a correct list of the officers attached to the U. S. steamer Muscoota, (3d rate,) which arrived in our Lower Harbor on the 3d and is now at quarantine:

Commander Thomas Pattison, commanding.
Executive Officer—Lieut. Comd'r. Alfred T. Mohan.
Passed Asst. Surgeon—A. B. Judson.
Paymaster—Arthur Burtis, Jr.
Act. Vol. Lieutenant—George R. Durand.
Acting Ensigns—Thomas Golding, John D. Thomas, Charles A. Stewart, John F. Perry.
Mate—G. G. Symms.
2d Asst. Engineer—Henry Snyder.
Actg. 3d Asst Engineers—George Taylor, Joseph P. Mickley, John G. Balls, Leo Bertch.
Paymaster's Clerk—Will Larkin.
Captain's Clerk—William Moore.

The following officers volunteered their services at Pensacola, and are temporarily detached from U. S. supply steamer Newborn:

Acting Ensigns—Robert Hunter, A. J. Iverson.
Passed Asst. Surgeon—S. P. Boyer.
1st Asst. Engineer—Thomas Dobbs.
2d Asst. Engineer—Joseph V. Horn.

Too much praise can hardly be said in favor of these gentlemen, who volunteered in spite of the reports of yellow fever which were current on the arrival of the Muscoota at Pensacola from Brazos, additional color being lent the same by the death of the ship's surgeon, who, we are informed, died more from nervous prostration than fever, being naturally of frail constitution. Surgeon Boyer and Engineer Dobbs are especially spoken highly of by those that have experienced their kindly ministrations and profited by their self-sacrifice, while all deserve the warmest thanks.

We are assured that the sickness on the Muscoota is not yellow fever, but is classed as bilious fever by the physcians in attendance, though there is little doubt that it would have developed the yellow fever type had the vessel remained in the climate where the sickness originated.

The vessel now presents nearly a clean bill of health, there being but thirteen on sick list, and but one man "down" with the fever—as we are informed.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 5.—Catherine Adams and Richard Roberts, becoming intoxicated, were each fined $6.86—to help support the gas-posts, we suppose.

"One more unfortunate" victim of inebriety, Henry Foster, being unable to liquidate a similar fine, went into chancery at the House of Correction.

Communication.

PERFUME A LA PIG-STY!—Any one wishing a full supply of this delightful perfume, can be gratified by taking a stroll near the corner of State and Cabot streets. It is presumed that this odor is agreeable to the two Police Officers residing in that vicinity, else it would seem, that some means would be used to rid that neighborhood of the nuisance, and relieve the olfactories of the PASSERS.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—Why is nothing said or advertised in relation to the money reported found, in your yesterday's paper? I think custom calls for such a proceeding in every such case. And how did the finder know where to look for the same? These are questions of interest to the whole public.

A.

☞ It gives us pleasure to chronicle the establishment of any new branch of manufacture in our midst. Messrs. A. Wilson & Co., formerly of Madison, Indiana, manufacturers of Hemp and Flax Hackles, have established themselves on South street in this city, and from past experience will doubtless give good satisfaction to their patrons.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday afternoon, as the three o'clock train was coming in, when near Dover street, it struck Mrs. Kate Lenihan, who was walking upon the track, throwing her quite a distance, fracturing her skull over the right eye and producing death from concussion of the brain. She was a woman 33 or 34 years of age, the wife of James Lenihan, and leaves her husband and four young children. The body was removed to her residence, above Fisher & Co.'s brewery, to await the action of the coroner. There the scene was enough to move the stoutest heart—the children wailing over her who had left them so shortly before, only to return pallid and bruised, insensate to all their tears and words of endearment; the father in his grief, vainly striving to check in his children the emotion he could not conceal himself.

We learn that the Coroner's Jury attach no blame to anybody employed on the R. R.

☞ Company I, 3d U. S. Artillery, which was recently ordered from Fort Constitution to Fort Preble, has returned, and now constitute the garrison for our harbor. The company is ninety strong, and as they are mostly New Hampshire men, their station at this port is eminently a fit one.

☞ The match game of base ball yesterday was won by the Kearsarge Club of Concord, by 5 runs, the nine of the Kearsarge Club scoring 31, to 26 for the Rockingham. The Rockingham Club entertained the victors at the Rockingham House last evening, in fine style. We shall publish the score of the game to-morrow.

STATE FAIR.—One of the great attractions of the coming exhibition will be the exhibition of the domesticated stock of Wm. Stark, Esq., of Manchester. An acre of the grounds will be set apart for Mr. Stark's use, on which will be an artificial pond and all other conveniences essential to a fine display of his animals and birds. In his exhibition (says the Nashua Gazette) will be included a sacred cow from Burmah, the only genuine one ever imported; herds of American elk; Virginia fallow, English fallow and spotted axis deer; Angora, Patnah and Assyrian goats; two varieties of swans, ten of geese, twelve of ducks, and seven varieties of pheasants, together with curassows, guans, pelicans, fancy rabbits, pigeons, and many other entries of animals and birds. This part of the programme cannot fail to prove very interesting and instructive.

— The Journal du Havre says that one of the attractions of the Universal Exhibition of next year will be a prize for the best singer in the world of 10,000f., or $2000.

— A dispatch from Ottawa says the Fenians are smuggling arms and munitions of war into Canada, and that the Catholic clergy have again began to warn their flocks against the Fenians.

— A little girl, after having been to church, was very fond of preaching to her dolls. Her mother overheard her one day, reproving one for being so wicked. "Oh, you naughty, sinful child," she said, shaking its waxen limbs, "you'll just go to that place of brimstone and molasses, and you won't burn up—you'll just sizzle."

— How do you arrive at the height of a church-steeple on a hot day? Per-spire.

Morning Chronicle.

CONSOLATION.

"The torrent of the world is rough and strong—
No eyes with loving tenderness glisten—
I cannot sing a truth-inspiring song
If none on earth will listen."

The angel answered: Wherefore dost thou sigh?
The coarser faints not ere his race be run—
The meanest blossom may not, cannot die
Before its work be done.

The prayer-bells in thy heart should summon still
The world all day, at noon, at eve, at dawning,
And not like yonder church upon the hill,
Only on Sunday morning.

The belfry ropes have hung a long, long time,
But only midnight's breezes make them quiver;
Let thy heart ring like some cathedral shrine
Forever and forever.

If there be none to hearken to thy song—
No ears to heed, no loving eyes to glisten—
God's little wood-birds sing the whole day long,
And care not who will listen.

Then let the roses of thy fancy peep
Within the lovelit cottage of thy heart;
And, like a consecrated nun, keep
The knowledge of thine art.

And lift thy trusting eyes unto the sky,
For heaven—not earth—shall give thy words a hearing;
Speak truth undauntedly, and live and die
Life-loving, death unfearing.

Scorn not thy life—it is the gift of God;
Scorn not thy kind—they are like children, too;
The dark-blue violet rises from the sod
All the long winter through.

It throws a smile upon each winter day—
A fragrance o'er the frosty atmosphere;
Thou hast had many winters—I will stay
With thee another year.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says that Captain Merrium, formerly belonging to one of the Maine regiments, writes to the President that he heartily indorses his policy, and asks for the Majority of one of the new cavalry regiments, to which General Charles H. Howard has been appointed as Major. The President indorses thereon, forwarding it to the Secretary of War: "Appoint Captain Merrium in place of General Howard."

CERTIFICATE WANTED.—Mr. Secretary Seward said in a speech delivered Wednesday in New York, that "If anything is wanting, it is the certificate which we look for at the coming polls, to bear us out in our opinions that the United States should consist of 35 instead of 25 States." It is sad to think that the Secretary of State is so forgetful of the number of States which compose this Union, for the admission of Nevada gave us a count of thirty-seven. As regards the certificate which he is seeking after, it will come in November, when the people will declare in tones not to be mistaken, that all the States of this Union shall be loyal States.

WHALES.—A large school of whales have been in the Bay during the past week. One of our fishermen informs us that he counted forty, between Thacher's Island Light and Eastern Point, while the vessel was running in on Friday afternoon. They were quite lively, and their antics as they swam and blowed, presented an animated scene. Some of our oldest fishermen never recollect the time when there were so many of these monsters in these waters, as now, and this probably accounts for the shyness of the mackerel and other fish.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

REMOVE FALLEN FRUIT.—No fallen, unripe fruit should decay on the ground under or about the trees. Fruit that drops before it is ripe, does so because diseased. Insects mature in the fallen fruit, and rise to infect the trees, or leave their larvæ for another crop of its kind. Fruit growers cannot be too careful in gathering the fallen fruit, that the grounds beneath their trees do not become insect nurseries—that their orchards do not become swarming households for tribes of insects. Orchards should be guarded against insects.

— Dreadful murders had been perpetrated in the west coast gold-fields by Australian criminals, who killed gold-diggers for their money.

— The Gardiner Journal relates the following singular case: "A cow belonging to Jefferson Brann, esq., of West Gardiner, on Saturday last got to fighting with another cow, and was soon seen to fall, though there were no outward signs of violence.—She soon died. An examination showed that the horn of the other cow, though not piercing the skin had made a hole clear to her heart, and that there was a pailful of blood bled inwardly."

— While congratulating those who have the good fortune to be born beautiful, we on the other hand, pity the household who has not had the good fortune to obtain a paper of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Go immediately to your Grocer and get paper, and, our word for it, you will never use any other. It has been analysed by one of the most distinguished chemists in the country, and pronounced perfectly harmless, and to produce one-eighth more Bread or Biscuit from the same barrel of flour that can be procured with any other; besides it only takes about one half the quantity. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, prepares Specifications, Briefs, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Attention is paid to introduction of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

CERTIFICATE WANTED.—Mr. Secretary Seward said in a speech delivered Wednesday in New York, that "If anything is wanting, it is the certificate which we look for at the coming polls, to bear us out in our opinions that the United States should consist of 35 instead of 25 States." It is sad to think that the Secretary of State is so forgetful of the number of States which compose this Union, for the admission of Nevada gave us a count of thirty-seven. As regards the certificate which he is seeking after, it will come in November, when the people will declare in tones not to be mistaken, that all the States of this Union shall be loyal States.

WHALES.—A large school of whales have been in the Bay during the past week. One of our fishermen informs us that he counted forty, between Thacher's Island Light and Eastern Point, while the vessel was running in on Friday afternoon. They were quite lively, and their antics as they swam and blowed, presented an animated scene. Some of our oldest fishermen never recollect the time when there were so many of these monsters in these waters, as now, and this probably accounts for the shyness of the mackerel and other fish.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

REMOVE FALLEN FRUIT.—No fallen, unripe fruit should decay on the ground under or about the trees. Fruit that drops before it is ripe, does so because diseased. Insects mature in the fallen fruit, and rise to infect the trees, or leave their larvæ for another crop of its kind. Fruit growers cannot be too careful in gathering the fallen fruit, that the grounds beneath their trees do not become insect nurseries—that their orchards do not become swarming households for tribes of insects. Orchards should be guarded against insects.

— Dreadful murders had been perpetrated in the west coast gold-fields by Australian criminals, who killed gold-diggers for their money.

— The Gardiner Journal relates the following singular case: "A cow belonging to Jefferson Brann, esq., of West Gardiner, on Saturday last got to fighting with another cow, and was soon seen to fall, though there were no outward signs of violence.—She soon died. An examination showed that the horn of the other cow, though not piercing the skin had made a hole clear to her heart, and that there was a pailful of blood bled inwardly."

— While congratulating those who have the good fortune to be born beautiful, we on the other hand, pity the household who has not had the good fortune to obtain a paper of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Go immediately to your Grocer and get paper, and, our word for it, you will never use any other. It has been analysed by one of the most distinguished chemists in the country, and pronounced perfectly harmless, and to produce one-eighth more Bread or Biscuit from the same barrel of flour that can be procured with any other; besides it only takes about one half the quantity. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1866.

DR. BEECHER'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Henry Ward Beecher's late letter shows him to be as shaky in his notions of politics and government, as in his theology; so that while few men say as many good things as he does, few if any say things that are much worse. In the letter itself are some admirable theories and speculations,—but unluckily they do not apply to the existing state of facts in the country. He says, among other things:

If Southern society is calmed, settled, and occupied and soothed with new hopes and prosperous industries, no armies will be needed. Riots will subside, lawless hangers-on will be driven off or better governed, &c.

Exactly so;—IF these things were done: but unfortunately they are not done. Soothing Syrup is an excellent thing for a child that is teething; but if Br. Beecher happened to live in the woods, and saw a wolf coming to devour his child, we don't believe he would calm the wolf with Soothing Syrup, but rather give him a quietus by a ball from a rifle. President Johnson has been using the Soothing Syrup for a year or so on the rebels—and its effects are seen in Memphis, New Orleans and the Maryland camp meeting. He has soothed the wolf so nicely that the wolf has torn the child. And now brother Beecher sets up a Doctor's Shop, somewhat on the plan of Dr. Johnson.

The President comes out in the character of Moses,—but he delivers the children of Israel into the hands of Pharaoh and the Egyptians, because they know better how to manage them than anybody. Mr. Seward comes out in the character of an old prophet, who always prophesied smooth things, and cried peace when there was no peace.

And now, brother Beecher, stimulated by these illustrious examples, appears in the character of the Good Samaritan. He does not pass by on the other side—not he—he takes out the oil and wine, and begins to pour them—not into the wounds of the Man who fell among the Thieves, but—upon the heads of the Robbers who wounded him and left half dead. He does this to calm and soothe the robbers, so that they will take good care of the man, without making any trouble at the Inn. To be sure this is not the way the bible story runs,—but brother Beecher's letter runs on this track exactly. Give the ex-rebels the power—and they "will lift up the freedmen gradually to full citizenship, with all the honors and duties." Will they, indeed? Very gradually! we think: say in 1000 years. Br. Beecher's Soothing Syrup is an excellent thing—for babies—but for venomous reptiles, such as rattlesnakes and copperheads, when they come toward the cradle, Soothing Syrup seems to be out of place. A good rod, of hazel or hickory, would do better.

U. T.

PRES. JOHNSON, at Detroit Tuesday, spoke in high terms of the late Senator Douglas and then defended himself from the charge of betrayal of principles, etc.—He said he was not afraid to talk to the American people. He did not care for the little fellows placed in the crowds and engaged to order to get up disrespect. The whole kennel had been turned upon him long since.

The Trays, Blanches and Sweethearts, little dogs and all, had been snapping at him for the last ten or twelve years.—(Laughter and applause.)

In allusion to the alleged tyrany of Congress, he said that the little boats had better keep near the shore. The sea of the people is being waked up, and the small craft will be wrecked.

DOUGLASS ON BEECHER.—At Philadelphia, on Wednesday, as Fred. Douglass, after a speech, was stepping down from the platform some one in the audience asked his opinion of Beecher, and he replied, "several gentlemen have already asked me that question. I have been a thousand times asked to account for Henry Ward Beecher's position. I have never been able to answer it satisfactorily. I can answer it only as Mr. Beecher answered an old lady on one occasion who asked him: 'Mr. Beecher, will you please tell me in what condition Paul was when he was lifted up to the third Heaven?' Mr. Beecher's reply was: 'I am sure if Paul didn't know himself, I don't see how I should.'"

ESCAPED.—Mike Murphy and his fellow Fenians who escaped from the jail at Cornwall, Canada, have arrived home at Buffalo. They say they met with nothing to molest them on their journey through "the enemy's country." It seems that the officer of the guard was not on his post at the time the men made their escape, and the anti-Fenians in Canada are sorely exercised because of the inefficiency of the administration, or rather the leading officers.

— Ex-President Buchanan's income for 1865 was $12,323.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Hon. James Harlan of Iowa, late Secretary of the Interior, is expecting to attend the New Hampshire State Fair at Nashua.

—— The Amoskeag Veterans of Manchester, N. H., have accepted the invitation of the Newburyport Veteran Artillery Association to visit that city the first week in October.

—— The Wolfeborough Christian Institute, a school in the hands of the Christian Denomination of New England, and which has been recently removed from Andover, will be opened with appropriate ceremonies on Thursday the 13th inst. The address will be given by R. F. Fuller, Esq., of Boston, President of the New England Christian Society. Among other speakers announced are Rev. E. P. Pike of Newburyport, editor of the Herald of Gospel Liberty; Rev. I. H. Coe and Rev T. C. Moulton, both of New Bedford; Rev. J. W. Haley of Massachusetts, Secretary of the Society, and Joseph Smith, Esq. of Salisbury. At the close of the dedicatory exercises the citizens of Wolfeborough will give a dinner to all people from abroad.—The occasion will be one of deep interest to the members and friends of the Christian denomination.

MEXICO.—The N. Y. Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of the 20th ult. says it being expected the French Emperor will not withdraw his troops the Imperialists had determined upon a new aggressive campaign, one object being the recapture of Chihuahua. The Liberals have gained numerous new successes in the interior. Several Americans are confined in San Juan Duelo Castle, charged with conspiracy, and one is condemned to be shot. Dr. J. H. Baber, one of them, had committed suicide while deranged.

A morning paper states that private advices assert that Maximillian has notified his household of his determination to abdicate at once unless his wife received from Napoleon the supplies and money she requests.

A Vera Cruz letter says that the Emperor recently asked Marshal Bazaine to station guards along the road from the city of Mexico to Vera Cruz, to cover his retreat so far from the country, and that the reply of the Marshal was: "If your Majesty will wait a little while I will insure a safe passage on the route you have named, under escort of the French troops, who will be returning to re-embark for France."

IN VERMONT, the Republicans show handsome gains everywhere. Last year Gov. Dillingham received about three-fourths of the vote; this year out of 45,000 he will receive about 35,000. The Republicans are jubilant. The indications are that not fifty voters (if even ten) hitherto voting with the Republicans have gone over to "My Policy" and the Democrats. Of 90 representatives the Democrats have 3; on the popular vote they have not a majority in a single town yet. In the Third Congressional District, where there were three candidates, Baxter (Republican) leads Hoyt (Republican) by about 800 to 1000.

THE MINIATURE SHIP.—The little ship Red White and Blue experienced a boisterous passage on her voyage to Europe. She was four times thrown on her beam ends, and was unable to beat up the English channel on account of the violence of the gale. She was taken in tow by a large sail boat. The dog Fanny died from the constant wet and exposure.

☞ The delegates from all parts of the State of New York, who have gathered at Syracuse to attend the Union Republican State Convention, bring the tidings of the depth of earnestness among their constituents in opposition to the Johnson policy, intensified by Seward and Raymond and Weed in abandoning their former principles and going over to the Copperhead party under Johnson's lead. The delegates say that the people of the Empire State will repudiate this action at the polls in no mistakable manner, and that the voice of New York will be emphatic for reconstruction upon a safe and righteous basis.

☞ A deputation of Southern Loyalists is to visit Thenton, N.J., Sept. 10. when the Legislature opens; to be in Boston on the night of Sept. 12, and then to follow President Johnson to St. Louis, addressing the people where he has addressed them. From Boston the Southern deputation will return to New York, and then follow in the footsteps of Andy Johnson to St. Louis. They at first decided not to stop at Auburn, but on second thought decided to enlighten that misinformed village.

☞ A great liquor store, of Orr & Brothers, was burnt at Nashville, Tenn., Thursday morning, with stables of the Nashville Transfer Co. Loss $100,000. Insured $15,000.

— On Saturday evening, John Forbes of Sterling was killed at the junction by a passing freight train. He was walking upon the track and intoxicated.

GOLD, Thursday, 145 1-2.

☞ At Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the recommendation of the loyal Northern Governors and ex-Governors present on Tuesday to the Southern Convention was printed and distributed among the delegates.

The Governors present were Cony of Maine, Smyth of New Hampshire, Burnside of Rhode Island, Hawley of Connecticut, Ward of New Jersey, Curtin of Pennsylvania, Morton of Indiana, Fairfield of Wisconsin, Crapo of Michigan, and Marshall of Minnesota, with Ex-Governor Andrew of Massachusetts, Lieut. Gov. Gardner of Vermont, and Lieut. Gov. Bross of Illinois. Their recomendation is that the Convention indorse the reconstruction plan of Congress, and fight the battle out on that line rather than introduce suffrage or other issues. The recommendation seems to have been adopted, after a full and free discussion.

"PEACE" IN WESTERN LOUISIANA.—A Union general residing in New York has just received a letter from an army friend at Shreveport, La., as follows:

"I have but a moment to write before the steamboat leaves. We have been under arms and in line for three nights past, and are in quite a state of excitement. De Soto parish (the worst in the State) has risen. Most of the planters have been whipping and shooting freedmen, and defying the military to arrest them. Major Thompson marched thirty miles into the parish on Tuesday night last, and arrested five planters. The people here armed and prepared themselves, and swore they would rescue these men. They are trying to get up a riot, and partly succeeded after the news of the New Orleans riots came: but we put them down very quickly and quietly. They swear they will clean out the d—d negro troops, We are only in hopes they will try it on. It looks like war again: they talk it strongly, and are holding secret meetings constantly. I pity the poor blacks: they suffer terribly. In Texas, only forty miles from here, they work and treat them exactly the same as in old slavery times."

TEXAS.—The following is an extract from a Texas letter of July 30, published in the New York Evening Post:

Matters are worse here than is suspected at the North. The war is not over yet. The people of Texas are more openly disloyal than they were in the spring of 1861, and may be found in arms against the national government any day. The United States force here and the civil officers of the United States government are tolerated for the present, because the rebel leaders think that by the aid of President Johnson they will soon be able to control both at home and at Washington.

If so much as a mob should do violence in one of the cities of the North, Texas will again be in arms. The rebel leaders have excited a feeling they cannot control. The idea disseminated among the people is this: They they must feign loyalty, and if possible be thereby re-admitted. That done, they expect the South to control as of old, and to introduce what they call "peonage" in the place of slavery.

☞ A very active canvas is going on in Maine, preparatory to the election next Monday. In the 2d and 5th Congressional Districts, the Democratic candidates have declined in favor of the Policy nominees. This is rather a pity on one account—viz: that we can't see the size of each party; but it is not, otherwise, of the slightest consequence, for neither of them can reasonably expect to be chosen.

☞ "The Galaxy" for September 15, contains articles by James Franklin Fitts, Maria Louisa Pool, M. A. Edwards, Richard Grant White, Isaac C. Pray, John Weiss, John Esten Cooke, Parsons, &c. W. C. & F. P. Church, publishers, No. 32 Park Row, New York.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Nutritious substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the Brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of Dys. PEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is usex called as an

Appetizer,

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Cramp, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

WHOOPING-COUGH CURED.

Cayuga, Hinds County, Miss.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.—Gentlemen: Please send me another six dozen of your Porous Plasters. They are in great demand here for Whooping-Cough. They act like a charm. I could have sold two dozen this week if I had had them. Send as soon as possible, and oblige,

Yours respectfully, JOHN I. WILLIAMS, P.M.

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency of the severest, remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. THE MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL, Wednesday afternoon, at the Plains, was witnessed by a large assemblage, notwithstanding the threatening weather. The Rockingham nine went to the bat first, and were put out after four runs, while the Kearsarge nine made 11—giving the latter a lead of 7 runs at the close of the first inning, and in fact winning the game for them, as was subsequently shown. After the first inning the game was a closely contested one, although we think the playing of the Rockingham Club was not up to their usual mark,—being inferior to that displayed in their late match with the Whipple Club, of Kittery. After the third innings, the Rockinghams appeared to realize that their opponents were worthy their best endeavors, and pluckily went into the contest fighting for success—reducing the gap from 11 to 3 at the close of the eighth inning—the score then standing 28 to 25. The ninth and last inning was witnessed with interest, and closed the game with victory for the Concord boys by 5 runs. The fielding of the Concord Club excelled that of the Portsmouth nine, while the balls thrown to the different bases by the members of the former club were given with great accuracy. Great praise is bestowed by both Clubs, upon the umpire, Mr. F. M. Scott, of Morrisania, N. Y., for his impartial decisions and thorough knowledge of the rules of the game—no place being more difficult to fill with satisfaction to all, than that of umpire. The Rockingham Club has challenged the victors to a return match which will come off at Concord on Tuesday next, Sept. 10th.

Each Club made one blank score, and Gage of the Kearsarge saved his nine from a second blank score by a risky run to the home base, on which he incontinently 'sat" as if he had hired it for the occasion.

PRESENTATION.—On Thursday Mr. Rook, late Agent of the Rockingham Mills in this city, who leaves us for other fields of usefulness, was made the recipient of a heavy, gold hunting-cased watch and chain, of the celebrated Waltham manufacture.—The watch bore the following inscription, which is sufficiently explanatory:

Presented to CHARLES ROOK, ESQ.,
By the employees of the ROCKINGHAM MILLS,
As a token of their esteem.
Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 1, 1866.

It was purchased of Mr. Henry S. Bodge, corner of High and Congress streets, and evidences that no person need leave the city for anything in the line of nice jewelry, unless they desire to pay a heavier profit to some non-resident dealer.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—The long-neglected station house at New Market Junction, which has for many years demonstrated the enterprise of the Boston & Maine, and Concord Railroad, has been moved back from the track so as to afford a wider platform in front, and has received a coat of paint, and rumor says is to have ten coats of whitewash inside. The platform, which, like A. J.'s, was rotten and shaky in places, has been enlarged and repaired. We trust the new management of the Concord Road will wake up to the necessity of putting some sound timber in New Market Bridge, and building a decent station house at Stratham, in place of the dilapidated hovel at that spot. A few cars with ventilators, and which have been varnished within a few years, would be a pleasant change in which to spend the 5 or 6 hours it takes to reach Concord from Portsmouth over this line.

☞ The Rockingham Fair will be held at the "Gilman field," just west of the B. & M. R. R. Station in Exeter. The grounds are fast being put in order. The fences are up, the trotting course staked off, &c, and the fast horses in Exeter are being driven over it. The track is not hard enough to make good trotting, and will require a new surface to be in condition for good time.

☞ The first train for Portland, over the Boston & Maine Road, was detained yesterday by being thrown from the track at Plaistow.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 6.—William Donnevan, for making a brawl and tumult, was fined $6.86.

☞ Besides the funds acknowledged officially by the sufferers at the Shoals, about $80 have been sent through other sources.

☞ All the men on the steamer Muscoota who were reported as suffering from the fever are convalescing, and the only one taking medicine is a man who has the rheumatism. So the parties detained at quarantine claim a clean bill of health, and hope soon to be allowed to leave their irksome confinement.

☞ On Wednesday evening, a fatal accident occured on the New York Central Railroad, six miles from Rochester about five o'clock. The steamboat express train, which left Albany that morning, was thrown from the track by a switch carelessly left open. The train was running fast and on a curve. The engine plunged into the sand and turned over. The three cars next to the baggage car ran together like the joints of a telescope, and were left lying in a heap with the baggage car. Five men were killed, viz. three passengers and two railroad hands; and 41 persons hurt, more of less.

AT PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday evening, there was a very great and enthusiastic Union Meeting. Senator Wilson was one of the speakers,—and his severe criticisms of the President's electioneering tour, speeches and policy were earnestly applauded.

In the Loyal Union Convention on Thursday, Addresses were read: and one by Mr. Cresswell of Maryland would probably be adopted, with slight additions.

The Resolutions to be reported were agreed to by a majority of the Committee, but were not sufficiently radical to suit some delegates from the Gulf States, who urge impartial suffrage.

The resolutions will be debated thoroughly: there are no gag-laws in this Convention.

☞ A fire at Smithfield, R. I., destroyed the Union Worsted Works, early Thursday morning. Loss, $140,000. Insurance, $80,000.

Also the celebrated Estey Cottage Organs for sale on reasonable terms.

Every instrument carefully selected and fully warranted, under the inspection and approval of Prof. Day. Also, the selection of SHEET MUSIC adapted to the wants of the musical community, will receive a just consideration by the same gentleman. D. H. MONTGOMERY.

A WISH.

I wish I could think glad thoughts to-day,
I wish I could string them like pearls for you,
I wish I could give them the fragrance of flowers,
The fragrance of spring, fraught with love—
And the beauty of violets, modest and blue.

I wish that some fabulous power were mine,
Like that which was held by the fairies of old;
Your way would be bright with the blossoms of love—
The beautiful love that would never grow old,
That you never would weary with hearing told.

BOSTON BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—The general features of the market remain without material change. Heavy goods for men's and boys' wear, also women's heavy and wide shoes are selling to a fair extent, while light work generally is not doing as well. The principal sales are to New York dealers for, and direct to the Southern trade, as the West is still suffering from cholera, and large buyers from that section are not inclined to take hold. The California demand has been good, and large sales in boots and shoes suited for that market were made during the week. This branch will slack up now, as many shippers received orders to send what they could in the steamer which sailed from New York this week and then wait further advices. The call for Lynn work was good early in the week, but is at present unsatisfactory. The trade in that city are now only making up on orders, and sales are principally confined to double sole goods. Stocks of light goods are large, and prices low. Some twenty-five or more firms who undertook business last Fall and Winter in that town, have recently dissolved.—Shoe and Leather Reporter.

THE GERMAN REPUBLICANS.—There are delegates at Philadelphia from all the leading German Republican associations throughout the country, with General Carl Schurz and other prominent Germans.—They met on Monday, and after discussion adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the reconstruction of this our great and beloved Union must be effected upon the broad basis of universal freedom, without regard to race or color, and that we, the German delegates to the Convention of Southern loyalists, pledge ourselves to use all our influence to secure the adoption of this principle by the Convention.

— The Gloucester Advertiser says that the schooner Willie, Capt. Willard of Cape Elizabeth, engaged in seining mackerel, has stocked since the first of July the hand some sum of $37,000, the crew sharing $1600 apiece.

— It is rumored in Paris that the Empress Carlotta, of Mexico, is about to visit this country, in order to explain the real state of affairs in Mexico, and to try to modify the sentiments of the nation regarding the integrity of the Monroe doctrine.

☞ Gen. Hiram Wallbridge has issued an appeal to the War Democrats of New York, to stand by the principles for which they fought during all the long years of the war, and in defining his own position, says:

"I hold that the loyal States and people achieved by their successful struggle a right to complete security against future rebellions on such grounds and with such impulses as were held to justify that of 1861.

I hold that the present Congress is emphatically right in demanding that the States lately in revolt shall no longer enjoy a factious and exceptional power in our councils based on four millions of their people, whom they obstinately refuse to educate or enfranchise, and whom they divest of the arms and deny the military organization and discipline, required to render them efficient in our national defense.

In short, I hold that Congress is substantially right, the President generally wrong in the contest which has alienated them; and I propose to aid and act with those who sustain Congress and oppose the President, until the controversy which now convulses the Republic shall have been brought to a final issue."

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1866.

☞ A Philadelphia letter of Wednesday, from Perley to the Boston Journal, says:

There are indications that the Address and the Resolutions which are to be presented to the Convention of Southern Loyalists will rather ignore the question of negro suffrage, and indorse the Constitutional amendment as proposed by Congress.—This will be satisfactory to the border State delegates, and their more radical associates from the Southern States will proably not make a minority report, but content themselves with issuing an address to the North, urging the enactment by Congress of such legislation as will prevent the restoration of any seceded State to full political fellowship until it has granted impartial suffrage to all of its citizens.

Such is the programme agreed upon by leading members of the Convention, but it is evident, after the session of to-day, that the Southern Loyalists are determined to have their own way. I never remember to have seen as much individuality of action in a Convention. Every delegate is evidently in earnest. Generally in Conventions honors and offices are all that is at stake, but these Southerners feel that their lives and their fortunes depend upon the result.

There is much enthusiasm in the delegates to the convention, and also among the people of Philadelphia.

THE LOYAL CONVENTION of Southern Delegates at Philadelphia, closed their debates and finished their meeting on Friday, after issuing an Address to the People of the United States, and passing a series of resolutions. The debates of the session have been sharp, spicy, sometimes severe. There was nothing of the cut-and-dried order about them.

After the war, the address says,—the rebels clamor for admission; and backed up by the President, who enters the list, and seeking to corrupt the North, aim to re-establish their old institutions. A reign of terror in ten States makes loyalty stand still and appalled. But all Southern men are not yet brought into submission to treason, and we are assembled, determined that liberty shall find a mouth-piece and that the Government for, of and by the people, shall not perish from the earth. (Great applause) Our only hope is in the support and vindication of the 39th Congress and the election of a controlling Union majority we believe the Constitutional amendment is the best present remedy. Our confidence in God is such that we believe the knowledge that the power which crushed the rebellion is still alive, and determined, will overawe the rebellious spirit of wicked men.

The first Resolution, thanks God for the overthrow of the rebellion and the vindication of the Constitution.

The second ignores the policy of Johnson as unjust and intolerable, and tending to magnify the sufferings of the loyalists.

The third endorses the last Constitutional Amendment of Congress.

4th—No right of secession exists.

5th—Favors the speedy restoration of all the States in the Union, and accords to all men all the rights that their virtue, intelligence, industry, patriotism and energy may permit.

6th—That the Southern State governments are not legal until recognized by Congress.

7th—Eulogizes President Lincoln.

8th—Favors universal liberty the world over, and sympathizes with the oppressed everywhere.

9th—Stand by the soldiers and sailors in securing the fruits of victory.

The previous question was called on the adoption of the resolutions, and they were adopted.

The motion on the adoption of the resolution in respect to the memory of President Lincoln was carried by the Convention rising in solemn silence.

A committee of one from each State was appointed to lay the address and resolutions of the Convention before the representatives of the people of the United States in Congress assembled.

On Friday the Convention received the Report of the Non Reconstructed States—the Border State Delegates not being generally present, and not acting.

An invitation was accepted, for the Delegates to join in an excursion on Saturday, with the Loyal Leagues of Philadelphia.

The Loyal League Club House was damaged by an incendiary fire.

☞ On Thursday, in New York city, the full bench of the Supreme Court decided that the Excise Law is constitutional, and that the liquor dealers must take out licenses or pay the penalty. It was also decided that the Board of Excise cannot be enjoined. The decision was unanimous. In Massachusetts, the Supreme Court has decided that the old Nuisance Cases, occurring before the new law, go clear, by reason of an omission in the law,—but it will nip the new cases.

— The Toronto Leader consoles its readers for the escape of Mike Murphy, by reminding them that at any rate he is "well out of the province, and not likely ever to return." Similarly Dogberry: "If he will not stand, call the watch together, and thank God you are rid of a knave."

— A semi-official publication places the revenue of the Mexican Government for the past twelve months at nearly one hundred per cent. below the expenses. It is no wonder that Max. asked an extension of the time for his French payments.

Local.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 7.—John Quinn, on a charge of being found intoxicated in the street, was found guilty and fined $3 and costs $3.86.

James O'Neal, another victim to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, was assessed $6.86, and in default thereof goes to the House of Correction. When he emerges we may expect some essay on life therein, a la the "Lambeth Casual."

The Marine Corps, in the person of George Miller, made an assault on the James O'Neal aforesaid, for which a fine of $1 and costs to the amount of $5.74 had to be paid by George. We thought these men enlisted to fight, but it seems they must not select their opponents too promiscously.

Communication.

☞ I was glad to see by the Chronicle, that the Concord Railroad had waked upin regard to the management of the C. & P. line. Too long has Portsmouth submitted to the shably treatment of the Concord, Manchester & Lawrence Road, since they have leased the Portsmouth & Concord Road, which according to their reports is by far, the most profitable portion of their Railroad property.

It is bad enough in mid winter to get up in the night to start for Manchester, but to be kept four hours behind twenty freight cars, at the rate of fare that is charged, is not only unjust but unworthy the corporation whose shares are so largely owned by the Portsmouth people. The rickety cars which after six hours use, are in decidely "bad odor" should be replaced by better cars, as all the money on the Portsmouth Road goes into the Treasury of the Concord Railroad, while on through business, the road makes but a small trifle. Why our people so quietly submit to their indignities is a mystery. In the days of Gilmore rule no one could complain. The extensive free pass system, the election of Directors who held their places at his will, and the political machinery he controlled, prevented any complaints being heard, or remedies applied. No shrewd man will say that there is any economy in keeping an engine with a through freight 5 hours between Portsmouth and Manchester, or that a road which has a good local and through business is properly developed by transporting its passengers in a freight train. S.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The elegant poster for the State Fair, was printed at the office of the Manchester Mirror, and does credit to the engraver and printer.

—— It is said at Warner that the oil well which was discovered in that town a few days since, and which caused much excitement, has "given out," and some of the sanguine ones feel as if they had been sold.

—— Miss Elizabeth Allison, who has recently been appointed Principal of the Cincinnati Female College, is said to be a native of Manchester, and graduated from Manchester High School about 1848, while Rev. J. W. Ray was teacher; she was the first girl that received a regular diploma from that school.

☞ Our talking President, at the close of his speech in each place, tells the people that he "leaves the Constitution in their hands." It has been appropriately suggested that it would be a good thing for him to get a copy into his own hands, and look over it occasionally himself.

☞ The flexible Horse Brushes advertised by the manufacturer this morning, and which have the endorsement of Hiram Woodruff, are a beautiful and superior article.

— Two negroes fought a duel near Richmond on Saturday. One was shot through the arm, and there the matter ended. The trouble was about a woman, who after the duel, married the wounded man.

— The President has consented to visit Louisville, Kentucky, on his return from St. Louis. This will cause some change to be made in the time-table for travel after leaving Indianapolis.

— Major General Wool has addressed a letter to General Ests, Chairman of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Executive Committee, announcing his intention to be present at the Cleveland Convention.

— Joseph Watson and his wife of Columbia, Ct., were thrown from a wagon at Andover, Ct., on Friday, and Mrs. Watson died from convulsions produced by excessive fright. Mr. Watson was stunned by the fall, but has recovered from his injuries. Their daughter, 15 years old, has become insane with grief at the death of her mother.

— Two sudden deaths occurred at Niagara Falls on Tuesday. A very corpulent colored man, named Holmes, died suddenly, and about three hours afterwards, his wife, who was also of enormous proportions, calling her two grown daughters to her, said: "Well, girls, you must do the best you can for yourself, the old man is gone, and I'm going too." She then sat down in a chair and immediately expired.

THE DOUGLAS MONUMENT, near Chicago, had its corner stone laid, on Thursday, with great pomp.

The procession was imposing, and included the Masonic fraternity, together with a force of police and the chief marshals and aids preceding the President of the United States and Gen. Dix, the orator of the day. Then came Mayor Rice and Hon. W. H. Seward, the Cabinet and other distinguished guests, United States Army Officers, Gen. Grant, Gen Rawlings, Gen. Meade and staff, Gen. Steadman, Gen. Rousseau, Gen. Custer and other prominent officers; also U. S. Navy officers, Admiral Farragut, Admiral Radford and Lieut. McKinley; Trustees of the Douglas Monument Association.

And besides these, ever so many organized Bodies, Military and Civic, Masonic and Miscellaneous.—After the great assembly had convened, and were in order, the President and party, with heads uncovered, entered the grounds. Sec. Seward had the President's arm. Messrs. Wells and Randall walked together. Gen. Grant accompanied the Mexican Minister Romero.

The youthful sons of Douglas were present and touchingly reminded every one of the sad object that had assembled the pilgrims.

The first proceeding was a brief address by Mayor Rice. The Masonic Grand Master of Illinois, J. R. Gavin, appeared in front of the stand and delivered a short and eloquent address.

The Grand Chaplain then invoked the divine blessing upon the act, when the ceremony of laying the corner stone took place according to Masonic ritual, and the stone was lowered to its place, while minute guns were being fired and the band played a dirge.

Prayer was offered by Rev Mr. Milburn and Major Gen. Dix delivered the Oration, which was applauded. At its close, President Johnson was called for, and made a short, appropriate speech. Sec. Seward followed, and spoke more at length.

Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut were introduced and warmly greeted.

The ceremonies closed at sundown.

☞ In Vermont the vote is largely increased over that of last year, which shows that a full vote is to be polled throughout the country and that the people will come out in full force in the State elections this fall. Maine votes on Monday next. The Republican Union ticket there, last year had a majority of over 22,000—but they would not have had more than 13,000 or 19,000 in a full vote! Last year the Democrats made no efforts to get out their voters and there was no "contest." The total vote fell off from over 119,000 in 1863 and 112,000 in 1864, to 86,000 in 1865—an aggregate deficiency of from 26,000 to 30,000 votes. Of this falling off fifteen thousand was on the Democratic, and eleven thousand on the Republican side. In 1864, there was a contest, and Governor Cony had 19,000 majority. This year again there is a contest, brought on by President Johnson:—the vote will probably be large: and the loss or gain of the Confederate "Democratic and Conservative" party, should be based on a comparison of '64 and '66. Nobody doubts that the Republican Union ticket will be elected by a large majority: the only question is, how large.

Holloway's Pills.—Atrophy.—Discarding the effete theory adopted by the modern physician in the treatment of the gradual decay or wasting of the human body, Holloway's Medicines seize on the direct cause of the disease—the blood. They purify and enrich it—they stimulate and invigorate the exhausted system, give fiery life to each tissue, strength to the muscle, energy to the invalid, elasticity to the spirits, and the bloom of health to the pallid cheek. 36dawlw

MORTALITY.—There seems to be a great deal of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus about just now, and our list of deaths is much larger than we are usually called upon to record. Eating unripe or decayed fruit seems to be the principal cause.

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure will be found an invaluable remedy for all such troubles, and should be kept in the house and immediately used at the first attack. It is also a sovereign cure for dyspepsia in it worst forms. Those who have tried everything else and failed, will rejoice that an infallible remedy has been found. 23

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, serve as Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the morbid cause in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. The Guide to Health and Beauty,

It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French), causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. IMPROVEMENTS.—In the space of two centuries more doubtless every road hereabout will be excellent, as they are now all very good. But 'twas not exactly this which we were intending to write. A great improvement has recently been made about midway on Myrtle street. Quite a sizeable knoll in the road has been cut down, and the stones and soil taken therefrom have been judiciously used to fill up an adjacent hollow. Goods roads are an advantage not likely to be overestimated, and their value is immediate and permanent.

On Islington street we are glad to notice the relaying of the sidewalk between Pearl and Parker streets. Between that point and Middle street much of the walk is in a condition that demands immediate attention, and yet, although some of the abuttors are ready to meet their share of the expense we are told the authorities hesitate to make the needed outlay, fearing the appropriation for such renovations is already expended. Indebtedness incurred to meet such wants would readily be shouldered.

The alterations at the Catholic Church are being rapidly pushed forward, and will add fully one-half in pew room to the former building; while the reduction in size of the gallery renders the internal appearance much more pleasing. A tower is in contemplation, and we trust that this Society, which has proved so liberal toward others, will be equally liberal to themselves.

GRAND RALLY AT KITTERY.—Arrangements have been made for a large gathering of Union Republicans at Kittery, this (Saturday) evening, at which Portsmouth is expected to be largely represented. The services of the Portsmouth Cornet Band have been engaged. A procession will be formed on Market Square, punctually at 7 o'clock. Capt. Wm. C. Sides, Marshal. All desiring to attend will fall in and march to the place of meeting at the Foreside—arrangements for toll at the bridge having been made for all. Gen. Walter Harriman one of the best political orators of New Hampshire, will deliver the address.

Communication.

Messrs Editors—A brother of my clerk was very near the spot where Mrs. Leniban was killed on the Eastern Railroad on Wednesday. He states that she did not seem to know upon which track the cars were coming; that she was on the Concord road, but climbed the embankment of the Eastern road, and crossed the track; and the wind blew her skirts toward the engine, on which they caught, and she was jerked from her feet, struck by the engine and thrown about twenty feet from the train. She arose from the ground after being struck, walked two steps, and fell dead. J.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—Why is it in these days of pestilence and contagious diseases that some of our streets are allowed to remain in such a filthy condition as they are? For instance, Market street and Bow street, near Spring hill are ankle deep in mud and garbage. The stench arising from the offal about the truck stand on Market street, on a hot day is as offensive as any pig sty.—Why are citizens allowed to throw any and every thing of a dirty nature into the streets at their pleasure, to breed disease and fill the air with nauseating smells?

Why is not every house-keeper and every store keeper obliged to keep a dirt barrel that shall be emptied every week by a city cart as it is done in all other cities? This matter of dirty streets should be attended to at once. And if those who are holding office cannot look after it in a proper manner, let us have some who can. * *

☞ Mr. Hackett sells at auction today at noon, at his office on Market Square, a number of shares in various vessels.

Auctioneer Wendell offers a very large assortment of furniture, &c., at his salesroom on State street.

Betton & Co., have their regular Saturday sales.

☞ Don't forget the excursion to the Shoals this evening. The Season will soon prevent more of these pleasant trips.

☞ John L. Swift addressed the citizens of Eliot on Thursday evening. He was conveyed to the hall in a team by Mr. Stimpson of Kittery. While the team was fastened outside the hall, some persons cut the traces, and also cut the reins partly through. It was fortunately discovered, thereby avoiding serious accident. This contemptible action considerably damaged a fine harness.

☞ The Eclectic Medical College of New York City have an advertisement worthy of attention in another column.

☞ At Chicago, Tuesday evening, Geo. Trussell, a sporting man who had amassed $100,000 in a fast way, was shot dead in the street by a young woman who had lived with him. She was undoubtedly under the combined influence of jealousy and strong drink; and is in despair at her act.

GOLD, Friday, 145 3-4.

— On Monday afternoon, Francis Giles, ten years of age, ran under the horses drawing a team into Bangor, was knocked down, and the wheels of the team passed over and killed him.

CORN SONG.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

Heap high the farmer's wintry board!
Heap high the golden corn!
No richer gift has Autumn poured
From out her lavish horn!

Let other lands, exulting, glean
The apple from the pine,
The orange from its glossy green,
The clusters from the vine

We better love the hardy gift
Our rugged vales bestow,
To cheer us when the storms shall drift
Our harvest fields with snow.

Through vales of grass and meads of flowers,
Our plows their furrows made,
While on the hills the sun and showers
Of changeful April played.

We dropped the seed o'er hill and plain,
Beneath the sun of May,
And trightened from our sprouting grain
The robber crows away.

All through the long bright days of June
Its leaves grew bright and fair,
And waved in hot midsummer noon
Its bright and yellow hair.

And now with Autumn's moonlit eyes
Its harvest time has come—
We pluck away its frosted leaves,
And bear its treasure home.

There, richer than the fabled gift
Apollo showered of old,
Fair hands the broken grain shall sift,
And knead its meal of gold.

Let vapid idlers loll in silk,
Around the costly board;
Give us the bowl of samp and milk,
By homespun beauty poured.

Then shame on all the proud and vain,
Whose folly laughs to scorn
The blessings of our sturdy grain,
Our wealth of golden corn.

Let earth withhold her goodly root,
Let mildew blight the rye—
Give to the worm the orchard's fruit,
The wheat fields to the fly:

But let the good old crop adorn
The hills our fathers trod;
Still let us for his golden corn
Send up our thanks to God

☞ The Richmond Dispatch says Gen. Grant has promised to attend the re-inauguration at Lexington, Va., of the statue of Washington, which was carried off by Gen. Hunter. Gen. Lee and the students of the Virginia Military Institute are to take part in the ceremonies.

COTTON.—The Charleston (S. C.) Courier, in an elaborate article on the prospect for cotton this year, estimates that the growing crop will yield two million bales. It says that free negro labor has proved much more efficient than was anticipated.

— No vocabulary can furnish language sufficiently strong in commendation of the excellent and indispensable article known as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. The lady having aught to do in any household department, from the washtub to the finest needlework, should not fail to supply herself with a year's stock. It only requires a person to use it once to use it their whole life. Most of the grocers sell it. 9

LETTING THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG.—A New York paper says:—Gov. Seward's after-dinner speech in this city, albeit of a jolly and convivial description, will enable future historians to settle a question of personal responsibility. "When Mr. Johnson came into the Presidency," substantially says Mr. Seward, "he did nothing until I got well, and then he sent for me, and we fixed things." After this the serenaders came along, and Mr. Seward went out and cooled himself on the balcony. Mr. Seward makes a great show of candor in letting out the Cabinet secrets, and, if he goes on at this rate, we may be told who mutilated Gen. Sheridan's dispatch. We therefore bespeak both for him and the President a most hospitable reception everywhere. May they go further, and fare better and better as they go.

LOUISIANA.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says the Military Commission to investigate the late riot have submitted their report to General Sheridan. They find that the massacre was prosecuted by Mayor Monroe and others; that the members of the Fire Department and sections of the rebel military organization, which exist in the city, appeared on the ground at a given signal, armed to the teeth, and assisted the police in murdering unarmed and defenceless Union men. Over 150 trustworthy witnesses were examined, whose evidence corroborates the above statement.

Evidence was also taken in reference to the composition of the rebel Grand Jury. Every one of the jury selected was a notorious rebel, with a rebel Colonel as foreman. It was packed with men legally incapacitated for the office.

In reorganizing the white schools of New Orleans lately, Union lady teachers have been dismissed and good rebels put in their places.

No notice has yet been taken of the complaint of leading Union men charging Lieut. Gov. Voorhees, Mayor Munroe and the police with murder, and asking their arrest under the Civil Rights bill.

— A large dry goods store on Washington square, Troy, N. Y., was closed Thursday afternoon, and all hands went to Albany. At the entrance was displayed a placard, with the words, "Gone to see General Grant." It would not be easy to imagine a neater bit of sarcasm.

— The captain of the steamer Bavaria reports that a man who died on board that vessel from cholera ate eighteen eggs and two pounds of cherries before he was taken ill.

— Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is far superior to super-carbonate of soda, and may be used in the same manner, with cream tartar, and for all other purposes where soda is used. It is perfectly healthy, and requires less in quantity. Try one paper, and you will never have any other. Grocers and Druggists sell it. 9

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, Models, Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the Patent Laws furnished by mail, containing One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY FAIR.

The arrangements are nearly completed for the Rockingham County Fair, which is to come off on Thursday and Friday of next week, and everything is being done in the power of the Committee to ensure the most perfect success. The Fair ground is located at Exeter, within two minutes walk of the depot, and is being large and well laid out. A fine track for the race course is being graded and rolled, and is under the supervision of one who is an adept in the business. It will be the best trotting track ever had in this part of the State. There are very liberal purses offered for the purpose of ascertaining what we have in the County for trotting stock. Already there is a large number of entries to compete for the prizes, and from what is known of the reputation of the animals, it looks as though there would be quite an exciting trot, and a good time is expected by all who are interested in horse flesh. The entries of stock, fruit, flowers, and manufactures are large, and the display will be larger than at any previous exhibition of the Society.

Among other novelties will be seen the Oil Knitting Machine—said to be capable of knitting 100 pair of hose per day. Of course the ladies will be anxious to witness this operation.

The submerged pump will furnish the water for stock and other purposes, from a well on the grounds, so that all farmers and others in search of such an article, will be able to practically test the capacity and durability of the Pump.

The exhibition to Poultry fanciers will be very interesting, as the display of fancy poultry promises to be very large, and it is said this County contains some of the finest specimens of poultry that are to be found in New England.

The Ploughing Match which is to come off on the morning of the second day, promises to be of great practical interest to the farmers, as some of the Ploughs to be exhibited have not been much used in this County. Among others is the Iron Beam, Side Hill, and the Lion Plough, made by Robinson of Concord. The Hussey, and others as well known, will also be on the ground.

The Portsmouth Cornet Band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion. There will be a Promenade Concert on the evening of the 18th in the hall devoted to the fruit, flowers, and fancy articles.

We understand that passengers to the Fair, are to be passed over the New Hampshire roads at half the usual rates.

Says Gov. Orr, of South Carolina, in a late speech, (for what was the word in the Convention,) said "we are taxed without representation, and this is manifestly contrary to the Constitution." And this is the sole, plausible argument urged by three partners in the Johnson scheme viz: Southern rebels, Northern democratic sympathizers, and the scattered few Republicans who unfortunately are not in, but who see a glorious chance to get in! But what business has gov. Orr, or any other acknowledged traitor, to talk about their Constitutional rights? They have none, but such as may be conferred upon them by the Government they sought to destroy. They may plead the Proclamation of our accidental President, who has a policy, but that branch of our Government that makes the laws, and is required to carry the express provisions of the Constitution into effect, never approved of such Proclamation, nor will it so long as these States fail to make the laws required for the enjoyment of the civil rights of freemen, black men as well as white. The murderous scenes at New Orleans are not calculated to convince Congress that such States are very lately recognizing the Man who sought to destroy, but failed in their means, without any change in the will, should be satisfied that they have something left to be taxed, instead of which, encouraged by apostacy in power, they hope to dictate their own terms. If the people who suppressed the rebellion support Andrew Johnson at the coming elections, they will succeed; but we think they will hear a little louder ere long.

Rev. A. J. Patterson, who has been the pastor of the Universalist Church in this city the last eleven years, has become connected with the Church in Roxbury, where he began his labors on Sunday last. Few ministers of any denomination have obtained so extensive a hold on the good feelings of the community here, generally, as Mr. Patterson. His disinterested benevolence, his true patriotism, and his social qualities are rarely to be met with in a single individual.

"Just as the twig is bent," &c.—We have before us a good illustration of this trite axiom. About sixty years ago a gentleman of Yarmouth, Me., tied in a knot the twig of a fir tree. Seventy years after he found that the tree had flourished well, and the knot had remained untied, and with the wood above and below it, an inch in diameter, the knot displayed a diameter of 6 inches. He then cut it off. It has hung over the old mantle for half a century, and is now in the hands of that lover of the curious, Wm. G. Hatch, Esq. of this city.

Colder Shot.—Congress struck about ten rods west of Market Square must be the coldest spot in New England. For during the whole year, even when the mercury was ranging in July from 90 to 100, in mid day Frost could always be seen on one side of the street, and Snow on the other.

Excellent Working of the Atlantic Cable.—The London News states positively that the line between Heart's Content and Valentia has been in perfect working order ever since it was laid, and that its electric conditions exceed the most sanguine hopes of its projectors. There has not been a hitch, nor the faintest semblance of a hitch, from the moment of its opening until now. Messages have come with a rapidity and distinctness which have astonished even the scientific people who estimated the impediments to be counted on from immersion in Atlantic deep; the unerring machinery has performed its task so faithfully that the operators at either end have never found it necessary to ask for a "repeat;" and the Governor of Newfoundland, now at Heart's Content, may, if he will, communicate in a few minutes with every capital in Europe.

Thaddeus Lincoln, youngest son of the late President, was seriously injured in Chicago on Thursday, by the running away of his horse. He was thrown off with one foot in the stirrup, and dragged several hundred feet over the pavement, bruising his head and face badly, but inflicting no dangerous injuries.

☞ Raphael Semmes, of pirate Alabama notoriety, taking encouragement from President Johnson's Peace Proclamation, suppliantly petitioned General Swayne for leave to assume the duties of Judge of Probate for the Court of Mobile to which he was elected months since, but which he was forbidden by the military authorities to exercise. The General politely inly informs the Judge "that nothing whatever has been communicated to him about the assumption of authority by Mr. Semmes. On the contrary, the previous order was absolute, and directed the military authority to prevent the Probate Judge from acting, by the exertion of force, whenever it should be neccessary—not so much as a Judge, as of an individual, who, for acts defined by law as liable to the punishment of treason, and for other acts, is liable at any time to be taken into custody." The result, therefore, is that Semmes is to continue, as he says, "to endure the ills of probateship without a probate."

— The silver plate belonging to the royal family of Saxony, sent to Prague, weighs thirty tons, and the crown jewell ten tons.

— The Meriden (Ct.) Recorder says that the new Postmaster at Meriden threw that paper out of the office, giving as a reason that he was "instructed to distribute no paper which did not support the administration of President Johnson."

— The coffin of a colored women, who had apparently died of cholera at Cairo, Illinois, the other day, during her husband's absence, was opened by the latter on his return, and signs of life were observed in the supposed corps. The women was removed from the coffin, and is now as well as ever.

— One day last week a two year old bull was picked up at sea, off Chebeaque Island, Maine. The animal was five miles from the main land at the spot in the vasty deep where he was overhauled, and was hard on his way to visit his English cousin Johnny. Having been taken in tow, with his nose clear of the brine, Bossy was safely brought to land.

— Mr. Vallandigham is disposed to be a little sulky about his experience at Philadelphia. On his way home he said that he, representing fourteen thousand Democrats, was twisted out of the Philadelphia wigwam, while Lew Campbell, representing "thirty scabby republicans," was one of the unquestioned delegates. And, he added, "I want to know if that's what you call a convention?"

— The loyal Governors of the Pacific States, debarred from attending the Southern Convention, have united in congratulating its members and indorsing the Congressional plan of reconstruction. We believe there is not a single Governor of the Northern States, from Maine to Oregon—and all were elected upon the issue between treason and loyalty—who has not opposed Mr. Johnson's policy and given earnest support to the National movement of the Southern loyalists.—Tribune.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1866.

EXECUTIVE DEGRADATION.—Our poor President seems to be possessed with the spirit of Billingsgate, or some other spirit which causes him to babble in a style not only unseemly in a President, but unwise even in a demagogue who aims to carry a point or aid a party. A Washington correspondent says, under date of Sept. 5:

The common subject of conversation and comment here to-day has been the affair at Cleveland on the occasion of the reception of the President. Mr. Johnson's warmest personal and political friends have nothing to say in extenuation of his lack of personal or official dignity, and admit the injury which it is calculated to cause to the political interests which he represents.

It is said that during the after-dinner address of President Johnson at Delmonico's (where they had ten varieties of wine, from $10 to $30 a bottle,) Henry J. Raymond whispered to one near him, "This must be stopped; it's ruining us." Shortly after that time, but before the Niagara Falls and Cleveland speeches by President Johnson, the New York Evening Post, one of his supporters, rebuked the President for his "indecorous language and injudicious conduct," which it stated has not only made him unpopular but "has aroused such a storm of indignation through the country, it has so driven the people's blood to their heads, that they no longer stop to reason, but include in one strong condemnation not only Mr. Johnson, but every measure and policy which he favors." It adds:

"His language and acts show not a wise, temperate and conciliatory spirit, and not a desire to produce harmony and to effect his ends with the general concurrence of the nation; they show a petulant spirit, a harsh temper, whose inevitable effect, when used toward an intelligent people, jealous of dictation from their public servants, is to arouse a passionate feeling of hostility and of opposition."

And now since his brawling dialogue at Cleveland, the New York Times, which, since Mr. Raymond's defection, has been emphatically the President's mouthpiece, and his ablest supporter among the newspapers in the country, gives this well merited rebuke to the President.

"The President of the United States cannot enter upon an exchange of epithets with the brawlers of a mob without seriously compromising his official character and hazarding interests too momentous to be thus lightly imperiled. It is a great mistake on the part of the President to assume or suppose that the great body of the people in the North who dissent from his views are enemies of the Union or are seeking consciously to destroy it."

Even so: the poor man, having destroyed himself, is rapidly using up his party by his foolish talking.

NEW ORLEANS ITEMS.—Last Saturday, Sept. 8, a circular was issued announcing General Sheridan as temporary Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in the State, Gen. Baird having been relieved from that position at his own request.

Mayor Monroe and other prominent city and State officials have forwarded a telegram to the President inviting him and the distinguished statesmen, soldiers and civilians who accompany him, to extend their present trip through the country so as to include that State and city. They desire to demonstrate to the President the exalted and reverent appreciation of his acceptable services rendered in behalf of the re-united nation.

It is quite appropriate for these men to invite him, and to do it in such terms. We wish he would go.

— The average majority for the Union candidates in the recent election in San Francisco exceeds 1700.

— Major Gee, the former rebel commandant of Salisbury prison, where so many of our soldiers were starved to death, is to be the recipient of a handsome testimonial in the shape of a purse of $5000 presented by his rebel admirers.

— Judge Bullock, presiding Judge of the County Court at Natchez, Miss., has decided the State law denying colored persons the right to carry arms to be a violation of the provision of the State constitution requiring the Legislature to pass laws for the protection of the persons and property of freedmen, and therefore void.

— The Richmond Examiner invites Northern emigration in the following terms: "Gentlemen of the North, we extend to you a cordial welcome, so you bring thrift, industry, honesty and—greenbacks. And if you will only leave your consciences behind, nothing will molest you from the Potomac to the Rio Grande."

☞— Rev. Dr. Emerson of Salem has lived to bury all the original members of the South Church—those who were there more than sixty years ago, when he was settled. The last, Mrs. Rebecca Thayer, died on Thursday, aged 92 years. Dr. Emerson, who is in his 89th year, attended her funeral. This is a remarkable case—all the church that called him have passed over Jordan and are now calling him from the other side.

[From the Chicago Times.]

"THE SUCCESS OF THE CROSBY OPERA HOUSE ART ASSOCIATION.—The past week has been a fruitful one for this widely-spread enterprise. Our exchanges from every quarter are filled with notices of its success. Its advertisements, which are on a scale surpassing in general extent anything which has been attempted by even American enterprise before, occupy pages of the New York press. A correspondent, writing of its success in New York, says: "The office reminds me of a railroad ticket office a few minutes before the departure of the train."

The feeling of personal interest in Mr. Crosby seems to pervade the whole country. Every little town or village has its one or more clubs, and we understand that the rapid sale of certificates throughout the country is in a measure to be attributed to the cordial support of the National Banks, the Presidents and Cashiers of which are its most numerous and efficient agents.

Another large club has been organized here upon the plan of that of the express and telegraph men. It is to be composed exclusively of railroad and steamboat men They have secured 1000 certificates.

The pork packers have also a club of 590 nearly filled. The Young Men's Association are forming a large club. The Chamber of Commerce club is full. Several Board of Trade clubs, holding a large number of certificates, have been filled, and others are in progress. Activity in this rooms to increase with each week. These clubs alone are rapidly taking up the certificates all over the country, and hastening the happy consummation of a scheme which has in it more interest, novelty and spirit, than anything which has engaged public attention within our recollection.

As many of our readers may not be aware of the unusual inducements offered by this Association, we give the following synopsis:

The Association will issue to its members 210,000 tickets, at $5 each, entitling the holder to one or more of the first class engravings afterwards described, a free admission to the galleries of the Association, as well as a share in the award of premiums from a series of the grandest paintings ever offered to the public by any Art Union.

THE FIRST PREMIUM,

THE CROSBY OPERA HOUSE IN CHICAGO, situated on Washington street, with a frontage of 140 feet and a depth of 150. It is built of marble, and four spacious stores on either side of the entrance hall, with the offices and studios above them, produce an aggregate rental of $30,000. The actual cost and value of this splendid building, conceded to be one of the finest in the world, amounts to six hundred thousand dollars.

In addition to this the premiums consist of more than three hundred splendid oil paintings, by the first American artists BIERSTADT'S great painting, "The Yo Semite Valley," value $20,000; CROPSEY'S "American Autumn," value $5000; "Irving and his Friends," value $5000; "Woods in Autumn," value $5000; "Recognition," value $5000; BEARD'S "Deer on the Prairie," value $4000; GIGNOUX'S "Alpine Scenery," value $3000, as well as works by all the leading artists of the country, constituting the grandest collection ever brought before the public; also, the original life-size bust of Abraham Lincoln, executed from life by L. W. Volk, value $2,500.

To enable the public to judge for themselves, this entire collection, the largest and MOST VALUABLE EVER OFFERED BY ANY ART UNION,

Will be on free exhibition, a part alternately in the

AND

THEART INSTITUTE, No. 625 BROADWAY

Tickets of Membership—for $5, one share or certificate, with one of the following beautiful Steel Engravings: "The Little Wanderer," by Thomas Read; or "Gathering Apples," by Jerome Thompson. For $15, three shares or certificates, with the fine Allegorical Engraving on Steel, "Mercy's Dream," by D. Huntington. For $50, four shares or certificates with the splendid Chromo Engraving of "Autumn."

The award of Premiums will be made on the 1st of October next.

Application for shares can be made to U. H. CROSBY, Actuary, A. A., and directed to the Art Institute, No. 625 Broadway, New York, or the Crosby Opera House, Chicago, where further particulars can be had on application.

THE CROSBY OPERA HOUSE ART ASSOCIATION IS NO GIFT ENTERPRISE, AND MUST NOT BE CONFOUNDED WITH DOLLAR GIFT CONCERTS WHICH HAVE BEEN ADVERTISED TO TAKE PLACE AT THE OPERA HOUSE, WITHOUT THE AUTHORITY OR CONSENT OF THE PROPRIETORS.

☞ A fire in Sing Sing, N. Y., Sunday morning, destroyed 20 buildings, including Van Arden's large file works, the rest being dwelling houses, stores and barns. Fifty families are rendered houseless. Loss estimated at $200,000; only partially insured.

— The whaling fleet of New England is again as large as it was before the war.—There are three hundred and four vessels, averaging three hundred and fifty tons burthen each, now on whaling expeditions from the various New England ports, and the fleet is the largest sent to the whaling grounds by any country in the world.

— The London Spectator says: Once every week or oftener, a girl throws herself over one of the London bridges, and when fished out by the police or waterman, tells the magistrate that her "young man" had jilted her, or deserted or, or "had words" with her, and she cannot live under it, and she will do it again, so she will, and is remanded by the humane official to give time to consider herself. Solitude usually effects a cure more or less perfect.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. A. M. Haskell, late of the Barton Square Church, Salem, will be installed over the Unitarian Society of Manchester Wednesday evening.

—— Brevet Brig. Gen. J. R. Patterson, of Hopkinton, late Col. 2d N. H. Volunteers has been commissioned as Colonel of the 1st Reg. Vol. State Militia.

—— On Monday night, 3d inst., the wife of Mr. Chas. A. Jones in East Rochester, was awakened by some one forcing the window in her room, and pointing a pistol at her through the same, demanding five dollars. She alarmed Mr. Jones, who jumped from bed and ran out, but the fellow had fled. He was recognized as Daniel R. Gale, jr., and was the next day arrested in Lebanon, across the river, with the pistol. He is the same fellow that was arrested at Dover, last Spring, for burglary at Durham and Madbury, but was released as an insane person. Gale, who is about thirty years old, lives in Rochester, in the lower part of the town, and was sent to the alms house some two years since, but afterward released. The selectmen we understand have taken measures to take care of him, as he is evidently more or less insane.—Courier.

SELF-CONVICTED. — When President Johnson assumed the office he now holds, he received delegations from different parts of the country. His speeches in reply to the kind expressions of the delegates were patriotic. Addressing a number of citizens from New Hampshire he said:

"This Government is now passing through a fiery, and, let us hope, its last ordeal—one that will tell its powers of endurance, and will determine whether it can do what its enemies have denied—suppress and punish treason."

Its enemies denied the power of the Government to punish treason! Who is responsible to-day for the fulfillment of prophecy? If they were the enemies of the Government then, who aids and abets them to-day? There is no dodging this question. We did hope, says the Boston Journal, it was to be the last trial in store, and, God willing, the people will show the world that not even the perfidy of the President can prevent the people from suppressing and punishing treason.

☞ Mr. Geo. S. Merrill, publisher of the Lawrence, Mass., American, and Postmaster of that city, after a review of the recent Presidential encroachments upon the great Union party placing him in power, pledges himself to give such effort as he possesses to the defeat of the new Democratic coalition and the maintenance intact of Republican principles, and concludes by stating that "if the avowal of these sentiments is incompatable with office-holding under the present administration, we shall so 'accept the situation;' but we can neither barter principles for position, nor remain silent when silence becomes approval of wrong."

PRUSSIA.—Count Bismark delivered a significant speech in the Prussian Legislature on the 26th, in defense of his German annexation policy.

He declares Prussia must lay hold on and keep what is offered to her; that a European Congress would produce war and that the Crown is determined and able to defend the new territorial acquisition.

☞ The President and Sec. Seward are on their travels again, and engaged in usual, in speaking. At St. Louis, the President, after twice stating that he did not come to make a speech, held a dialogue with the crowd, about New Orleans, in which he laid the blame of the murders there, on Congress, and outdid himself generally.

— An American citizen residing at Sheffield, England, has sent 140 gross of knives and forks to aid the Portland families that were burned out in resuming housekeeping.

— Why, Mrs. C. how nice and clean your clothes always look! What kind of soap do you use? Well Mrs. D., it gives me great pleasure to say that I use the Gold Medal Soap, manufactured by J. Monroe Taylor, 112 Liberty St., New York, and as long as he keeps the quality as good as now, I shall never use any other. Every one who will try it, will say just as I am now telling you. Try it and be convinced.

NATIVE PEARL versus PORCELAIN.—Dentist's ware is a poor substitute for Nature's. Let those who so believe use the Sozodont, which, if daily applied, will prevent all necessity for false Teeth, by keeping the real ones sound and healthy. 44

IT IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE that every one should know where to purchase superior walking dress gaiters or slippers. We know of no better place than T. E. MOSELEY & CO.'S, Summer street, Boston. 31

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FUNCTIONS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE. In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other Wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-erspot,) and Lentigo, or freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to the ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they certainly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

for the speedy cure of

indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and most generally perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as it he had never had the disease. Children take it as readily as of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. We are sure it is to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. Our dealers say it is not a good nickle to sell, it cause one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au20

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. The Guide to Health and Beauty,

JUST PUBLISHED.

It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove supe fluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c.; how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfulls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOE, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

☞ The Rockingham County Fair opens at Exeter Thursday morning. Every resident of the county ought to attend at least on one day of the two. An extra train will run to accommodate visitors from this vivinity. All who can, should contribute any article of use or beauty which they may have—and not confine their selection to monstrosities or phenomena. A baggage car will be attached to the extra train leaving here at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning, for the purpose of carrying, free of expense, all articles for exhibition at the fair—returning on Friday night. Mr. Edward P. Sherburne will be in attendance on the train, to see that articles are not roughly handled, and persons who cannot leave on the morning train, may be assured of the perfect safety of all articles; and he will also see that all articles have a good position assigned them.

THE PARTING LOVERS.

A CHINESE SONG.

She says, The cock crows—hark! He says, No, still 'tis dark.
She says, The dawn grows bright; He says, O no, my Light!
She says, Stand up, and say Gets not the heaven gray?
He says, The morning star Climbs the horizon bar.
She says, Then quick depart: Alas! you now must start.
But give the cock a blow, Who did begin our woe!

☞ A telegram speaks of the King of Hanover as "an old blind man." He is first cousin of Queen Victoria, and by three days her junior in age, as he was born May 27, 1819, and is therefore now in his 48th year. He is a grandson of George III., and, in right of his father, Duke of Cumberland in the English House of Lords. He is a great lover and good composer of music, and a most exemplary man. His son, in whose favor he offered to abdicate, will be 21 on the 21st of next month. Since the death of William IV., in June, 1837, the Kings of England have ceased to be sovereigns of the Electorate or Kingdom of Hanover.—Watchman.

"A Johnson party in New Hampshire means the Democratic party under a new name, and want amount to any more than it did for Jeff. Davis to put on woman's clothes."

— The sill in Lawrence is now so full that it has been found necessary to commit all prisoners sentenced for a longer term than thirty days to the institution at Ipswich.

— A fortnight ago, Miss Lottie Bedleman, of Chillicothe, Illinois, lost her speech in consequence of excessive tickling under the arms. She can now speak only in a whisper.

— The Sanitary Committee of the Philadelphia Board of Health pronounce the Delaware river water used in that city unfit for domestic purposes, and dangerous to health and life, on account of its impurities.

— The Montana Post says that five different ledges of good coal have been discovered in that Territory, not twenty miles from that city. It burns freely in the forge and in one of the seams is from eighteen inches to five feet thick.

THE RISE IN REBEL BONDS. — The Charleston (S. C.) Courier, of the 3d inst., states that the cable telegram announcing that "the result of the Philadelphia Convention had caused a rise in rebel bonds in London, has been fully confirmed by a private dispatch sent to that paper by the agent of the Associated Press. As this comes from undoubted authority, it may be well to examine the chances which there are that these bonds will ever be paid either wholly or in part. The real amount of the rebel debt is not less than $2,500,000,000 and the holders of this amount of worthless paper could well afford to give the sum of $500,000,000 to secure its payment at fifty cents on a dollar and make a handsome profit at that. In order to do this, it is only necessary to secure the next President and a majority in the two Houses of Congress. If Pres. Johnson could succeed in his scheme of admitting the rebel States into Congress without their making any security against the payment of this debt, it needs no prophet to foretell its assumption by a Congress constituted as that would be.

COLORADO.—Francis Hall, Secretary of Coloardo Territory, telegraphs as follows:

"The Territorial Board of Canvassers finished counting the vote on the evening of the 5th inst. George M. Chilicott, the Republican candidate for delegate to Congress, had a majority of 108 over Hunt, the Administration candidate. Gov. Cummings gave a certificate of elections to Hunt, and a majority of the Board of Canvassers gave a certifiate to Chilicott Gov. Cummings' action in the matter is looked upon by a majority of Hunt's supporters as an outrage upon the people of Colorado."

— A Davenporter who married a female Alabamian while serving down in that country as a member of the sixteenth Iowa, has been brought to grief. He came home from a shooting expedition the other day and found his wife had absconded. She continues on that line.

— Call for Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Agitate until you get it. If your grocer has not got it, ask him to go to the wholesale Agent, get a box, and try it. It is the best in the world. Do not be put off with any other. Use it instead of Soda; it is a great deal better. Try it. Most of the Merchants have it. Their depot is 118 Liberty Street, New York. 10

House and an Acre and a half of Land For Sale.
The HOUSE and LAND on Freeman's Point, owned by Mr. MOSES WHERREN is offered for sale. The House is a well-built two-story dwelling, 18 by 36 feet, with an L 17 by 12 feet. It contains 8 rooms, conveniently arranged. The situation is one of the finest around the city, rivalling in its extent and variety of prospect the celebrated view from "Lincoln Hill." The terms of sale will be most favorable to the purchaser, and in these days of high prices of building materials, the opportunity to get a well built house in a pleasant situation and superior neighborhood, at a low cost, is well worthy the consideration of any one desiring a home.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other agency of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twelve years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in its favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1866.

☞ Henry Ward Beecher has written a second letter to explain or modify his first earnest effort to heal the people's wounds by soothing the serpents that bit them. In this new letter, he begs off from being a follower of the modern Moses, and tries to split a hair, by advocating only one point in the President's policy, and that with some modification. Mr. Beecher says:

Allow me to express some surprise at the turn which the public mind has taken on my letter.

He cannot be more surprised at the turn, than the public were at the letter. They are not in the mood now, to tolerate hair splitting. The copperhead papers, as with one accord, published his first letter with approval,—for they saw plainly, that the main drift of it was on their side. And the loyal men and papers as generally and promptly condemned,—because it did thus favor the policy that they disapproved. In such a plain case, there is no neutral ground. The man who runs backward and forward between two armies is likely to get shot: and Mr. Beecher is no exception to the rule.

Mr. Beecher's second Letter does not fully explain away the first, but it cuts into the Presidents foibles and weaknesses with such severity that his new admirers dropped him like a hot potato. All their principal prints, copied his first letter in full. Not one of them we presume will ever print the whole of the second,—and some of them will never allude to it. In trying to go too near the wind, he has spilt the wind out of his own sail.

☞ The County Fair begins at Exeter on Thursday, to continue two days. Procession of Town Teams Thursday at 10 o'clock. Addresses at 11 o'clock, by Geo. B. Loring, of Salem, one of the most accomplished orators and farmers in the country. George M. Perkins is Chief Marshal.

On the first day, (in the afternoon we suppose) a purse of $25 will be offered for the fastest trotting by any horse that has never trotted for money and is owned in the County, and $15 for the second best. On the second day a purse of $75 for the best trotting, and $50 for the second best. Competition open to all.

The Committee announce that a baggage car will be attached to the extra train leaving here at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning, for the purpose of carrying, free of expense, all articles for exhibition at the fair—returning on Friday night. Mr. Edward P. Sherburne will be in attendance on the train, to see that articles are not roughly handled, and persons who cannot leave on the morning train, may be assured of the perfect safety of all articles; and he will also see that all articles have a good position assigned them.

☞ The late Michigan Union State Convention unanimously resolved that, since Mr. Henry J. Raymond has gone over to the adversary, "every consideration of decency and personal honor require him to voluntarily withdraw" from the Chairmanship of the National Committee appointed by the last Baltimore Convention, "and no longer hold the position while betraying the trust."

☞ There is a cornet band in Eaton, Ohio, composed of twelve performers by the name of Lockwood; brothers and their sons. They are natural musicians, and take to instruments as soon as they can walk. Strange to say, though, they are "natural" musicians, they are all "sharps." The little Lockwooks cry by "note," and give no "rest" to their neighbors. The band, says an exchange, ought to be proficient in playing "We are a band of brothers."

— The case of Emily Harrison against Noble P. Swift, for breach of promise, on which, in the Superior Court at Barnstable, the jury once disagreed, was tried again last week, and the plaintiff recovered $1500.

— A dispatch from Mobile says that on the 2d inst., on the Florida coast, fifteen miles from land, an island was thrown up by volcanic influence to the hight of ninety feet above the water level, and measuring seventeen hundred feet in circumference.

— Thomas Mandell, special administrator of the estate of Sylvia Ann Howland of New Bedford, has paid the income tax of the estate under protest. He has doubts of the right of the government to tax the income of a dead person, as it all goes to swell the estate, and a legacy tax must be paid on it when it is divided.

— Ben. Wood has retired from the editorship and proprietorship of the New York Daily News, his mission having ended, as he says, with the cessation of civil war. He thinks much must yet be done before the blessings of peace shall be fully realized, but in the great uprising of the conservative masses he recognizes a promise of safety and of peace for the Republic. Ben. had not heard from Maine when he penned his valedictory.

MAINE ELECTION, which took place on Monday, was warmly contested, by the Republican Unionists on the one hand, and the Confederate Democrats and Johnsonians on the other. The issue was well defined and generally understood, viz. whether the President's policy of giving the government into rebel and traitor hands should be endorsed, or whether the loyal People and their Representatives should be sustained. The people of Maine by a vast majority have decided that the United States are a Republic, and not a Monarchy: that they have no confidence whatever in President Johnson, his policy, nor his supporters: and that the votes of Maine go to sustain the Congress of the United States in the mild measures of reform which they have proposed, and in their future action toward making all men equal before the law of the land, as well as before the face of their Creator.

The Verdict of Maine is too plain to be misunderstood, and too strong to be disregarded.

Monday was a fair, cool day, and the people came out in great numbers, say 120,000; and recorded their condemnation of "My policy" by one of the largest votes ever polled in the State. Union gains are reported in nearly every town.

General Chamberlain, the Union Governor, is elected by a majority not less than 25,000 with a prospect of 30,000.

The Unionists have carried every County, every Senatorial District, and every Congressional District by largely increased majorities over last year.

Out of one hundred and fifty-one Representatives to the Legislature the Unionists have elected one hundred and thirty-six at least.

In the 1st District, where great effort was made to elect Mr. Sweat, and where he had whatever aid our poor President could give him, through the Navy Yard, the Portland Custom House, and a few Post offices—Mr. Lynch is, very happily, re-elected by a very large and increased majority, 3000 certainly, perhaps 4000.

In the Second, Perham is re-elected by over five thousand.

In the Third, Blaine receives a majority—perhaps reaching 7000.

Peters is elected by a rousing majority in the Fourth District,—over 6000 probably.

In the Fifth District Pike is returned by a handsome majority—certainly over 4000.

The election of Maine's entire Congressional delegation must give great satisfaction to loyal hearts outside the State.

As goes Maine so goes the Union.

Able Union orators aided this result:—the opposing speakers did not keep it back:—and the speeches of Johnson and Seward doubtless dirtied and damaged their own nest in Maine.

NEW JERSEY.—At Trenton, on Monday, the Legislature met in extra session. Governor Ward's message says the States recently in rebellion do not exhibit that spirit of loyalty which can alone give confidence to the public mind. From many of them we hear of deeds of violence and murder, and are assured that loyal citizens are again under the ban of the malignant spirit which incited and sustained the repellion.—He recommends the ratification of the Constitutional amendment passed by Congress, and the election of a United States Senator to fill the existing vacancy.

Bills were introduced relative to the Constitutional amendment and for the election of a Senator. Resolutions were introduced condemning the language of President Johnson on receiving the proceedings of the Philadelphia August Convention. The election of Senator will probably take place next week.

Governors Brownlow and Hamilton and four or five other delegates from the Southern Loyalists' Convention arrived, and spoke in the evening.

— "Who has suffered more for you and for this Union than Andrew Johnson? Every position of honor and trust has been bestowed on me by this people, from Aldermen to Chief Magistrate.—The President's Speech.

"A plague on sighing and grief! It blows a man up like a bladder."

— What color is next to an invisible green? Blindman's buff.

— Jesse Harnden of Andover, Mass., has a heifer three years and three months old which girts six feet two and a half inches and weighs 1125 lbs.

— In a southern exchange we find a column containing what is termed "A brief tribute to the memory of ———, sketched while sitting up with the body."

— Punch says: "We do not believe spiritualism or magic, but the other day a veracious witness actually saw a young man turn into a public house."

— An extravagant blade was told that he resembled the prodigal. "No," replied he; "I never feed swine." "For a good reason," retorted the other; "the devil would not trust you with his pigs."

— A gentleman writing from Africa and describing a lot of ostriches he had on hand says, "They are cheap birds to keep. They live on gun flints and rusty nails. A fresh spike is a delicious morsel, while an old hinge with a little oil on it, is fought for with as much eagerness as a pair of Aldermen would exhibit over a bowl of green turtle."

A CLERICAL STRIKE.—A number of the ministers of the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church recently held a meeting at Sabina, and resolved, after earnest discussion, that they would decline taking appointments the ensuing year unless they were assured of a salary of at least one thousand dollars. A pretty good joke is told of these brethren who "resolved" for a thousand a year. Rev. Dr. Brown, who was informed of the action by one of the most enthusiastic movers in it, with the hope of securing his sanction, replied, in his peculiarly impressive tone: "Yes, I may spend thirty years in picking the geese to make feather beds for you spruce youngsters, and now you'll charge a thousand dollars a year for sleeping on them."

A SPECIMEN BRICK FROM VERMONT.—The Claremont Eagle cites the result of the election in the town of Rockingham, Vt. as a fair index of the voice of the people on the President's reconstruction policy. The last two years the democrats elected their representative; and last year the Union party had only one majority on the State ticket. On Tuesday last J. H. Williams, a reputed renegade from the Unionists, and delegate to the Philadelphia Johnson Convention, was the democratic candidate, and Wm. H. Johnson, the Union candidate, was elected by seventy-nine majority, over Williams. This is about the way the people of the loyal States have made up their mines to endorse the President's assumption of unconstitutional power.

☞ Senator Scovel of New Jersey tersely said at the great Southern Convention in Philadelphia:

"No man wants more to see the South peaceful, and great, and prosperous, than I do. How can it be done? By giving Mayor Monroe, the Thug of New Orleans, two votes, and General Grant one? * * The great question we are here to decide, and one which rises paramount to all others, is, shall eight millions of men whose treason is historical, who made the Rebellion and fought it to its fatal end, organize a government in which disloyalty is at a premium and where loyalty is regarded as a crime?"

THE KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE.—The members of the organization known as the K. G. C. are called upon, in an advertisement published in the New Orleans Times, August 30, "to report themselves within the next six days at the old headquarters," by order of the "General commanding department Louisiana K. G. C."

☞ Besides a large amount of original matter, the New York Weekly Magazine, published by Frederic S. Hill, furnishes selections from the leading European publications. Only ten cents a number, it may be ordered direct from the publisher or of Batchelder in this city.

— The printer's malady—out of "sorts."

— How to keep on good terms with creditors—pay them.

— Truth is the only lasting foundation for friendship.

— It is but simple justice to the manufacturer of the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, to award him the credit of being far ahead of all competitors in catering to the luxury of the ladies, who prize nice, clean, white clothes (and what lady does not)? Our wife says she could not keep house without it. It is decidedly the soap of the world. It is a peculiar institution of itself, and such a luxury to use it, that after one trial, it is always found to be one of the most useful articles in the household. Depot, 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Holloway's Pills.—Atrophy.—Discarding the effete theory adopted by the modern physician in the treatment of the gradual decay or wasting of the human body, Holloway's medicines seize on the direct cause of the disease—the blood. They purify and enrich it—they stimulate and invigorate the exhausted system, by giving life to each tissue, strength to the muscle, energy to the invalid, elasticity to the spirits, and the bloom of health to the pallid cheek. sdawlw

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

Is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weakness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the sick Headache by taking two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1849. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, and using one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Local.

☞ We understand that Mr. Charles E. Myers has sold his fine estate at Gravelly Ridge, to Mr. Frank Jones—at a price reported at $10,000. This is one of the best suburban residences in this vicinity, and the new owner will certainly not allow the beauty or value of the premises to deteriorate in his hands. And, speaking of this place—which has been noted for the cordial and open-handed hospitality of the occupants—we know we shall surprise many readers when we state that while this has always been one of the most attractive residences to look at, there is also no single location in this whole region from which a finer view can be obtained! For while the mountain and landscape scene presented is very wide and beautifully diversified— Mr. Myers has enjoyed what the residents of neither of the somewhat noted localities referred to in Mr. Hackett's advertisement, can boast of—an open sea-view, including the Sho—Sir John Smith's Isles in full sight; and, as we saw it a short time since by moonlight, the angels' sparkling path across the waters to heaven, as Dickens hath it, presented a singularly-beautiful appearance, viewed from this apparently land-locked villa.

☞ The Portsmouth Washington Total Abstinence Society held its annual meeting, Monday evening, Sept. 10, 1866, and the following officers were elected:—

T. H. Miller, President.
John S. Rand, Vice President.
F. W. Rogers, Secretary and Treasurer.
K. J. Strong, W. A. Vaughan, John W. Fernald, Oliver Hanscom, Wm. C. Hatch, Executive Committe.

☞ Passing through Ceres Street a few days since, our attention was drawn to a small brick projection resting on granite brackets on the rear wall of Mr. John P. Lyman's Iron Store, third story; and on enquiring we learned that it held an iron safe. It appears from all accounts that most of the safes that were protected by brick casing in the great fire at Portland stood the intense heat to which they were exposed, while those resting on wood floors fell among the debris and they and their contents were ruined—hence Mr. Lyman's plan of securing his safe from injury in case of fire. *

POLICE COURT, Sept. 10. — Charles Rand, was arraigned on a charge of stealing harnesses, robes, &c., from the stable of Charles Main, on Lafayette Road. The case was continued until ten o'clock Wednesday morning, Rand furnishing bail for his appearance, to the amount of $1000.

☞ We learn that the firm of Neil & Tarlton have met with such success in their new steam grist mill, that they have ordered a large engine that will grind three times the quantity of corn ground by the one they now have. They now turn out three hundred bushels of meal per day. The new engine will grind one thousand bushels of corn per day, which will only fill their orders. The meal goes principally into the interior, by rail and packet. *

☞ On Monday a valuable mare belonging to Mr. Charles Peirce, while being exercised preparatory to being entered for trotting at the County Fair, ran away for some cause, throwing Mr. Peirce from the wagon and breaking one of her own legs.

☞ One of the finest residences that have been erected on our coast the past year is that of Moses Lord, esq., on York Beach. Mr. Lord is a resident of Cincinnati, and having boarded for a number of seasons at York, and being much pleased with the splendid sea view, has erected this fine summer home. It contains rooms to accommodate twenty visitors, and is furnished with all the modern improvements. It is surrounded on all sides by a broad piazza, and a lofty cupola crowns the roof; from it an extended view can be had of ocean and mainland stretching out as far as eye can reach. It is so situated near the beach, that strangers are apt to mistake it for a public house. Several callers this season, have made inquiries for refreshments and have requested the servants to shew them to a room. The private boarding houses at York have been well filled this season, and Mrs. Freeman's Cape Neddick House has been overflowing. *

☞ Mr. Horatio G. Brown, Jr., a son of Portsmouth, now resident at St. Paul, Minnesota, has recently forwarded to this place a dozen Buffaloes' Tongues, (which were cured near 1000 miles beyond that place) as presents to a few friends here, among whom Uncle Toby happened to be one.

☞ The loyal citizens of Portsmouth, being greatly pleased with the result of the Maine election, expressed their satisfaction, near the door of the City offices, on Monday night, by cheers, and on Tuesday by hoisting flags at various points.

☞ Mr A. R. Hallett, teacher of music and late organist at the North Church in this city—has resigned that situation, and is to locate in Lawrence, Mass.

☞ The excursion to the Shoals to-morrow offers a grand chance for a day's enjoyment.

☞ We learn that Mr. Frank Jones is soon to make a addition of 70 feet on his Brewery, and one of sixty feet on his malt house. He will also erect a large ice house on his grounds: a large schooner load of timber, joist, plank, boards and other lumber, is now unloading at Pier Wharf to be used in the construction of these buildings. Mr. Jones has just erected one of the largest and finest stables in the State, near his Brewery.

DROUTH.—A flowing spring which our reporter recently discovered on Vaughan street, and which he confidently expected would lead to the establishment of a Water Power Company, has dried up.

☞ We learn that Dr. John Berry has not purchased the Cutts house near this city, but that this fine estate is still for sale.

☞ Cotton & Murphy's Minstrels, the most popular troupe in this lattitude, are to favor us on Tuesday evening next.

GOLD, Tuesday, 145 1-2.

☞ Governor Chamberlain of Maine has at least 27,000 majority; so says a dispatch from Augusta.

☞ Three of the State Constables of Massachusetts had a severe battle with three noted house breakers, at Chelsea, Monday night, and killed one robber, and wounded the other two, capturing one. One of the officers was also wounded by a ball, as the robbers were well armed. They had a large lot of plate, which they had stolen in Beverly.

RUM AND DEATH.—Dr. Edward Jarvis, the President of the New England Statistical Society, has furnished to the Secretary of the Commonwelth a few figures in relation to the mortality by alcohol in Massachusetts and in the mother country:

During the six years which ended with December, 1864, 788 persons died in Massachusetts from intemperance and delirium tremens. Their ages ranged from 20 to 80 Of this number 581 (or 73.86 per cent) were males, and 296 (26.14 per cent) were females; or 35 women to every 10 men.—By comparison with the English tables, it appears that a larger proportion of females die in Massachusetts than in England, and a much larger proportion of them die in early life. In 1864 alone, 93 men and 44 women died a drunkard's death in the Old Bay State. The percentage to all deaths was 32. This indicates an increase of temperance; for the average during the 28 preceding years was 35.

— Miss Throckmorton, of Owensboro, Kentucky, loved Mr. Haines of that place; but her father did not. Mr. Haines was determined to have her. He induced his friends to get up a coon hunt, last week, to which the father—who was fond of the sport—was invited. While the etero parent was after the coon, his daughter "played possum," and ran away with her lover to Cincinnati, where they were married.

— Peas two hundred years old were planted at Dulverton, England, this season, and are producing a luxuriant crop. Some of the pods are seven inches long.

— The Red Bluff Independent, which has been "my policy," says of Johnson: "A rocket went up in Nashville in 1861; the stick has stuck in Washington."

— The New York State Inebriate Asylum, from which so much was expected, is reported to be very badly managed, financially and otherwise.

— Corry O'Lanus calls the great organ in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, "a new Long Island sound."

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's care, spend a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We defy detection, for which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. ☞ Parson Brownlow, Governor of Tennessee, at Philadelphia, said, when serenaded on his arrival, that the rebels are secretly preparing for another armed contest, and he went on to remark in his characteristic style:

"But I say to you in all candor, and with the knowledge of what I am saying and the use that may be made of it, that if the wicked spirit of the South—the rebellious spirit, combined with the treachery and copperheadism of the North—shall bring upon the country another war, and force you, gentlemen, to leave your homes and families to invade the South and put down a second rebellion, I want to have something to say about the division of your forces the next time. I would divide your great army into three grand divisions. Let the first go armed and equipped as the law of the army require, with small arms and artillery. Let the second division be armed with pine torches and spirits of turpentine, and let them do the burning. Let the third and last division be supplied with surveyors and compasses and chains, and we will survey out the land and settle it. We will first sell it out, pay the expense of the war with the proceeds, and then settle it with men who will honor this glorious banner. (Great applause.) These are my sentiments."

AN ENGLISH DAY'S WORK.—At a meeting of men employed on railroads, and held recently in London, it was stated that many of the accidents which happen are to be attributed to the exhaustion consequent on over work. One of the officers of the Railway Amalgamated Benefit Society stated that it was no uncommon thing for the men to be at work on Sundays, and have no rest for six weeks together, and he mentioned a man at Gloucester station who had not had a day off for more than twenty years. Many of the engine drivers had worked from twenty-two to twenty-three hours, and then fell exhausted in a lethargic sleep at the foot-plate of the engine, there to be exposed to the snow and rain in an unconscious state. Eighteen hours was the regular period of work on Saturday, and it often happened that the signal man would fall asleep in his box. Cases of accidental death caused by over labor often hapened.

— Mr. Johnson's remark that the Union party "might go to the devil," should have been made before the Baltimore Convention. He was not elected upon that platform.—Tribune.

— A Dacotah chap thinks he found Paradise. Hear him: "No income tax; No infernal revenue; no spies to see if you treat a friend on Sunday; no special police; no dog tax, no poll tax, school tax, or bounty fund. And, to end with, the Indians and half-breeds can't tell one green-back from another, so all our ones are tens."

— The notorious Colonel Ives, formerly aid de-camp to Jefferson Davis and engineer in chief on the staff of General Lee was reported to have some years ago grossly insulted a young lady and treated her with such violence that her life was endangered. Having appeared in the streets of New York on the 3d instant, he was followed by an indignant mob and narrowly escaped personal violence. Colonel Ives married a sister of Raphael Semmes.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1866.

☞ In Cumberland County, Me., which includes Portland, the vote in 1864, was for Governor Coxy, 8017: this year for Governor Chamberlain 8691:—a gain of 674. The democratic party's vote in '64 was 6825; and this year the democratic and Johnson vote was 5838;—a loss of 792; so that the two confederate parties were so much weaker than the one alone. This was not the entertainment to which the true copperheads were invited: for the Portland Advertiser of September 4, in an "address to the Democrats of Maine," said:

A large portion of the Republican party have come over to you—have abandoned their old affiliations. Is not that in itself a victory? Then demonstrate again your attachment to your principles by a good vote at the coming election. Speak out and let President Johnson know the Democratic masses stand by him in the battle he is so gallantly waging forthe right and the true.

We don't see the large portion coming over. The people have "spoken out," in condemnation of the Johnsonian folly and madness. And now the Advertiser turns upon poor Johnson in this style:

If we are beaten in this State beyond expectation—of course we expected to be beaten largely—we owe it to the timidity and feebleness of the Federal Administration in permitting all the strong-holds of influence—all the offices and great patronage of the Federal Government to remain in the hands of its opponents. * * * If an Administration has not sagacity to seek out its proper supporters and agents, it is too stupid for success—too timid to renew its life beyond the time allotted to it by the Constitution.

The Portland correspondent of the Boston Herald says:

The result has surprised everybody, and none more than the Republicans. The Democracy throughout the State seem to have taken no particular interest in the election, while the Republicans have voted in their full strength.

If this be true, what does it show? These two things: first, that a considerable portion of the Democratic party have no confidence in the President and his policy, and so did not vote, or voted with the Republicans; and second, that the voters who stood up against the rebels two years ago, and sent men to Congress with that purpose, stand up still stronger now, against traitors, and re-elect the same men to Congress by larger majorities.

☞ The New York Herald says;

"We should be extremely sorry to believe that radical Vermont is, an indication of the entire canvass throughout the North." It is probable, on the other hand, that the radicals do believe it is an indication; it is evident that they are stripped for the fight all over the North, and intend that it shall be no child's play; and from all the signs of the times, if these radicals are successful, we may certainly look for a reign of terror."

That's just so. The loyal North is stripped for the fight, and it does not mean to have any child's play about it. It does mean to create a public sentiment and to embody it in Congress—which shall be a terror to evil doers as all governments ought to be, and a prize and a reward to them who do well. The election in Maine, is an echo to Vermont, and both together are a terror to all unrepentant rebels who are aiming to get control of the government and defeat the consummation of the great victory won on the battlefield, and to all their Northern treacherous allies.

AN UNHEALTHY TOUR.—The Washington Republican says the Mexican Minister has returned from accompanying the President, because the trip was too much for him and he "is conscious that his physical organization has suffered some damage."—That is just what the President's friends have discovered about his party organization—it has suffered fearful damage from that Western tour.

SPECIE PAYMENTS.—A writer in the New York Evening Post believes that it will be practicable to return to specie payments, on the part of the Government, by next April.

GOLD, Wednesday, 146.

— Last Friday the shelving in the large crockery salesroom at Messrs. Kahn & Flexner, in Louisiville, Ky., suddenly gave way, and ten thousand dollars' worth of chinaware, porcelain, and articles of equally frail material, fell with a crash. A number of persons who were in the room at the time saw the shelving beginning to come down, and rushing into the street, escaped injury.

— It is the duty of each member of the Mt. Holyoke female seminary to write an annual letter, stating whether she is married or single, how many children she has, and other particulars concerning her status and progress. A young lady of the class of 1861 has just written to the class secretary that she is not married, but that she thinks she can see a little cloud that ariseth out of the sea of the future, like a man's hand.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A large shoe manufactory is to be built at East Northwood.

—— Samuel Hall, proprietor of the Exeter News Letter, has sold out and retired.

—— A barn belonging to the shakers, in Enfield, was burnt Saturday evening, with contents. Loss $3000: not insured. Supposed incendiary.

—— At Concord, Wednesday, the Republicans fired 100 guns, and had a congratulation meeting in the evening in celebration of the great Union victory in Maine.

—— Some days ago we wrote, that Mrs. Gove, widow of an officer, as a matter of course, would NOT be likely to get the Concord Post Office. The compositor omitted the little word NOT, and thus made us say what we did NOT mean.

FOREIGN ITEMS, Sept. 11.—The London Times' Paris letter, says the Emperor Maximilian is expected to return from Europe by every steamer.

The Madrid Estafette says the French troops must be withdrawn from Mexico with the utmost caution, unless amicable relations are previously established with President Juarez.

At Berlin a report is current in Government circles that the King of Prussia has decided to place the Prince Royal of Prussia over the late Kingdom of Hanover as Viceroy, and that his highness will soon take up his residence at the Palace in the city of Hanover.

At Vienna, a decree has been issued by the Emperor ordering the whole Austrian army to be placed on a peace footing.

The Sultan of Turkey, impressed with the importance of being in diplomatic intercourse with the United States, has decided to establish an embassy at the American capital. In accordance with this decision the Sublime Porte is about selecting an influential member of his government to proceed to Washington as Minister Resident and Plenipotentiary of Turkey.

It is reported that in consequence of the successful trial of American small arms by the Military Commissioners appointed for that purpose by the Porte, that the Turkish army is about to be armed entirely with carbines of American manufacture. Agents of the Government are about to leave for the United States to contract for their manufacture.

☞ At Niagara Falls a committee from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union waited upon General Grant, stating that the organization desired to visit himself and Admiral Farragut. "Is it a political organization?" brusquely inquired the General. "Not at all." "Then I should be glad to receive them. I am always happy to see our soldiers and sailors, but I don't want anything to do with political organizations. I don't want them brought to me.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says that the Salisbury people are to invite Governor Bullock to be at their gathering on the 19th inst. and it is believed he will come, desiring to see his constituents in the northeast of his dominions. The legislature once held a session in Salisbury, and when the Governor comes he will visit the house in which they sat.

☞ At Trenton, N. J., Sept. 11, the U. S. constitutional amendment was ratified by the New Jersey Legislature Senate, 11 ayes to 10 nays. In the House of Assembly yeas 34 nays 24. The joint resolution ratifying the amendment was promptly signed by Governor Ward. The passage of the amendment was greeted with great applause in both Houses. The Legislature then adjourned until Monday evening.

☞ It is said a very great fraud on the United States has just been developed in Brooklyn, and involves a New York firm. Two young men took a cotract for supplies at a very low bid, having previously entered into an arrangement with government officials in the Navy Yard to superintend the delivery of the goods, by which they would get receipts for three or four times the amount delivered, and get paid for them. In this way during the last four years the Government has been defrauded of over a million dollars. The information is given by one of the parties implicated, who turned States' evidence. The case is undergoing further investigation.

☞ Here is wisdom and prophecy from the old National Intelligencer on the morning of the Maine election:

"In the first district there is a probability of the election of Hon. L. De M. Sweat."

This Johnsonian prophet came within 4000 votes of hitting the mark, that's all.—He had better predict now the re-election of "Moses."

— M. W. Baldwin, the first builder of locomotives in this country, died on Friday, near Philadelphia.

— The official report of Major General Baird on the New Orleans riot is published, giving all his official correspondence with Mayor Monroe, Lieut. Gov. Voorhies and Secretary Stanton. He details the events of the riot as already published, and says perfect order could have been restored at any moment by the Police putting up their pistols.

Local.

Reported for the Chronicle.

THE RETURN MATCH GAME of Base Ball between the Kearsarge and Rockingham Clubs came off at Concord, Tuesday afternoon, and again resulted in the victory of the Concord Club by 13 runs. Shortly after the commencement of the game a rain storm set in and at the conclusion of the fifth inning by mutual consent further play was suspended and the game declared in favor of the Kearsarge nine by the umpire.

After the conclusion of the game the Rockingham Club and invited guests were finely entertained at the Eagle Hotel by the Kearsarge Club, about 60 being present at the dinner. After having partaken of the bounteous repast, Mr. Calvin L. Hayes, in a neat and appropriate speech presented to the Kearsarge Club in behalf of the Rockingham Club the Ross ball used in the game in accordance with the customary usage. Mr. Gage of the Kearsarge Club accepted the ball in a characteristic and satisfactory speech, and in closing introduced ex-President Pierce, who made a very happy address commending and encouraging the practice of the manly game of Base Ball, and referred to the old games of by gone days. Judge Eastman, Congressman E. H. Rollins, Mr. Sanborn, Dr. Gage, Frank W. Hackett of this city and several others enlivened the occasion by short and pithy speeches.

A social "hop" which was largely attended by the elite of the city closed the festivities of the day, and the dance was not concluded until far into the small hours of the morning.

The occasion will long be remembered by the members of the Rockingham Club as one of rare enjoyment, and the members of the club are warm in praise of the liberal reception given them by their Concord friends.

The first match games of base ball in New Hampshire have been played by the Kearsarge and Rockingham Clubs, and we trust will lead to an extensive revival of this healthy exercise throughout the State. The Rockingham Club were fairly and squarely beaten in this contest, but we hope that by constant practice they may attain a greater degree of proficiency, and once more contest with the Kearsarge Club for the championship of New Hampshire.

FROM THE RIO GRANDE.—Monterey correspondence of the 22d ult., says Gen. Sheridan's visit to the Rio Grande had great effect in restoring confidence among merchants and others. Juarez was dissatisfied with the terms given Mejia in his surrender, and had summoned his officers before him. The French rule in Monterey was a reign of terror to the Mexicans; fines, insults, imprisonments, murders and confiscations of property were punishments for words uttered in casual conversation. The French were to evacuate San Luis Potosi, in Sept.

FIRE IN SOMERVILLE.—Late on Sunday night some one cut a pane of glass, broke into the vestry of the Universalist church, Cross street, cut open the sofa, and fired its contents, placing the vestry desk over it. Mr. Lincoln, a horse-car conductor, discovered the fire. The loss was $300 or more, fully insured, the study, vestry, and church pulpit being damaged.

☞ A dispatch from Worcester, Mass. Sept. 11, says:—

As William Gibson, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Frank Buss and two children were crossing the Agricultural Branch Railroad in a carriage at Brigham's crossing, near Clinton, about 8 o'clock this evening, they were struck by the train. Mr. Gibson was hurt internally, and his wife bruised about the head. Mrs Buss had one foot cut off and the flesh tore from the other.—One of the children was badly hurt. Mrs. Buss and Mrs. Gibson will probably not survive.

— We are glad to see a disposition on the part of Manufacturers in this country to excel in quality, and of consumers to purchase the best in the market, especially in the articles which enter into the food of man. We are led to the above remarks since eating some very nice light Biscuit, made from Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Our better half pronounces it the best she ever saw. Try it. Most of all the Grocers and Druggists sell it. 11

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and invigorating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are delicious about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! It is the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is not once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1849. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. F. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Local.

☞ A gentleman of this city who has recently visited Canada, wishes us to recommend to any of our readers who may be journeying that way, the American House on Henry and Joseph Streets, Montreal, as a very pleasant hotel. The landlord is a yankee, a Vermonter, the house has been recently nicely fitted up, the fare is high and the charges are low enough to suit any reasonable expectations — in fact so well kept is the house, that our friend wishes all who go to Montreal, to remember the "American."

☞ Mr. Charles E. Peirce of this city, who is employed at Fort Constitution, lost a nice horse at Newcastle a day or two since. He was driving in a light buggy, when the animal, (which we believe was a colt, and of a bay color,) by a sudden movement broke a shaft—then commenced to kick, and finally ran furiously, throwing Mr. Peirce out, and keeping on in his mad career till he broke one of his own hind legs—when he was killed and thrown into the sea.

☞ About a month since a fine black and tan dog belonging to J. Horace Kent, Esq., had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken. Medical men asserted the impracticability of trying to remedy the evil, but Dr. Sides splintered and otherwise cared for the injured limb, and on Wednesday we saw the little canine frisking about the streets, apparently as sound as ever.

☞ It is mortifying to us to witness the hasty manner in which the fine trees around the Hanover Street school house are being cut down. True, there was too much shade there, but it would have been more judicious to select the trees nearest the building as food for the axe, and spare the grateful shade near the street and boundaries of the lot no more thrifty trees were to be found in our city.

BURGLARS ABOUT.—The Rockingham House was entered by a burglar Tuesday evening, who gained an entrance by prying open a back window. He struck a light and began to search the premises.—The landlord's wife hearing an unusual noise enquired "whose there," which startled the intruder, who made his escape, leaving a large jack-knife behind.

☞ Some of the persons elected officers of the Johnson Club decline acting with that party,—among the number Mr. Whittemore, who sends his declination as follows:

Sept. 6, 1866.

To Hon. Daniel Marcy, Prest. Johnson Club:

I hereby decline acting as Secretary of the Johnson Club or being considered a member. I never intended to act with the Democratic party in preference to the Republican, which would be the case if I continued a member of the organization

Yours, etc. C. C. WHITTEMORE.

☞ The crew of the U. S. steamer Muscota, in the Lower Harbor, will be paid off and discharged to-day Sept. 13. A few sailors will remain on board to look after the vessel until cold weather comes.

☞ The fine rosewood Bar, with silver mountings, presented (by Dr. A. P. Stevens) to that member of the Rockingham Base Ball Club who should make the best score at Concord on Tuesday—was awarded to Mr. James H. Dow, by lot; Messrs' Dow and Barstow having the same score—4 runs each, and no outs.

☞ A team passing over the bridge near the Cape Neddick House a few days since, the horse broke through the planking, and apparently received but a slight scratch on his leg. He was driven forty miles the next day, and on the following day he died. The owner of the horse, called on the Selectmen of the town for damages. They made a post mortem examination of the animal, and found that he had died of the botts.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Joseph W. Peirce, of Greenland, for copies of late Texas papers — which may be seen at the Mechanics' Reading Room. They are as full of rebellion and treason, as President Johnson's new-found friends.

☞ A tall fine shade tree, a mountain ash, at the side of the Episcopal Chapel on State street, was blown down by the heavy wind Wednesday night.

☞ To-day and to-morrow are the Fair days at Exeter. Let us hope for fair weather, and then we doubt not but the people will have a fair time. Procession, address, and trotting to day.

☞ Don't forget the excursion to the Shoals to-day. For those who cannot spare time for an extended stay at the Islands, it affords a grand chance for a pleasant visit.

☞ Mr. Wendell sells at auction, this morning, a large variety of furniture, on Lang's road.

POLICE COURT, Sept 12.—In the case of Charles Rand, continued from Monday, a nol. pros. was entered.

☞ Mrs. Buss and Mrs. Gibson, who were badly hurt on Tuesday evening, on a railroad crossing near Clinton, Mass., both died in a few hours.

☞ The President's Tour is not yet concluded.—At Indianapolis, he met with some rowdies with manners no better than his own, and in the evening they made such interruptions that he could not get much further along than to say he didn't come to make a speech.—Next morning, however, when all parties were probably more sober, he did make his speech—and Mr. Seward likewise. The speakers arrived at Louisville, Ky., Sept. 11, and spoke again; after which they had a banquet.—But Gens. Grant, Sheridan, and Rawlings, did not hear the morning speech at Indianapolis nor that at Louisville,—for they arrived at Cincinnati on the same morning, Sept. 11.

☞ The robber who was killed at Chelsea, by an officer, is said to be named Wm. E. Cooley, 20 years old: he came from the country, and fell among the gamblers and burglars. The Coroner's jury say the officer served him right.—The captive robber is Kensington, alias half a dozen other names.—He has been a noted bounty jumper, but his jig is up.

Holloway's Pills.—Atrophy—Discarding the effete theory adopted by the modern physician in the treatment of the gradual decay or wasting of the human body, Holloway's medicines seize on the direct cause of the disease—the blood. They purify and enrich it—they stimulate and invigorate the exhausted system, by giving life to each tissue, strength to the muscle, energy to the invalid, elasticity to the spirits, and the bloom of health to the pallid cheek. s8dawlw

GEMS.

Greatness may procure a man a tomb, but goodness alone deserves an epitath.

Say little of a person you can neither commend without envy, nor dispraise without danger.

Praise no man severely before his face, nor censure any man behind his back.

Flatterers only lift a man up, as it is said the eagle does the tortoise, to get something by his fall.

What men want of reason for their opinions, they usually supply and make up in rage.

By taking revenge, a man is but even with his enemy; but in passing it over, he is superior.

The temperate man's pleasures are durable, because they are regular; and all his life is calm and serene, because it is innocent.

BURLEIGH ON DIX. — The following paragraph from the Boston Journal's New York gossip letter of Sept. 4, may amuse some readers, and perhaps enlighten others:

The friends of the President are moving heaven and earth to create the impression that the boys in blue are swerving from the old cause in which they moved so steadily for four years. It is easy to get up a soldier's meeting in New York. Under such a call anybody and everybody can rally, but they are the same class of men and the same men that have shouted themselves hoarse for the last four years for "Fernandy Wudd" and his compeers. The same men who shouted the praises of Andy Johson from the Battery to the Fifth Avenue would have shouted as loudly two years ago if Mr. Johnson had been led through to execution, and would gladly have done the little job themselves. The mass meeting last night of soldiers and sailors was held in Union Square to endorse the Philadelphia Convention. Not a prominent officer or soldier was present to speak. The whole thing is supposed to be in the interest of Gen. Dix. Like Oliver, his dish is always out for a "little more."—He has done a smashing business on that fortunate order: "If any body hauls down the American Flag shoot him on the spot"—although nobody was shot. He was a candidate for the Convention that nominated McClellan—had his headquarters and agents strenuously at work for him. He strove hard for the nomination of the Union party of this State for Governor, which was given to Governor Fenton. And now he is a candidate for the same office on the part of the Johnson men and the Democrats. And in its favor the mass meeting in Union Square was held.

☞ Mr. Johnson, in his reply to the address of the Philadelphia Convention, described Congress as "a body hanging upon the verge of the Government"—words unmistakably insulting to the American people whom Congress represents. If the Senators and Representatives of New York, Pennsylvania, New England, the Middle States, and the West, constitute a body hanging on the verge of the Government, the President, who is but one man, must hang outside of it.

This insult to the people has been frequently repeated by Mr Johnson, and is caused by the assertion of their right to determine the reconstruction of the Union by legislation, in opposition to Mr. Johnson's claim to settle all questions by Executive action.

A NOVELTY IN NOVELS.—Under this head the Home Journal, which has recently grown to be quite an authority in literary matters, announces in its column a new work. The following paragraph from the Home Journal, which will give the fiction-reading public a slight foretaste of the entertainment that is in store for them:

"Mr. Morford has in press of the American News Company, and will publish about the fifteenth of September, a novel entitled 'Utterly Wrecked.' For anything emanating from his pen we should be disposed to say a good word whenever possible; but in this work, of the manuscript of which we have been allowed a cursory reading, we are free to say that more salient points are offered for remark than often fall to the hand of the preliminary reviewer. Mr. M., as many of our readers may know, while others may not, was born within sound of the Atlantic surges, and much of his early life was passed among a society as peculiarly antagonistic to that of the city of his present residence, as could well be imagined; and it is among them—the surfmen and wreckers of the American coast—brave, reckless, jolly, odd, not always honest, but always picturesque fellows—that the scenes of this story are laid and the characters selected, with a date so far back among the days when there were neither telegraphs nor steamships, as 1820. It may be easily guessed that the writer, with his early experience and in a field so entirely unworked, has found abundance of material; and our examination of the manuscript shows that he has handled it without scruple. It is doubtful whether there exists, in all literature, a more terrible tragic story than that of Barnard North, the hunted and the ruined; while in his unfortunate wife and wronged daughter the seeming severities of fate grow even blacker. But there is sunshine all around these sad central figures; sunshine in the merry eyes of Lettice Holloway (by far, to our thinking, the sweetest romance character yet depicted by Mr. M.;) in the broad mischievous face of Squire Holloway, the type country-justice and practical joker; on the earnest, manly brow of Charley Denniston, through whom the great city links hands with the country; and last, by no means least, in the squinting orbs of Uncle Zeke Robbins, truly enough a "character" to have been limned by Cooper in the earliest of his Leatherstocking days."

EXETER, Sept. 13.

The County Fair to-day has opened most auspiciously, the untiring exertions of the Board of Directors having left nothing wanting for the occasion except suitable weather, and had they had control in that they could not have bettered the day.—This beautiful little town is rapidly becoming thronged with visitors, and the show made in nearly every department is excellent.

The day was opened by an imposing procession, under Chief Marshal George M. Perkins, assisted by Messrs. Butler, Peirce, and other aids.

The Exeter Band, (followed by the President and other officers of the Society, and distinguished guests, in carriages,) headed the long line.

Escort duty was admirably performed by a new company, under Capt. Geo. Britton. This company was only raised on Friday last, and to the fact that it was composed mainly of veterans, is due their splendid marching.

Next came a great turn-out from the establishment of J. S. & E. Bennett, Newmarket, consisting of: A team drawn by four fine horses and gaily decorated, upon which workmen were busily engaged in making tin ware. Nine pedler carts with a profusion of the Yankee notions they distribute far and wide through the country. A large wagon load of stoves.

Newmarket Town Team, with agricultural implements, drawn by twenty yoke of cattle.

Portsmouth Cornet Band.

Exeter Town Team, splendidly arranged, and drawn by forty yoke of cattle.

Epping Town Team, drawn by fourteen yoke of cattle.

Brentwood Town Team, drawn by fourteen yoke of cattle.

Danvers (Mass.) Brass Band.

North Hampton Town Team, drawn by thirteen yoke of cattle.

A very elegant wagon, drawn by four fine horses, containing ladies and gentlemen—"The Farmer's Club"—from North Hampton.

A very fine new omnibus, drawn by six spanking roadsters, of Batchelder & Co.'s Rye Beach line.

Stratham Town Team, drawn by ten yoke of cattle.

Kensington Town Team, drawn by ten yoke of cattle.

A great concourse of family teams, tandems, &c., followed. Of tandem teams there of Mr. Page of Lawrence, and mine host Dumas (of Boar's Head and Phenix hotels) were pre-eminent.

But I see "F." has arrived, and I leave further jottings for his pen. HOB ACE.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

Well, as the great H. A. has resigned in our favor, we suppose we must say a few words, though we kent hope to come within an ace of him. We didn't arrive in season to see the procession or hear the address, but both were no doubt satisfactory.

The Fair we call a nice show, though many we think were disappointed at not finding a larger display. The hall exhibition, especially of fancy articles, &c., is nothing like what we have had here—nor did we expect it. You would not find it often anywhere, especially in so small a town. From hasty examination, we should pronounce the fruit show good, vegetables fair, stock good—and the arrangements generally satisfactory, except the glorious uncertainty so common in such cases, as to what was coming next, and when and where? But then we don't see that folks who are pleasuring, need be quite so particular as to such matters. Better take things as they come, and get all the fun you can out of them.

The horse trot in the afternoon was a good one. Six horses entered for the purses of $25 and $15 offered to horses in the county which never trotted for money—in harness, best two in three. Woodbury Locke's grey mare Nellie W. Locke won the first in two straight heats, in 2:46 each; Henry R. Stoddard's sorrell mare Stella Stoddard took the second money in 2:56, 2:58—both good time on that half mile track.

This morning at 9 o'clock, plowing match. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, the best trotting is promised. The Portsmouth Cornet Band furnishes fine music.

— Look out for the 2's U. S. Treasury Notes. A fac-simile of the genuine, but the engraving is coarse.

— Dr. George B. Loring declines being a candidate for Congress in the Fifth Congressional District, Massachusetts.

— A Milford (Ct.) physician has had six cases of sprained ankles from base ball playing this season.

— Wilke's Spirit says that Dexter, the celebrated trotter, can make a mile in 2:15 under saddle.

☞ Information from Brenham, Texas, states that at that place, on the night of the 7th, there were two balls, one participated in by negroes and the other by whites. A party of Federal soldiers went to the negro ball and broke it up. They then went to the white ball and made some disturbance. Being asked to leave one of them knocked down one of the managers. Pistols were shortly afterward brought into use, and two soldiers were wounded. This broke up the ball, but in the store of Compton & Brosher, shortly after they left, a fire was discovered, which consumed that and six others of the largest stores in the town. Loss $85,000. Col. Mason, the commanding officer at Galveston, has gone up to Brenham to examine into the matter. A dispatch from Houston says, regarding the same affair: "Some Federal soldiers while attempting to enter a dancing school with negro wenches as partners were resisted and one of their number killed."

☞ Tuesday night an immense crowd gathered around Wood's Theatre, Cincinnati, where General Grant was witnessing the performances. There was a large military organization of "Boys in Blue," with a band of music. They endeavored to prevail upon the General to come out, but he peremptorily refused, and said to Col. Baker, their commander, as follows: "Sir—I am no politician. The President of the United States is my Commander-in-Chief. I consider this demonstration in opposition to the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson. If you have regard for me, you will take your men away. I am greatly annoyed at this demonstration. I came here to enjoy the theatrical performance. I will be glad to see you all to morrow, when the President arrives."

☞ In Albany, on Wednesday morning the saw and planing mill of L. & G. Park, blew up, killing 10 or 12 persons and seriously injuring 8 or 10 man. No cause is known, as the Engineer is killed. A number of persons were struck with fragments of timber and stone. The establishment covered an acre of ground. It is said the loss will be $20,000. It is believed that three or four bodies were thrown into the river, from which the mill is but a little distance.

☞ The New York Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondence of the 8th ult. says the allies were still in a morass, under the guns of the enemy, unable to advance or withdraw. Small pox had broken out in a malignant form among the soldiers. It was reported that the Paraguayans were advancing upon the allied camp at Corientes. The Paraguayans had been reinforced by 10,000 men.

— Administration of Lynch law in the First Maine District is thought to have given the Democrats a cold Sweat.—Ex.

— Henry Ward Beecher sent a dispatch to the meeting in his church Tuesday night, to welcome the Souther loyalists, extolling the devotion of the Southern gentlemen to the Union, and extending to them the right hand of fellowship.

— Elizur C. and George Briggs, a couple of brothers who have carried on a long series of thieving and plundering, in spite of all attempts to prevent it, were arrested at Smithfield, R. I., last week. Several hundred dollars worth of stolen goods were found in their possession.

— The Huntsville (Ala.) Independent of the 4th instant says: "R. W. Coltart, Esq., was arrested yesterday on a charge of treason. A bond of $15,000 was required of him and given. Mr. Coltart has been pardoned by the President long since. He was Confederate States Marshal for North Alabama."

— Andrew Stewart, who was killed at Indianapolis on Monday night, was buried Wednesday afternoon with imposing ceremonies. The funeral was one of the largest ever witnessed there. The Union League passed a resolution to attend the funeral in a body. The American flag was carried in the procession draped in mourning.

— The newsboys and bootblacks of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who have been gathered into an association by the charitable ladies of that place, paraded in force last Monday, proceeded by a fife and drum, cheered the newspaper offices as they passed them, and marched on board of a steamboat which took them on a holiday excursion to Wyandotte.

— Secretary McCulloch, notwithstanding the efforts of the interested parties to induce him to part with a portion of his gold reserve, has steadily declined to do so, being determined that the strength of the present financial condition of the Treasury shall be maintained and increased. The more gold held by the Government the greater the intrinsic value of its securities and the nearer its return to specie basis.

— There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 12

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The House of William Davis, of Pittsfield, was burned Monday night. Loss $12,000; no insurance.

—— The Dublin Baptist Association held its fifty-seventh anniversary in the Baptist Church in East Jaffrey on the 5th and 6th inst.

—— Hon. Amos Tuck has resigned his position as one of the Trustees of Dartmouth College, and Edward Spaulding, M. D., of Nashua has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

—— By a recent measurement Lake Winnipiseogee is found to be 600 feet above the level of the ocean, and Copple Crown Mountain 1400 feet above the level of the Lake—making Copple Crown 2000 feet high.

—— On Sabbath morning, 9th inst., two little boys were playing with matches in the barn of Mr. Enos Webster, of Antrim Centre. The hay caught fire, and the barn and all it contained was destroyed. The dwelling house was saved. The roof of the Presbyterian Meeting-House caught fire, but by prompt efforts the fire was put out before much damage was done.

—— There was a smart thieving operation successfully carried out in the town of Chichester a few nights since. Three hogs were stolen on the same night from three different farmers in that town. In one instance the thieves woke a man up in his farm house told him that one of their hogs had got out of the wagon into the road and asked his assistance to put him back. The farmer got up, dressed himself and readily complied, and the next morning when he went to feed his hog he missed the "morning grunt," and on looking into the pen found him non est. He had assisted the thieves to steal his own porker. At another house the farmer heard a squealing in the road late in the night and going to the door saw a man struggling with a porker. The same story was repeated and assistance given as at the other house, and the same scene was enacted at the pen in the morning. These cause considerable merriment at the expense of those who helped the midnight pokerites.

S. J. COURT, Dover.—On the 7th the Grand Jury returned 42 indictments, principally for violations of the liquor law, and were discharged. Most of the parties, pleading nol con, have paid their fines and been discharged, with an admonition to "sin no more." James Cannovan, stood trial, was found guilty, fined $50 and costs, and for want of the means to respond was committed.

Sylvester French and George H. Shapley of Middleton, indicted for creating a riot in that town last March meeting day, whereby sundry good citizens were prevented from voting, recognized in the sum of $300 each for appearance for trial at next term.

William A. Hurd, a boy 14 years old, for breaking and entering the store of S. S. Moulton, plead guilty, and was sent to the Reform School for 5 years.

Patrick Hefferen, on four indictments for an aggravated assault, was sentenced to jail for several months on each, amounting in the aggregate to between two and three years.

ENCAMPMENT AT DOVER.—The fall encampment of the First Congressional District of New Hampshire will take place at Dover Oct. 4, 5, and 6. The several companies in that district have been organized into the Second Regiment New Hampshire Volunteer State Militia, and Col. Augustus W. Rollins of Dover has been appointed commander. The regiment will include the Auburn Rifles, Grant Guards, Portsmouth City Guards, Strafford Guards, Granite State Zouaves, First Light Battery, Section "A," and the Bell Rifles. The encampment promises to be one of considerable military interest. On account of the few companies thus far organized, there will be no general muster the present season in the Third New Hampshire Congressional District, but the troops in that section will participate in the usual fall drill and parade.

THE NEW BOOK, "SHERBROOKE."—This new work from the press of Appleton & Co., New York, which has been advertised in our paper, is having a very large sale. It is one of the most interesting and at the same time high-toned books which has appeared for many a day. "Hope" and "Aunt Lydia" are characters which will not soon be forgotten by those who have read the work. It is very fascinating in plot and style, and so charms the reader that he is obliged to dispense with all other duties until the book has been finished.

— William H. Harris has been arrested in Chicago on suspicion of cutting his wife's throat and throwing her into the lake.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPROVED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other BITTERS, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the Brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1865. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Editor Portsmouth Chronicle:—SIR:

Having just returned from an excursion to your place, and wishing to return our heartfelt thanks for the hospitalities shown us: we desire to reach, through the columns of your journal, all those who were in any way connected with the glorious reception that we received. In the first place to the committee who met us at the depot and escorted us to the wharf and to the Shoals, and gave us a splendid dinner. Then to Sagamore Engine Co. No. 2, Foreman Tucker of No. 1, the Band, and all others that met us at the wharf and gave us a warm reception on our return from the Shoals, and marched us through many streets, led by your splendid band. Then especial praise is due to the Sagamore boys for the supper prepared for us by the gentlemanly proprietors of the City Hotel. The next invitation (which was accepted) took us to a beautiful hall, where all things were in readiness for a social dance. The order to form on was quickly obeyed and a few hours were very happily passed in dancing. Especial praise is due to the ladies for making this one of the most pleasant parts of our entertainment. From thence we returned to the City Hotel, where we spent a few hours in quiet slumber.

After taking breakfast we were escorted by members of No. 2, and other friends to different parts of the city, enjoying the hospitalities of many friends, including Mr. Glices of No. 2, Mr. Tucker of No. 1, Mr. Snow, Mr. Avery, Proprietors of City Hotel, Mr. Knights (where the barrel still run), and many others. We returned to the City Hotel, where we did ample justice to our dinner which was prepared for us. Again we returned to No. 2's House and spent a short time in social chat. Then we formed on and marched to the depot, accompanied by many friends, where we took our seats in the cars and started for home, all highly pleased with our reception and friendly treatment Per Order,

THE UMBRELLA in France.—A Paris letter writer gives a humorous description of how the umbrella was introduced into France. He says:

"The war drove so many Southern families abroad they formed a large sized colony here, and when they raised their umbrellas to keep off the sunbeams they kept one another in countenance. The other foreigners here seeing so many umbrellas raised on sunny days, thought, naturally enough, it was a Parisian custom, and conformed to it. The Parisians, in turn, seeing so many umbrellas raised, were persuaded it was a new fashion and conformed to it. They found it comfortable and persuaded their friends to adopt it. In this way the firing on Fort Sumpter has made the Southern fashion of using umbrellas to keep off the sunbeams as well as the cloud drops, popular in Paris."

— A gentleman one evening said to a lady, near whom he was seated, "why is a woman like a mirror?" she gave it up. "Because," said the rude fellow, "a mirror reflects without speaking, a woman speaks without reflecting," "Very good," said she. "Now answer me. Why is a man unlike a mirror?" "I cannot tell you." "Because the mirror is polished, and the man is not."

— A five-year-old, with trowsers, saw a street-sprinkler for the first time the other day. With intense appreciation of the fitness of things, he went home to tell his mother of "a man with a big wagon, who had a sprinkler on to keep the boys from catching behind."

— What should a man do when his boots leak? Take to his pumps, of course.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting Ten Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have had the best facilities for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to those which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. Combining these advantages and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN Applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN YAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

CHURCH BURNING.—The New Orleans Advocate states that two churches, one in Jefferson and the other in Carrolton, suburban towns of New Orleans, built by the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church North, for the benefit of colored Methodists, were recently burned—the work of incendiaries. Fortunatly both were insured. A Baptist church in New Orleans was lately nearly consumed by incendiary fire—the result of "my policy."

REMARKABLE CASE.—In September, 1810, a gentleman of Boston procured insurance there upon a house in Essex County, then owned and occupied by his three sisters. Monday the same gentleman renewed the insurance for another term of seven years, the house being still owned and occupied by the same three sisters as it was fifty-six years ago.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1866.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The weather on Friday was not promising, but the attendance was large. The plowing match came off in the enclosure, in the morning. The address of Dr. Geo. B. Loring of Salem, Mass., was not only a brilliant and beautiful oration, but also abounded in valuable information and sound practical and patriotic advice to farmers and other residents of New England.

Gov. Smyth, ex-President Pierce, Gen. Marston, Hon. J. D. Lyman of Farmington, and others, were on the stand. The Governor was called upon by President Weare of the Society for a speech, and made a good one too. We of this Chronicle have stood, up almost alone, for New Hampshire and New England against the world—California, "out West," or what not—for a dozen years or more; and it is refreshing to us to gain so eloquent and effective a coadjutor as His Excellency—whom we regard as really one of the most excellent men the State has got, especially for its Governor, and we go in for his renomination (if he will consent) for as many terms as Governors Langdon, Gilman and Wentworth served all together. The orator of the day, the Governor, and the ex-President—all "travelled" men—all agreed that nowhere in all the wide world is there more happiness or more cause for it, than here at home. Then why chase that will o'the-wisp, "success" or "content," to the world's ends, which can better be found among New Hampshire's granite hills.

One idea Gov. Smyth advanced was, that the annual cost of useless fences at roadsides and between fields (not pastures) in the State, would annually pay at least the interest on our New Hampshire debt of $4,000,000. Dr. Loring said we ought to raise oceans of the best wine in the world, on our hills, and that we have the best climate on earth for merino sheep, and our farmers ought to raise them to supply less favored localities.

Ex-President Peirce was loudly called for by the crowd,—a few voices crying "No, no." He rose, and commencing by saying that none need trouble thselves to shout no, for he could not be led into making a speech, except to say he was glad to be there—and that it was good to join in the socialities of such occasions, over and above the practical benefits derived. He was now urged by the united voice of the multitude to "go on, go on"—but pleasantly saying that he cared too much for his bearers and what there was to see, to go on, he sat down.

Mr. Lyman urged farmers not to break their boys' backs by hard work which the oxen and horses can do better and cheaper with the improved machinery.

The rain commenced ere Dr. Loring was half through—and umbrellas were in demand—but only a few left the grounds. The Governor afterwards said that all the men and all the women in the County ought to have heard it—and that he wanted to see more ladies there. A voice in the crowd replied that they were on hand yesterday, but the weather kept many away to-day. His Excellency said he wished he had been there yesterday—and that if he was going to select a wife, he should take her from among those who were not afraid to brave a little rain to hear such a splendid address as that. The voice again responded that the ladies' would all have been out had they known the Governor was going to be there—to which he said he had nothing to say.

In the afternoon, the great trot (and it was a great trot for these parts,) for $75 and $50, afforded much fun, although the rain persisted in coming down occasionally. The trot was mile heats, best 3 in 5, to harness, open to all horses. The Judges were Albert Blaisdell, Dudley Smith, E. F. Page, S. H. Dumas and Frank W. Miller. Gov. Smyth was in the stand during part of the heats. There were four entries—Woodbury Locke's g m Nellie Locke of Portsmouth, J. H. Ferguson's b m Katy also of Portsmouth, Mr. Wales' bl mare Jessie Wales of Concord, and Isaac Copp's s h Berkshire Boy of Haverhill. Nellie Locke made the best aggregate time for the three heats, 2:45, 2:45, 2:44 1-2 total 8:14 1 2, and took the first purse ($75) as she also did the day before. She is a beautiful and promising colt, and fit to trot for the county or State, and we predict will be heard from again, perhaps down in the thirties. We hope to see her at the State Fair. Her short, pegging gait, was greatly in her favor, on those sharp turns, over the other longer-reaching horses. But we like a quick stepper anywhere and always.

Jessie Wales did not show to good advantage, but took second money, in 2:44 1-2, 2:46 1-2, 2:45. She was very unsteady, and acted much as we have seen her sire, old Ajax—and for our part, anybody may have that stock who wants it, but we'll none of it.

Berkshire Boy (no colt there, and no green one) made the best heat, but buttered no onions with his winnings that day. His time was 2:44, 2:47, 2:51—and he was thrown off one heat (pronounced dead,) in which he came in ahead in 2:47, on account of gaining by running.

Katy, Mr. Ferguson's fine mare, which took first premium as the best mare exhibited—did not show to good advantage. She will show a great burst of speed when alone, but is too nervous and excitable among other horses.

The Premiums were declared from the stand between the heats—which we shall give on another day. The rain quickly dispersed the crowd—and all got home as soon as the train would take them; that is, those who didn't have to wait too long for the rain and the Hacks at the depot.

Thus ended this Fair. We shall give a few details of entries, from this direction, from Mr. Whittem's Reporter, to-morrow.

☞ The New Hampshire State Fair opens at Nashua to-morrow—to continue Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The attractions are great, as usual—that is, great to all who care anything about what is going on around us; and if a man don't, we think he might as well be "dead" in name, as he certainly is in reality. In addition to the programme, which we have given to our readers heretofore, and which included horse-trotting,—that most popular and attractive of all the features in any such exhibition—besides the regular premiums of the Society, the following Citizens' purses for trotting and running, are offered, to make the Fair interesting—and this will do it, sure.

Tuesday afternoon, $25 to the fastest four-year old trotting Stallion owned in the State; mile heats, best two in three, to harness, and $15 to second best. Same afternoon, $25 to the fastest three years-old Stallion owned in the State; $15 to second best. Mile heats, best two in three, to harness.

Wednesday afternoon, $75 to the fastest trotting Stallion owned in the State; $50 to second best. Mile heats, best three in five, to harness. Same afternoon, $25 to the fastest three-year-old Stallion owned in the State; $15 to second best. Mile heats, best two in three, to harness.

Thursday forenoon, $100 to the fastest horse from any State, mile heats, best three in five, to harness; $50 to second best, and $25 to third. In this there must be three entries to make a start, and in the other Citizens' purses at least two horses to make a start. Between the heats there will be $20 given for the fastest running horse, and $10 for the second best. Mile heats, best two in three.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Six pocket books and wallets were found on Tuesday morning in a stove of one of the cars of the Concord R. R. In one of them was a note of band for $1000.

—— The "Water War" is still waged in the region of Lake Winnepesogee; the chief seat of strategic operations being the outlet of Smith's Pond. So we learn from the Wolfeborough News.

—— The Concord Statesman says, when news reached New Hampshire that the Republican National Convention, in session at Baltimore, June, 1864, had put the name of Andrew Johnson upon their ticket for Vice-President, Rev. James Pike, who served in Congress with Johnson, remarked to the one who informed him of the fact, "Well, you've put up a demagogue."

—— Mr. William Robinson of Pelham, was shot by some unknown person at about three o'clock on Sunday morning, the 9th inst. Four large shots were lodged in his person, and a closely boarded gate, behind which he was standing at the time, probably saved his life, as it received a principal part of the charge. Mr. Robinson says his dog had kept up a barking from nine o'clock the previous evening to the time of the outrage. He rose from his bed and went out to see what caused his dog to be so excited, passed through the door-yard to the gate on the highway, and was in the act of opening it when he was fired upon from a corner of a building on the opposite side of the road, as above stated. His wounds, though very painful, are not considered dangerous.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser says, the Maine election has caused a visible consternation among the Johnsonites here, and is recognized by them as an indication of the political tendencies of the masses in the loyal States. Their advices from Pennsylvania are very discouraging, and the leaders are satisfied that the President's western tour will give the finishing stroke to the waning prospects of his new party.

☞ The Paris Moniteur publishes a Convention which was signed in the City of Mexico July 30, by which Maximilian transfers to French agents one-half of the receipts from Customs throughout the Empire for the purpose of paying the liabilities of Mexico to France. The Convention goes into operation on the 1st of November.

☞ The whole number of votes in Maine appears to be 112,000; Gen. Chamberlain's majority was about 28,000; being 9000 more majority than any governor ever had there.

☞ As Don Quixote went out on adventures, got into a tilt with the windmill, and got dreadfully battered; so Pres. Johnson, in his adventourous tour, has encountered a Democratic Windmill with similar result. Secretary Seward plays the part of Sancho Panza, with variations, but with indifferent success.

The President met the windmill in Pennsylvania on Wednesday. At New Market the crowd was demonstrative and had placards with "New Orleans" on them, and Gen. Cullum told them the President would not address them. At Steubenville opposition demonstrations were also made;—and at Pittsburg, when the President went out on a balcony, he was greeted with continuous hootings, hurras, hisses, and calls for Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut; but Judge McCandless tendered a welcome to the President in as loud a voice as possible. Mr. Johnson tried to reply, but was interrupted continually by cries of "My policy," 'New Orleans,' 'Jeff. Davis,' 'Grant,' groans, etc. After having accomplished a few sentences, the President beckoned to Gen. Grant, and when he appeared, bowed a few moments and retired.

The crowd, with the exception of a few small fights, was peaceably disposed and kept up its peculiar noises, shouting, etc., until a late hour in the evening.

At Newark, Ohio, the President said, unless the course of Congress is arrested by your suffrage, we shall have another civil war. It will not be between the North and the South, but an internecine war.—

[An internecine war has been going on for a year and a half in the occupant of the White House, between promise and breach, profession and practice, word and action. The poor man has used himself up, and is rapidly using up his new party and his new friends.]

At Johnston, Penn. on Friday, when the Presidential train arrived, 400 or 500 people had gathered on a dry bridge over an old canal, which was a receptacle of coal dust and rubbish. The bridge broke down, and the people went down about 20 feet.—It is said seven or eight persons were killed, five or six in a dying condition, and ninety seriously and a large number slightly injured. Twelve physicians left Pittsburg for Johnston.

At Harrisburg, the President made his usual speech, on Friday, after dinner.

At Baltimore Friday evening, the City Council postponed the resolution extending a reception to President Johnson. The Governor of the State met him at the line of Maryland Saturday morning and escorted him to Baltimore.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's special Washington dispatch says the President is reported to have said, in speaking of Jeff. Davis, that if he was not tried at the October term by the Court in which he has been indicted, he should be released. As it is understood that he will not be tried at that term, his release may be expected soon after the beginning of October. It is further reported that Jeff. Davis indignantly refused to be released on condition of leaving the country never to return. The reader may take this for about what he thinks it is worth.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For the speedy cure of

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the miasma of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Ague" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover it is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure as it is to cure the Fever and Ague, it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au19

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, it re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the whole system, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to put a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Local.

☞ The Mechanics' Reading Room, which is now in its second year, and is permanently established in Mr. Carr's fine room at the corner of State and Pleasant streets—is one of the most creditable and useful institutions in the city. The advertisement of the managers in another column, is worthy the attention of all citizens, and the "Exchange" should be well patronized.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 14th.—Messrs. Palmer, Sullivan, Murphy, Norton (Irish) and Conner, found guilty of stealing pies, turnovers and jumbles from store of George W. Plummer, were fined $3 each, and ordered to pay each one fifth costs of prosecution taxed at $6.39, and to pay Plumer $2.10. All five of the seekers after "hash," turned over the portion of the $23.49, and went their way, glad to be so easily "shut" of their jumble.

PRESENTATION.—At a meeting of the Rockingham Base Ball Club on Friday evening, Mr. W. W. Palfrey was made the recipient of an "elegant" silk hat together with two pieces of siver plate appropriately inscribed, tendered by the club in token of their appreciation of his untiring efforts in securing their recent successes. Dr. A. P. Stevens on behalf of his friends, in a pithy, witty and most felicitous speech presented the articles, while the recipient with his usual becoming modesty tendered his sincere thanks for the unexpected favor.—Later in the evening the party were "elegantly" entertained by Mr. Palfrey at the Rockingham House, and the occasion will long be remembered by all who participated.

Dulce est decipere in loco.

☞ The Boar's Head Hotel, Hampton Beach, will close a most successful season the last of next week. The fine shooting, in the great marshes adjacent, induces the guests to prolong the season, and Dumas takes good care that their stay shall be pleasant.

☞ To morrow evening there will be a crowd at the Temple, to be pleased by the excellent performance of that star troupe—Cotton & Murphy's Minstrels.

☞ The regular weekly Rehearsal of the Philharmonic Society, takes place at Mercantile Hall, on Tuesday evening at half past 7 o'clock. Business of special importance will be presented.

For the Chronicle.

To Hon. D. Marcy, President Johnson Club

SIR, I do not wish to be considered as belonging to your party, as since I joined it, in hopes of office, an east wind has dissipated my hopes, and I am now just nowhere and no party will have me.

Yours &c., WEATHERCOCK.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors—I see by your paper of the 15th inst. that one "C. C. W." wishes the public to understand, in substance, that he is not a Johnson man but that he is yet a Republican, and that his immense influence will be given, as heretofore, to that party. I would inquire if said W. was "on the fence" prior to the Maine election, and if said election has tended to fructify and strengthen his former political views; and last, but not least, what government office he is fishing for—his fame not having, as yet, penetrated eight miles southwest from "Clam Shell Corner." PLAINJOGGER.

☞ Messrs. McKay & Aldus of East Boston have just completed a beautiful locomotive for the Eastern Railroad, called the "Geo. Peabody," in compliment to the first President of that road. This engine weighs twenty eight tons, has four wheels and four trucks; the drivers are five feet diameter, with Vickers' steel tires, and the trucks are twenty eight inches in diameter. The boiler is fifteen feet long, four feet diameter, hooped with brass. The steam drum and sand box are also brass, polished bright as a mirror. The cylinders are sixteen by twenty-two inches, brass mounted. The cab is made of ash and cherry, is lined with cherry, and painted in beautiful colors interlined with gilded ribbons and flower work. The name of "Geo. Peabody" is painted and gilded on each side below the windows. This engine has Mr. John Thompson's patent smoke arch. Mr. Thompson, who is master mechanic of the Eastern road, was the first to apply coal for fuel on that road.

☞ A notice of the Manchester Business College, in another column, is worthy attention. The reputation of Bryant, Stratton & Co.'s chain of colleges is second to none in the country.

☞ The following is a special dispatch to the New York Tribune: from Columbus Ohio, Sept. 13.—In conversation with Gen. Cox last evening, Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut declared their disapproval of the President's policy and commended that of Congress. Both gentlemen said substantially that they were participants in the President's campaign tour by express instructions, and not from any inclination on their part. The conversations were not strictly private, for several parties were present.

☞ The latest reports from Mexico are favorable to the Liberals.

☞ William Cooley, the robber who was killed at Chelsea, it is said had lost over $1100 in gambling in Boston, within a few months.

VERMONT.—Returns from 194 towns in Vermont make the Republican majority for Governor 20,369. Of the representatives elected from 217 towns, 13 are Democrats.

— A Pittsburg dispatch says, Sec. Seward was dangerously ill Friday night.

— A valuable trotting horse, India Rubber, died at the Riverside Park, Cambridge, Mass., Friday night. Poison is suggested.

— By the accidental fall of the bridge at Johnstown, Pa., 12 persons were killed; 89 badly wounded, and about 100 slightly injured.

— A man named Griffin, was killed by an engine on the Boston & Maine Railroad, near Malden, Friday night, as he walked on the track.

— Frank W. Rounds, a clerk in Boston, shot his employer, Adolph Prager, in his store, 381 Washington street, Saturday.—Rounds is in custody. Prager is living. Rounds had two revolvers, and a small pistol. Three successive shot, made a wound each.

— A New Orleans dispatch says there is an unusual demand in that city for firearms of every description, and dealers report prosperous times. Everybody, white and black, carries concealed weapons, and prospects for another riot are excellent. [The natural front of the President's policy, letters and speeches.]

Holloway's Pills.—Debility and Languor.—To remove the cause and prevent the effects is the true theory on which the treatment pursued by these medicines is founded. Languor arises from debility, and debility from the impoverishment of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. If from the latter, the Pills are the best tonic medicines in use, and for their purifying and sanative properties they stand unequalled. For sick headache, nervous disorders, constipation, indigestion and depression of spirits, they are the only remedy. Sold by all druggists.

— The Staunton (Va.) Spectator says there is a negro woman on Mountain Top, near Staunton, who is 130 years old.

— A Bordeaux journal mentions that an old man aged one hundred and thirty-three years, residing in the commune of Talence, was three days back summoned before the Tribunal of Correctional Police in that city for trespass, and appeared in person to answer the charge.

— One of the oldest women in America is a Mrs. Porch, who lives in the mountains of East Tennessee, and is aged one hundred and twenty-one years. She is blind, but being quite hearty, walks without assistance. Her memory is unimpaired, and she can recount many of the events of the Revolution with great accuracy.

— The Alabama Legislature has appointed a committee to inquire into the expediency of donating 320 acres of public land to each Confederate soldier who, by reason of wounds received in the late war, is incapacitated from labor.

— The Southwestern Mining Company, which was started in New Orleans several weeks ago by some ex-Confederates, and whose pretended object was to develop the mineral resources of the State, has exploded, and the proprietors have absconded to parts unknown, taking with them about $70,000 which had been raised by subscription.

MYSTERY.—"Mother," said a little fellow of four years old, "if a man is a mister, ain't a woman a mystery?" The greatest mystery in the world to us, is that any one will buy any other Saleratus but Herrick Allen's Gold Medal. It cures dyspepsia, strengthens weak stomachs, saves your teeth from decaying, saves one-half the quantity of shortening, besides it takes no little of the Saleratus to do its work. Try it. AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, and with dispatch. Research is made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents, or to ascertain the novelty of any invention. Advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any by which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other solicitor of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to amass a late a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of his skill and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

FRENCH WITHDRAWAL FROM MEXICO. The Paris correspondent of the London Times, recording some French speculations on the result of withdrawing the foreign dynasty from Mexico, says:

"To recover a comparatively small sum due to French subjects, many millions have been expended. In the end it may be the wisest plan to accept the loss, and so to avoid future complications. To leave garrisons in the seaports to collect, for the benefit of France, the Custom-house duties, would be to sacrifice numerous valuable lives by yellow fever, and to keep up a permanent feeling of irritation and hostility on the part of the Juarists, who certainly will not accept engagements entered into by the outgoing Emperor. Commercially speaking, the firm of Napoleon, Maximilian & Co. (the sleeping partner need not be named) have embarked in a disastrous speculation, and the wisest thing they can do is to pass the money expended to the profit and loss account, and forget the whole affair as soon as possible. No prophetic eye is needed to foresee the state of anarchy and misery into which Mexico will soon again fall, and whence escape is hardly to be hoped until, at some future day, the United States shall extend their way southward and put an end to a spectacle long a scandal to civilization."

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.—The official report of Gen. Baird on the riot in New Orleans says:

"Since the riot, I have been informed by gentlemen of the highest character—planters of wealth and influence belonging to the party inimical to the Convention—that the question of its meeting had been by them fully discussed in all of its bearings; that it had been proposed, first, to treat it with ridicule; next to go into the movement, and by superior numbers to send delegates to overwhelm and control it. But upon reflecting that the members already elected would be the judges as to the qualifications of new ones, it was feared that this purpose might be frustrated, and it was then determined to treat the meeting as an unlawful assemblage, and as such to break it up at all hazards."

SENDING COALS TO NEWCASTLE.—When Sir Morton Peto was in this country he found out among other things that we had better coal than that taken from the English mines. In consequence of that discovery the ship Rebecca on Tuesday sailed for England with four hundred tons of anthracite white ash lump coal, taken from a Pennsylvania mine. Many competent judges have decided that this coal is unusually well adapted for locomotive and cupola purposes.

— What five letters form a sentence of forgiveness? Ixqqu.

— Extensive beds of coal of a superior quality are said to have been discovered in the County Clare, Ireland.

— We are pleased to notice the promotion of Edwin Putnam, to full Paymaster in the U. S. Navy. He entered the Navy in 1862.

— R. M. T. Hunter is living quietly at his place in Essex, Va., attending to farming with great energy, and striving to retrieve his fortune and repair the losses inflicted by the war.

— On Saturday, 8th inst., a workman at Lawrence's shot and shell establishment at West Troy was blown to pieces by the explosion of a shell. He was removing the filling, and failing to remove the cap with a wrench, attempted to accomplish it with a chisel. The result was that the fuse was ignited by a spark produced by the contact of the steel and iron.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is just the thing to please the ladies. The maker studies their wants and wishes, and leaves nothing undone which will make a washing day a gala day; and from the sale of it, we should think it was appreciated by them. The lady who does not enjoy the advantage of its good qualities is deprived of a great luxury in the way of white, nice clothes. Go at once and get a supply.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1866.

☞ After Mr. Beecher had written his first letter, but before he wrote the second, one of our coppery exchanges had the following item:

Henry Ward Beecher is out for President Johnson and the immediate admission of the Southern States to representation in Congress. It is an able letter, and should be read from every pulpit in New England as a christian view of the present struggle.

We don't think any of them will call for the reading of the second letter, tho' it is quite as able, but not quite so foolish.

SOME DIFFERENCE.—The Dover Gazette of last Friday begins an editorial in this way:

That the Republican party is now divided from "stem to stern," there can no longer be any doubt.

The Concord Statesman of the same day begins a similar article thus:

The apostacy of Andrew Johnson is strengthening the Republican party. Our ranks are closer, our zeal more ardent, our determination more resolute, than when we were hoping the President would be true to his trust. * * * This is the tone of all the Republican papers. From the eastern boundary of Maine to the western limits of Minnesota, the Republican party is an unit.

CLOSE OF THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.—On Saturday, at Baltimore, the President was received at the depot by Gov. Swann, who welcomed him in favor of the people—the civic authorities having refused to pay special honors to the Chief Magistrate.—It was quite suitable for Gov. S. to do this, as he was elected by loyal votes, but now goes over to the ex-rebel. The President made his usual speech there, and afterward at the Eutaw House, where there was a banquet. Gen. Grant left on the early afternoon train for Washington, and therefore was not present at the banquet.

The President arrived at Washington at 7.40 in the evening, and in front of the City Hall, Mayor Wallach welcomed him in a brief speech, to which the President replied tendering him his thanks.

The procession of the military and civic associations accompanied the President to the Executive Mansion. In his speech there, he said:—

All I can promise you for the future is, that there will be a continuance of my conduct in the past. I have tried to discharge my official duties in compliance with the Constitution and the principles which I deemed to be right. I will add that the sentiment which you exhibit to-night is not peculiar to yourselves, but that which prevaded the country wherever I have been. My own opinion is that the expression which has gone abroad to the country with regard to sustaining a government of constitutional laws, is unmistakable and not to be misunderstood, and I believe the day is not far distant when the judgement of the American people will be made manifest, that this Union must be restored; that peace, prosperity and harmony must again prevail throughout the United States. I believe I can safely testify that the greater portion of your fellow-citizens that I have visited, and I have seen millions of them since I left you, will accord with you in sustaining the principles of free government in compliance with the Constitution of the country.

On Sunday the President kept quiet, at home, needing rest. Secretary Seward is reported to be better.

☞ Large tobacco crops this year, in Connecticut and Southern Indians.

☞ The total value of the prizes to be given at the Paris Exposition is $160,000 in gold. In the department of arts there are 17 grand prizes, valued at $400 each; 32 first prizes, valued at $160 each; 44 second prizes, valued at $100 each, and 46 third prizes, valued at $80 each. Besides these there are to be various other grand prizes and allowances of money, of a total value of $10,000; 100 gold medals, $200 each; 1000 silver medals, 3000 bronze medals, and over 5000 "honorable mentions."

JUST SO.—The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says "The President does not fully comprehend the feeling of the North." He will know by the time the fall elections are over.

— When are soldiers like good flannels? When they don't shrink.

— A "one-armed soldier" who was soliciting charity in Philadelphia the other day was found to have the missing arm ingeniously concealed behind his back, notwithstanding an empty coat sleeve dangled from his shoulder.

— The Springfield Republican says: The lady for whom Senator Sumner, at rising 50 years of age, is going to cease to be a bachelor and soon marry, is Mrs. Sturges Hooper, daughter in-law of Representative Hooper of Boston, and a beautiful and accomplished young woman.

— A fourth unsuccessful attempt to rob P. T. Barnum's house in Bridgeport, Connecticut, was made last Monday morning about 1 o'clock. The rogues succeeded in shoving back a window spring and raising the window, but the "magnetic alarm" commenced ringing violently, and put a stop to their operations.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A slight frost was observed at Exeter on Sunday morning.

—— Maj. Gen. Robinson, in a General Order dated Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 1, referring to Clinton A. Cilley, son of Rev. D. P. Cilley, speaks thus: "In parting with Col. Cilley, the Assistant Commissioner cannot withold his tribute to the rare ability and fidelity with which this officer has discharged the delicate and responsible duties of his position. A soldier from the commencement of the war for the Union, by courage and gallantry in the field, and marked ability in all positions in which he has been placed, Colonel Cilley has won for himself an enviable reputation, and given evidence that the same qualities carried into civil life, cannot but insure him well merited success." Cilley now leaves the service and intends to finish his legal studies, and practice in North Carolina.

—— The Rochester Courier tells the following story of "eleven obstinate men":

On Tuesday afternoon the case of State vs. Roberts, (which was an indictment for keeping liquor for sale at the lower tavern in Rochester,) was given to the jury. The vote on first stood ten for conviction, and two for acquittal; but as soon as one of those for acquittal saw how strong the jury stood for conviction he changed his vote.—The other one held out refusing to be governed by the persistent obstinacy (?) of eleven men, in consequence of which the jury were kept out over night and until Wednesday forenoon, when it was announced that eleven of jurymen couldn't agree—with the twelvth! The case will come up for trial again at the February term of court.

☞ In Massachusetts, the Republican Union Convention nominated their whole State Ticket for re-election. Dr. George B. Loring, of Salem, declines to be a candidate for Representative to Congress from the Fifth District. In a letter announcing his withdrawal from the canvass, he comes out nobly, and says:

I am exceedingly grateful to those who have expressed that confidence in me which a constituency should always have in a representative; but I am sure they have not forgotten the long service of those who have born the burden and heat of the day, and who naturally feel that they are entitled to their reward; and I should be especially unwilling to have any small service in the work which every friend of freedom loves, presented as in every way equivalent to the great labors of the workers and thinkers of the war, or as entitled to a moment's consideration in comparison with them.—You will do me the justice to remember that it was a dark hour in our country's history when I felt it my duty to sustain, with all my power, those great political truths which the war has secured to the American people; but it proved to be the darkness which precedes the dawn, and the weary watches of the night were nearly over. All honor to the faithful watchers! In the gloom which overhangs the present and threatens the future, I trust we shall do our duty as faithfully as they did theirs.

☞ The Boston Transcript, in an article on the Maine election, says:

We especially congratulate two men of whom Maine may well be proud, on this victory in their State, namely, William Pitt Fessenden, the Chairman of the Congressional Committee on Reconstruction, whose masterly report against the President's policy made him specially the official "traitor" to Johnsonian treason; and Hannibal Hamlin, who flung the commission of the most lucrative office in New England into the face of the apostate giver, and then threw himself heart and soul into opposition to his policy and designs. Both of those men have their reward in the overwhelming testimony which their State has just given to their integrity as well as to their intelligence.

☞ Messrs. J. E. Butler & Co., the enterprising publishers of the Union and Journal at Biddeford, have just issued a Directory of Biddeford and Saco, including a Business Directory of York County, with statistics of County interest, times of holding Courts, Magistrates, &c. It is a work of 131 pages, neatly printed, and will prove of great service to our York County friends, and to persons doing business with the people of that locality.

CROSBY ART ASSOCIATION.

ATTEMPT TO IMPAIR PUBLIC CONFIDNCE IN THE ENTERPRISE.

[FROM CHICAGO POST, August 23d.]

An attempt has just been made to impair public confidence in the integrity of purpose of Mr. Crosby in his great Art Association enterprise. Some irresponsible individual maliciously, and certainly without any grounds, had telegraphed to several eastern newspapers that the people have lost confidence in the scheme being carried out, or the prizes ever awarded. Now the people in Chicago know that no one has ever expressed the slighest doubt of the integrity of Mr. Crosby, or his ability to carry out to the letter the Advertised project of the Association. The sale of tickets has been, within the past two weeks, brisker than ever, and never has there been the slightest indication of their depreciating in value. In the following card Mr. Crosby reiterates his ability and determination to carry out the plan of the Association. Mr. Nickerson guarantees his undertaking, and the committee appointed to superintend the awarding of premiums endorse both. The people of Chicago require no such guarantees, but on the contrary the whole city would be ready, if required, to guarantee both the committee, Mr. Nickerson and Mr. Crosby himself, who originated, and who is so successfully carrying out the Art Association scheme.

To the Members of the Crosby Opera House Art Association:

The sale of certificates in the Association has already been so great as to enable me to state that the distribution of premiums heretofore announced will be made to their satisfaction, or the money refunded.

U. H. CROSBY, Actuary, A. A.

Having the utmost confidence in the ability of Mr. Crosby to carry out his enterprise, I hereby guarantee his undertaking, as above announced.

SAM'L M. NICKERSON.

Chicago, Aug. 21, 1866.

The undersigned, members of the Committee appointed to superintend the awarding of premiums to the members of the Crosby Opera House Art Association, take pleasure in stating that we have full confidence in the integrity of Mr. Crosby, and in the responsibility of Samuel N. Nickerson, Esq., his guarantor, and assure the public that we will believe the above proposal will be carried out in good faith.

[From N. Y. Sunday Times.]

It is very rarely that we feel inclined to call the attention of our readers to any of the "gift" arrangements with which our papers have lately been flooded; but this scheme of what we may call the Crosby Art Union, is so largely and generously conceived, as well as handsomely and unequivocally indorsed by the leading citizens of Chicago, that we unheritatingly give it our cordial approval. The cost of the Opera House was $600,000, and the individuals who are disposed to purchase such a property, at such a price, are rare, even when its accompanying stores, offices and studios rent for $20,000. What in this case was to be done? Mr. Crosby, or those who may be associated with him, are sagacious men. They originated this "art association;" so broadly and liberally arranged it can scarcely fail of insuring itself a positive success. In the first place, they offer to every subscriber, not alone a share in the Opera House, with the chance of untimately becoming its sole proprietor, but a possibility of obtaining also other very valuable premiums. These consist of Bierstadt's great painting, "The Yo Semite Valley;" Cropsey's "American Autumn;" Schussele's national work, "Irving and his Friends;" as well as works by all the leading artists of of the country. The first seven are in actual value $43,000. That this is a positively genuine offer no doubt can exist, as the artists give it in their unhesitating and cordial approval. Under any circumstances this ought to guarantee purity of intention; but when such a series of prominent citizens of the Western Metropolis permit Mr. Crosby to use their names in his advertisements as a proof of his good faith, such a guarantee is immeasureable strengthened. At the same time we may call the attention of the timidly speculative to the fact that every purchaser of a share receives an engraving of at least double the value of the money which he has paid. The whole scheme is so magnificent in all its arrangements that we shall indeed be surprised should Mr. Crosby not speedily realize the whole amount required by him.

U. H. CROSBY, Actuary, No. 625 Broadway, or No. 28 Opera House, Chicago.

☞ In New York, a day or two since, Mr. Joseph G. Edgewell, the well known manufacturer of fireworks, was severely strangled by a quid of tobaccco lodging in his windpipe. In his efforts to dislodge it, a blood vessel was ruptured, which, it is feared, will prove fatal.

☞ The Republican Committee at Washington have collected and preserved President Johnson's travelling speeches, and talk of printing them as a Campain Document. Even the New York News says "it is useless to attempt to overlook the fact that the late speechifying tour of the President was the greatest blunder that functionary could possible have committed." It submits the following explanation of the President's blunder:

"The fact of the matter is, that he has unfortunately allowed himself to be hoodwinked and bamboozled by the wily and unscrupulous demagogue of the State Department, who has determined to sacrifice him that he may not be in his way when the time arrives for the people to select the next President."

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par.

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price,

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by paddling, waking, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Gout, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have the hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy; one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the chest, it will stop the toothache; gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

Actg. Vol. Lieut. Geo. R. Durand; Actg. Engineers Thomas Golding, John F. Perry; John D. Thomas and C. A. Stewart; Mate Gardner G. Symms; Actg. 3d Asst. Engineers Leo Bertsch, Joseph T. Mickley, John G. Ballis and George Taylor, have been detached from the Muscoota and placed on waiting orders.

Actg. Ensign Andrew J. Iverson has been detached from the Muscoota, and granted leave.

☞ The new Ward Room, on the site of the old South Meetinghouse, is progressing nicely. Beside the Ward Room, there will be a School Room in the building, while the tower will contain a clock and bell.

☞ Mr. Whittem's Fair Reporter No. 3 not having come to hand in season, we defer further details of the County Show.

☞ Cotton & Murphy's Minstrels have won for themselves a golden fame in this city, and those wishing good seats to-night would do well to go early. Their present tour has been a most successful one so far, as the better they are known, the greater their popularity.

☞ The friends of Engineer Perry, of Steamer Pioneer, should give him a rousing benefit, on Wednesday evening, for which purpose an excursion to the Shoals is advertised elsewhere.

☞ On Thursday, Sept. 20, the Steamer Pioneer will make a pleasant trip to Hampton, the Shoals, &c., leaving Railroad Wharf at half-past 10 o'clock, A. M., and returning at about 5 in the afternoon.—Lovers of aquatic parties will enjoy a grand treat therein.

☞ The regular weekly Rehearsal of the Philharmonic Society, takes place at Mercantile Hall, on Tuesday evening at half-past 7 o'clock. Business of special importance will be presented.

☞ At Newbern, N. C., on Sunday morning, a fire broke out near the corner of Broad and Middle streets at one o'clock, which destroyed two squares located between Broad and Pollock streets from Middle street, burning fifty buildings. The Times estimates the total loss at $200,000 The Commercial thinks it will reach $500,000 with less than $75,000 insurance. Much suffering will be caused by this disaster. The fire was the work of incendiaries, for whose apprehension a large reward has been offered by the city authorities.

☞ In New York city, John C. Braine, the rebel naval lieutenant who headed the party that seized the steamer Chesapeake in December, 1863, has been arrested on the charge of murdering the engineer at that time. Documents were found in his possession, showing that he had joined a secret organization in New Orleans last month, called the Knights of Arabia.

☞ Great preparations are making for the U. S. Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which will meet at Pittsburg, Penn., on the 25th Sept. It bids fair to be very numerous:—and is not expected to praise the President in very glowing terms.

☞ The officers' convention of Soldiers and Sailors, meet at Cleveland, Ohio, on Monday. This convention is expected to endorse President Johnson and his policy, after the fashion of the Wigwam Convention.

☞ The latest advices from Europe look like a renewal of the war which has just closed.

— Why cannot two slender persons ever become great friends? Because they will always be slight aquaintances.

GOLD, Monday, 145 1-2.

— A private letter from Jefferson, Texas, to a resident of Albany, N. Y., says: "This is a great country. We have a fight every day with the d—d niggers. You can bet we slaughter them by the wholesale. I think in the course of a few years we shall have a white settlement. Tell your father-in-law I am making good use of the revolver he gave me."

— A boy of eighteen was recently executed at Manchester, England, for murder. He acknowledged his guilt to warn all young people of both sexes to be obedient to their parents, not to neglect the Sabbath, the school and the Bible, and against all profaneness and debauchery, and especially against evil company, which he said was his ruin.

— "Carleton," of the Boston Journal, spent the 18th of August in Melrose, Scotland, and writes of a Fair held for the sale of lambs only, "Each shepherd carried with him his own netting and stakes, and, reaching the fair ground, erected his own enclosure. There were between 70,000 and 80,000 lambs on the ground. Thousands of people were there, buying and selling lambs, and having 'a good time generally.'"

☞ An English paper describes the fulfilment of a curious provision in the will of an eccentric man. Mr. John Knill, first an attorney, then steward at St. Ives for the Duke of Buckingham, next collector of customs at that place, and finally a bencher of Gray's Inn, who built the pyramidal monument which overlooks St. Ives, left a large sum of money, the interest of which was to be given quinquennially to five young maidens who were to dance round the monument. In the centre is a hollow, destined for Mr. Knill's remains, but he was buried in St. Andrew's Church, Holborn. A week or two since, the trustees found five girls ten years old, witnessed the dance, and paid the girls 10s. each for their adherence to Mr. Knill's peculiar wish.

Holloway's Pills.—Debility and Languor.—To remove the cause and prevent the effects is the true theory on which the treatment pursued by these medicines is founded. Languor arises from debility, and debility from the impoverishment of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. If from the latter, the Pills are the best tonic medicines in use, and for their purifying and sanative properties they stand unequalled. For sick headache, nervous disorders, enervation, indigestion and depression of spirits, they are the only remedy. Sold by all druggists.

FADING AWAY.—How often we see men and women who are fairly fading out of existence. They seem to have no especial disease, but general lassitude and languor; no ambition, no energy, indigestion, weakness, total inability to eat and relish food, &c., &c.,—all of which is nothing but Dyspepsia.

THE JOHNSON ARGUMENT,

Throughout all his harrangues, from Washington to Chicago, on which his policy is founded, consists of but two propositions, viz: 1st, The war is at an end; the rebels were compelled to submit; they have complied with his terms—i. e. they have acknowledged the death of slavery, repudiated their own debt, and acknowledge the right to be taxed for the national debt. 2. Taxation without representation is unconstitutional. Not a word about State provisions to secure the millions feed by the Constitutional amendment in their civil rights—the franchise is not a demand of Congress, it never has been, though a small minority have contended for it. Andrew Johnson's terms, as above, being complied with, he proclaims their constitutional right of representation, and to the enjoyment of the same privileges which were theirs before they rebelled—all of which they forfeited and lost—and Mr. Seward, and Mr. Weller, and the great Mr. Doolittle, and the Democratic party, and every rebel in the South, agree with him.

Now the Constitutional Amendment gives four millions of men, heretofore held as slaves, all the civil rights—the franchise is not a demand of Congress, it never has been, though a small minority have contended for it. Andrew Johnson's terms, as above, being complied with, he proclaims their constitutional right of representation, and to the enjoyment of the same privileges which were theirs before they rebelled—all of which they forfeited and lost—and Mr. Seward, and Mr. Weller, and the great Mr. Doolittle, and the Democratic party, and every rebel in the South, agree with him.

MANUFACTURING PROJECT AT AUGUSTA, MAINE.—The Augusta (Maine) Farmer states that a movement has been inaugurated, which, if successful, will have a very important influence upon the business growth and prosperity of that city. It is the contemplated sale of the Kennebec Water Power Company's property, embracing the dam, the cotton factory, mills, machine shops, and all other improvements belonging to the company on both sides of the river, to parties who are in negotiation for the same. (Understood to be the Spragues of Rhode Island.) If the sale shall be consummated, it is proposed by the purchasers to enter immediately upon the erection of extensive works for the manufacture of cotton and wool, involving the expenditure of millions of dollars. We understand that the negotiations between the paties referred to are in satisfactory progress, the only contingency being whether the purchasers will be able to obtain additional land necessary for the erection of the works of the new company at reasonable prices.

IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, General Dix has dropped out of the nomination for Governor, and the Johnsonocracy have nominated Mayor Hoffman of New York city for that office. The Albany correspondent of the N. Y. Times says that Hoffman's name is not the one preferred by the majority of Republicans in the Convention. The World says there was no reason why "a regular Democrat should not be taken, and declares there never was a ticket which will poll such a prodigious vote in New York city as the Hoffman ticket. The Herald says Hoffman's destiny is an "inglorious defeat," and that the whole ticket "will be buried out of sight in the November election."

Hoffman's record shows that, just prior to the last Presidential election, he said at a meeting in Wall street that the only certain way of bestowing peace on the country was to hurl "Lincoln and his minions from power and elect General McClellan." He then proceeded to condemn the War Democrats and their principles. His election, if he should be chosen now, would be a reaction in favor of rebellion, treason and confusion; but the probabilities are very much against him: in the worst parts of the city he is strong; but in the best parts of the State he is weak.

— The joker of the Portland Press imagines a question being asked, what a distinguished conservative divine would do with the Ship of State if he had the helm, and promptly replies that he would beacher.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1866.

INTIMIDATION ATTEMPTD. — There seems to be a determination on the part of the President to bring on an armed collision with Congress, in case a sufficient number of Democratic representatives should be elected to constitute, with the Southern members, a majority of the whole number of which Congress may by law consist.—He promises, by aid of the army, to suppress the majority of the Representatives from the loyal States in that event, and to make a Congress of his own, in defiance of the will of the loyal masses and their legal representatives. But suppose that the people not only sustain the action of the last Congress by returning the same or an equal number of members opposed to the President's policy; suppose that they make a decided gain of this class, thus recording the unequivocal verdict of the people—will the President respect that, and give a peaceful acquiescence? It would seem not, by what he said at Newark, Ohio. His language is thus reported:

"Unless the course of Congress is arrested by your suffrage, we shall have another civil war. It will not be between the North and South, but an internecine war."

Now, (says the Boston Journal,) who is to make this war but the President and his associates? The people of the North, of all parties, have hitherto yielded a prompt acquiescence to the decisions of the ballot box, nor have we seen any indications on their part that they will do differently here after. The President, therefore, leaves it to be inferred that he is going to make the "internecine war" which he seems to have discovered in the future. Taken, then, with the plot to overthrow Congress, what have we but the most shameless attempt to overawe and intimidate the people? If they fail to sustain the last Congress, he will resort to arms to reinstate the whole rebel community and their representatives. On the other hand, if they do sustain Congress, then he threatens "another civil war."

This sounds like the crack of the old slave-drivers' whip;—and it is echoed all around by the Copperhead and rebel papers:—We see something of it in papers "down east" :—The New York World, and the Times talk in the same way. The World says:—

"Every ship and gunboat would be placed under command of officers of known fidelity to the President. Every fort, arsenal and armory would, in like manner be committed to faithful men. Every army officer who faltered could be relieved from duty; every one who was unfaithful could be court martialed and cashiered for disobedience."

The process is thus plainly stated by John Forsyth, editor of the Mobile Register, in a recent letter from New York to his paper:

"The Democratic Conservative party of the North is fixed and firm in the resolve not to submit to a minority Radical dominion, and if enough of Conservatives are sent to the next Congress to constitute, with the Southern members, a constitutional quorum, the claim of that Congress to recognition will be maintained at all hazards. The struggle will be here at the North."

It is for this the President has been preparing in his long, studied abuse of Congress as an "unconstitutional body," "hanging on the verge of the Government," &c., &c. This is what he had in view in his repeated language of threats and intimidation to the people of the North. But the people of the free States are putting their feet on all these threats;—and in "the struggle here at the North," at the polls, they are victorious over the Johnsonian confederacy: taking Vermont and Maine—as specimens, they will tread out the smouldering ashes of the Johnson civil war.

TROUBLE IN MISSOURI.—A Leavenworth dispatch says: After the adjournment of the Platte county Radical Convention, at Platte City, Mo., on Saturday, a drunken Union soldier named Donnegan made some noise on the street and flourished a pistol about. Sheriff Ogden took his pistol away and told him to keep quiet, which he did. A short time afterward a returned rebel named Callahan, with a posse of ten men, demanded the surrender of Donnegan. A scuffle ensued and pistols were freely used, resulting in the death of three or four and the wounding of eight or ten men. A number of the delegates who had started for their homes hearing the firing returned to town, and were fired on by the Callahan's party and had several of their horses killed under them. Callahan fired twice at one delegate who was lying under his wounded horse, and was fired at in return and killed.

☞ The New York Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of Aug. 5th, says Maximilian is taking into his confidence conservatives to whom he turned the cold shoulder in the early days of his Mexican occupation. Business is at a stand still owing to the impassibility of the roads. It is rumored that Marshal Bazaine will leave Mexico in October and Maximilian will accompany him.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Messrs. Chas. Marseilles and A. J. Hoyt are the new editors of the Exeter News Letter.

—— Hon. James Harlan, ex-Secretary of the Interior, and Gen. Burnside, are expected to be present at the New Hampshire State Fair, at Nashua, to-day and to-morrow.

—— On Friday afternoon at Exeter, as Prof. Gardner, the New England soap man, was addressing an audience of about five thousand people, on the fair ground, he took a vote of all those in favor of Johnson's policy and not a single voice responded, but when he called for a manifestation in favor of Congress there was one loud, unanimous Aye. "Straws show the current of a stream."

CLEVELAND JOHNSON CONVENTION.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, in response to the call of those favorable to the policy of President Johnson and the action of the Philadelphia Johnson Convention, met in Cleveland, Ohio, Monday. A pavillion 150 feet in length by 60 in breadth had been erected in the park for the use of the Convention. At 3 o'clock the delegates entered, preceded by a band of music, and were seated, after which the crowd on the outside were admitted, and filled the tent to its utmost capacity. Previous to the organization quite a spirited scene was witnessed, the delegations rising and cheering the "old flag," Gens. Custer, Rosseau, Wool and McClernand, the Constitution, the thirty-six States, Andrew Johnson, and, after a brief breathing spell, Gen. Grant, Secretary Seward, the American army, Gen. Steedman, and Governor Bramblette of Kentucky. As the cheering was call for and given in each case, there was a scene of wild enthusiasm, the delegates and spectators rising and swinging their hats and shouting vigorously.

[It is quite suggestive that Rosseau, Custer, McClernand and Johnson, should have been cheered in the first place, and Gen. Grant postponed till the second batch.—This is all right however: for the Cleveland Convention is only a Bob at the Tail of the Johnson Kite, which was sent up from the Philadelphia Wigwam.]

KANSAS AND UTAH. — A letter from Leavenworth, Kansas, says there have never been such crops gathered as have been harvested this season; and there is more than enough to supply the people of Kansas for the next two years. Wheat is abundant in excellent quality: the oat crop will yield sixty bushels to the acre.

In Utah the crops of wheat, oats and barley are generally good; in a few places they have been injured by rust, owing to wet. Potatoes will give liberal yield. The hay crop is large, and $10 per ton will be the price. Last year the rate was $100 per ton. Flour sells at $5 to $8 per barrel; wheat and barley in proportion; price of potatoes nominal.

SOUTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.—Further legislation on the subject of the negro code has been postponed until the regular session of the Legislature. Resolutions were introduced, and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, requesting the President to inform the military officials that the war is ended in South Carolina; also requesting the discontinuance of Provost Marshall Courts and restricting of the jurisdiction of the Military Courts within the limits prescribed by the articles of war.

APPLES. —The Lebanon Free Press says it is all bosh, the cry of a short crop of apples, and that whatever be lacking in numbers is made up in size. The crop in that vicinity, it says, must at least be an average one, and the same is true of other localities. Other New England contemporaries speak much more favorably of the prospects of this season's apple crop than they did two months ago.

[We are glad that there are apples enough somewhere;—but the apple crop in the eastern part of Rockingham County is very small.]

MEXICO. — The Mexican minister at Washington has Vera Cruz dispatches to Aug. 31. San Luis Potosi has been occupied by the National forces. Jesuitban, in the State of Vera Cruz, has been captured by the Liberals: 300 Austrians who garrisoned it surrendered.

It was reported at Vera Cruz that Gandala had been taken by the Republican forces, but this needs confirmation.

The Liberals attacked Vera Cruz 29th ult., and captured eleven French soldiers.

Maximilian has issued a decree for collecting 15 per cent. of the value of confiscated Church property. The tax is more than can be paid, and has occasioned dissatisfaction against the author of the decree.

Dispatches state that the National forces are everywhere increasing, and many of the Imperialists were going over to the Liberals.

ANOTHER CARELESS MURDER.—Last Sunday evening, in Cincinnati, a young man named Henry Brunning called on his sweetheart, a young lady named Ellinger. He picked up a gun, supposed not loaded, pointed it at Miss Ellinger, and the next moment her brains were scattered all over the room. As soon as the young man realized the fearful tragedy he rushed to the Ohio river and tried to drown himself, but was rescued and handed over to the police. This circumstance furnishes another reason why severe punishment should be meted out to all who carelessly and culpably handle firearms in the manner Brunning did. The act is to all intents and purposes murder.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic and Febrifuge substances. Replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or Inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the INTERNAL ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it lies not behind more of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with ☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be full-flavored. These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera, during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put it in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

The horse display was very materially helped out by the fine animals from this city; and these took the most of the larger premiums too.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT.—That most important period of grace in the Jewish calendar—the Day of Atonement began Tuesday, Sept. 18, at sunset and closes this Wednesday evening. By the Jews it is still observed as a Divine institution, involving abstinence from food or drink for full twenty-four hours, and devoted to appeals to the Most High for pardon and remission of sins.

This is the day described in the 16th chapter of Leviticus, when the Scape Goat was sent away:—and which is also mentioned in the 9th chapter of Hebrews, 27 and 28th verses.

Not returning in an hour or two,—his trunk was opened, and there was—what do you suppose? a fine boy of about a year and a half old! The crew adopted him, and called him Abraham.

Holloway's Pills.—Debility and Languor.—To remove the cause and prevent the effects is the true theory on which the treatment pursued by these medicines is founded. Languor arises from debility, and debility from the improvishment of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. If from the latter, the Pills are the best tonic medicines in use, and for their purifying and sanative properties they stand unequalled. For sick headache, nervous disorders, enervation, indigestion and depression of spirits, they are the only remedy. Sold by all druggists.

REDUCTION IN PRICE

OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

10 1-2 Daniel Street,

(Over Miss Beal's Dry Goods Store.)

The Subscriber, formerly with S. F. COBB, would inform his friends and former patrons of Mr. Cobb, that he has opened a store of a similar kind, for the trade in Piano Fortes, Organs, Melodeons, Stools, Covers, Sheet Music, Flutinas, Accordeons, Stringed Instruments, Pictures, Frames, Cord, &c.

PIANOS and REED INSTRUMENTS tuned, repaired, rented, bought, sold, or taken in exchange.

PICTURE FRAMES on hand and made to order. LAMPS altered and repaired.

Having made arrangements with Prof. W. K. DAY, I now have the exclusive agency in this city for the sale of the celebrated Piano Fortes of Chickering & Sons, and Geo. M. Guild & Co. The superior merits of the former have too long been established to need any comments. Of the latter, suffice it to say that the sale of over fifty of them within the last five years by Mr. Cobb, proves a sufficient guaranty of their excellence. Also the celebrated Estey Cottage Organs for sale on reasonable terms.

Every Instrument carefully selected and fully warranted, under the inspection and approval of Prof. Day. Also, the selection of SHEET MUSIC adapted to the wants of the musical community, will receive a just consideration by the same gentleman. D. H. MONTGOMERY.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE.—The old stone chimney in the house on the farm of the late William Almy, about a mile west of the Four Corners, in Tiverton, R. I., has recently been taken down, together with the old part of the house, and a new building and brick chimney erected instead.—The old chimney is supposed to have been erected something over two hundred years ago. It measured near the bottom 9 by 13 feet.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST QUEEN ISABELLA.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Express says a report is current that there is a conspiracy to take away Queen Isabella's life, and that it is headed by the son of General Ortega, who was shot in 1860 for having attempted the life of the Queen, and by the son of a shoemaker.

A PHILADELPHIA PROPHET.—Rev. Dr. Seiss, a Lutheran of Philadelphia, is expecting that about these days the saints will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. He says:

"Any one of these days or nights, and certainly before many years have passed, here one and there another, 'caught up' like Enoch, invisible, noiselessly, miraculously, shall vanish from the company and fellowship of those about them, and ascend to their returning Lord. Strange announcements shall be in the morning papers, of the missing ones."

— Mr. Larman Orborn, a respectable farmer of Naugatuck, Conn., 70 years of age, hung himself Sunday morning morning. He was an active member of the church, and held an excellent character.—Exchange.

When any mention is made of "the church," some curious reader would like to know what church: because there are quite a number, for example, the Mormon, the Hardshell Baptist, the Greek, Roman, English, Methodist, Presbyterian, &c. &c.

— Fifty-four head of fine cattle were suffocated on the Tennessee Railroad the other day by being shut up in a close car.

— A Buffalo man has created a sensation in Mechanical circles by a discovery that sheet iron will serve for belting in place of rubber or leather.

— The harbor of Galveston, Texas, is fast closing up with sand. Light draft vessels now ground in the channel, where there was formerly a depth of twenty feet.

— Maine will furnish 100,000 barrels of menhaden oil this season. This oil takes the place, to a large extent, of dark whale oil, for carriers' use.

— The ladies, individually and collectively, without a single exception, pronounce Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus to be the best and most wholesome article in the market. They say it makes nicer, whiter and lighter Biscuit and Cake, and requiring less shortening, than any other saleratus, and is much better to use with cream tartar than soda.—Try it. Most of the grocers and many of the druggists sell it, and at wholesale by wholesale grocers. 39

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
18 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, obtaining Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and Papers on Patents, Drawings, Copies, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. Success in patents and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, he can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The necessary expenses of which could be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. Success in patents and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, he can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in Great Britain and France, enable him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All accounts, not a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. XXIX. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1866. No. 68.

The Chronicle.

☞ A certain paper speaks of the President's speeches as "champagne" documents. Toward the last of his tour, as he was making his usual speech, he came to the question, What pledge have I violated? A wag in the crowd answered, in a loud voice, The Temperance pledge! [Roars of Laughter.]

☞ Dr. Johnson said that freedom of speech meant the right of every man to say what he likes, and the right of any man to knock him down if he did not like it. That was the English Dr. Johnson; the American Dr. Johnson deems it right for himself and party to say what they please,—but not for radicals. The latter people however, are knocking him down at the polls.

☞ An extensive gang of counterfeiters has been discovered extending through Northern Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa. Through the alertness of the Government Secret Force a large amount of spurious currency and many of the leading counterfeiters have been captured. The bills were mostly of the denominations of tens, and required the closest scrutiny to detect them. Men worth $40,000 and $50,000 have been discovered to be leaders in these nefarious practices.

— Alexander T. Stewart of New York's return of over four millions of dollars is probably the largest annual business income in the world. If the Rothschilds, whose wealth is more that of a family than of individuals, are excepted, no uncrowned person has an income approaching Mr. Stewart's.

— The wife of Mr. Henry Witley, a resident of the town of Worth, Ill., was bitten by a mad dog about two weeks since. She was taken with the hydrophobia a short time afterward, and died from the effects of the disease. The death of the wife distracted the husband, who drowned himself.

— Lord Dundreary has expressed himself favorable to marriage with a deceased wife's sister, on this ground:

"It is economical, because when a man marries his wife's sister he has only one mother-in-law."

— At the book trade sale in New York, last week, nearly one million of volumes sold at an aggregate price of $300,000.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For the speedy cure of
Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure as it is cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.

GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENTIAL TOUR.—The true relation of Gen. Grant to the recent Presidental tour is thus sufficiently intimated in a published letter written by him before he left Washington, viz:

It bemg the desire of the President that I should accompany him on his trip to Chicago, which will keep me absent from this city until after the 10th of September, I will not be able to be present on the occasion of the inauguration of the statue of Washington at the Military Institute of Virginia.

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, who gives a correct version of Gen. Grant's remarks to those who proposed giving him a demonstration at Cincinnati—which, by the way, were couched in no such abrubt and uncivil terms as those which got into print—adds the following:

"The General added that be had accompanied the President's request—that be had abstained equally from declaring his own political sentiments, or authorizing anybody else to do so. He said neither Mr. Seward nor any other person could commit him to any set of political opinions—that he was annoyed at the successive attempts which have been made by Seward and others, to announce to the people along the road that his political views were in harmony with those of Mr. Johnson. I inquired whether it was true that be had attended the interview between the Philadelphia Convention Committee and the President, upon his own motion. He replied: Of course not. That being a purely political gathering, it was none of my business. I was there at the request of the President, and all attempts to attach a polical significance to my presence are unwarranted and impertinent."

☞ The Boston Herald's Washington dispatch of the 18th says:—

The office-seekers and politicians have swarmed here since yesterday and have besieged the President, notwithstanding that it was Cabinet day. A spirited contest seems imminent over the Boston Collectorship and the New York Naval Office. The Pennsylvania are clamorous for removals. The Johnson Executive State Committe are here urging a general sweep throughout the State.

[The Loyal People of Pennsylvania will make another kind of sweep on the 9th of October.]

☞ Behold how they disagree. Mr. Blair tells us that if we are not careful we shall soon have a Rebellion in the North.

Mr. Seward tells us that the Southern Rebels are "penitents" and "applicants for pity."

Mr. Raymond tells us that if we do not take most particular care the South will shortly lapse into another insurrection, and be perfectly justified in so doing.

MR. SEWARD ON SEPARATION. — A writer in Blackwood's Magazine, giving an account of his observations in this country, says that Mr. Seward addressed him in these words before any of the States attempted to withdraw from the Union:

"When the disruption comes we shall set the Old World a glorious example. We shall show it the superiority of our Republican system over the effete Monarchical Governments of Europe. We shall do what they would never dream of doing—we shall separate without bloodshed."

FAMINE IN INDIA.—Advices from Calcutta give accounts of the famine in the provinces of Orissa and Midnapore. No less than 75,000 persons are daily fed by public charity, and it is estimated that an equal number are supplied privately, chiefly by the Hindoos. The number of deaths from starvation averages 2500 per week, and one week reached 3500! Besides these, many die in the interior whose cases are not reported. The famine began in October last, from the failure of the rice crop, and even now the efforts of the authorities are inadequate to meet the emergency, and the poor Hindoos are perishing by the thousand.

— At South Kingstown, R. I., on Friday last, as a boy named James Harvey was mowing weeds in a potato field, a lad of seven years, son of Henry Braman, came up behind him and stooped over in such a manner as to receive the point of the sythe in his jugular vein, causing instant death.

— The Saco Democrat says that on Sunday of last week a wild deer was seen leisurely walking in the road near the house of Mr. Richard Leavitt, at Blue Point, in Scarboro'. He went to the cornfield near by and helped himself to corn, and finished off by entering the garden and eating a few turnips, and then returned to the woods.

— The Courrier des Etats Unis is obliged to admit that the oratorical promenade of President Johnson has been most injurious to the results which it anticipated would flow from the Philadelphia Convention.

— From India we learn that great suffering continued in the famine-stricken districts of Bengal, and the people are flocking to Calcutta for relief.

— Hon. Francis Woodbury, ex-Senator, died in Savannah, Ga., of hydrophobia on the 13th inst., having been bitten two months before by a lady's lap dog.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The good people of Franklin, were considerably shocked last week by the attempted suicide of a young lady who had been disappointed in love, and by the sudden disappearance of a hitherto respectable farmer, aged about sixty, who converted all of his property into cash and ran away, leaving his wife without a home or any means of support.

—— A young lady left her valise as surety for three days' board at a hotel in Nashua, a few weeks since, and nobody appearing to settle the bill, the landlord opened the valise and found that it was stuffed full of sheets and pillow-cases that belonged to the rooms in his hotel, and were his own property. The young lady had improved her time during her stay, and had "made over" some of the cloth into garments for herself.

IN THE S. J. COURT AT NASHUA.—Geo. W. Whittemore was convicted of aggravated assault. He struck Mr. Ami George, of Nashua, with a rattan cane, destroying one of his eyes. Fined $200 and costs

The trial of Arthur Leary, of Milford, for highway robbery, resulted in a verdict of guilty. Prisoner's counsel moved for an arrest of judgment, on the ground of a defect in the indictment. Motion granted, and the question reserved for the whole bench. The point is in the omission of a single word in the indictment, "did steal, take and carry (away.)" Should the motion be sustained by the fall bench, Leary will escape seven years imprisonment at the least, that being the lightest punishment for highway robbery, nor can he be re-tried for the crime.

Abial Steele, of Amherst, indicted for biring witnesses to remain away from Court, pleaded nolo contendere, and was fined $200 and costs. Steele also put in an equivalent flaw on the indictment for adultry, and was fined $300 additional and costs.

In the case State vs John T. Moore, of Manchester, indicted last May at Amherst for tampering with witnesses, the Court imposed a fine of $200.

Hannah M. Gilman, indicted a year ago last May for receiving goods stolen from the Manchester Print Works, pleaded nolo contendere. Thirty days in jail, pay a fine of $30, and pay the owners three times the value of the property.

THE PITTSBURG CONVENTION.—The gathering at Pittsburg, on Tuesday next, of the veterans of the army and navy, promises to be one of the most enthusiastic and notable gatherings ever held in this country. The committee who have it in charge are overwhelmed with letters from the gallant "boys in blue," in all parts of the loyal States, announcing that they shall answer the "roll call" in person, and be ready to respond for themselves in regard to indorsing "my policy." More than five thousand such letters had been received up to last Saturday, and they were still coming in daily by hundreds.

☞ The Cleveland Johnson Convention of officers (not many soldiers) did not muster a very large roll. The Boston Advertiser's correspondent could not get a sight of the document,—but says there were not over 650 delegates. Their resolutions endorsed the policy, Pres. Johnson, and the Wigwam Convention; and spoke very kindly of the rebel officers who were in session at Memphis. The latter responded.—[The people of Cleveland did not seem to take much interest in the Convention, and the undertaking was not so successful as was expected. The members have gone home.]

☞ Florida news states that the Dry Tortugas Island was fired upon by a strange craft bearing the Confederate flag, and Dr. Mudd, who is confined there, was seriously wounded by the explosion of a shell. The vessel was a schooner-rigged steamer, and painted lead color, with four guns on each broadside, which were all discharged at the distance of two miles from the Island, when the boat put to sea. The United States revenue cutter was lying in the harbor at the time, but not having on steam was unable to pursue.

— A Paris letter says the health of the Imperial Prince is not so firm as could be wished. He is singularly delicate and his complexion gives alarm to those who remember his aunt died of consumption.

— David Clark, Esq., of Hartford, Conn., does well by his nephews who were disabled in the war against rebellion. Some time since he gave three of them $5000, and recently he served two more in like manner.

— Mr. D. W. Stevens, Superintendent of Public Schools in Fall River, Mass., writes a letter to the News, warning the people that over two thousand children have been taken out of school since May, and are either at work in the mills, or in the street, and thinks that a decline in future civic virtue and intelligence will follow such a course.

— A little girl five years old, named Kate Sibley, was lately whipped to death at Sarina, C. W., on the alleged provocation of refusing to say her prayers. She was an illegitimate child, and both father and mother beat her terribly. The appearance of the body, from the effects of the blows, was most shocking. The perpetrators of the fiendish cruelty are both under arrest.

☞ The great sculling match between Walter Brown, of Portland, and Joshua Ward, of Newburg N. Y., came off in Portland Harbor Tuesday, between 12 and 1 o'clock. The distance rowed was three miles, and the stake $2000. Ward pulled a boat built by Mackey, of New York, 32 feet 4 inches in length, thirteen inches wide, 6 1-2 inches deep, and weighing 37 pounds. Brown's boat was built by himself, and is 28 feet long, 15 inches wide, 4 1-2 inches deep, and weighs about 40 pounds. Both men were confident before the race, and betting was brisk at evens, several thousand dollars being put up during the few hours preceding the race. The Portland boys were very plucky in backing up their man, and those who came there to back up the ex-champion Ward found plenty of opportunities for investing their greenbacks.—The weather was dreary and drizzly, and the water was somewhat rough, but there were tens of thousadns of people out to see the sport. The course was from the upper end of the harbor, down by the wharves, and return.

A very even start was had, when Brown immediately commenced to shoot ahead, and in a dozen strokes had his boat clear of Ward's. Brown then gained steadily until he had a lead of fifty yards at the end of the first mile. Ward then gained somewhat, but as they neared the stake boat Brown made a spurt and a splendid turn, and started for home with a lead of nearly one hundred yards. Ward made a bad turn, his boat being very long and narrow, but he finally got on the home stretch and made after Brown with a will. For the next mile Ward gained but very slightly, but on the last half mile he picked up very rapidly. Brown pulled the last half mile apparently quite leisurely, either from exhaustion or inclination. He crossed the score a winner by about a length and a half of his boat, his time being twenty-two minutes and thirty seconds. Ward's time was twenty-two minutes, thirty-four and one-half seconds. Ward acknowledges himself fairly whipped, but thinks he is a better man for a five mile pull.

Both Brown and Ward will attend the regetta at Springfield to-day.

☞ At Washington, Tuesday afternoon, the executive committee of the Irish citizens of the District of Columbia, accompanied by the Hon. John Hogan of Missouri, waited upon the President to make known the wishes and feelings of the Irish American citizens residing in the United States upon matters of interest to themselves and the class they represent.

They have been called upon to discriminate between their life-long friends, the Democrats, and the Radicals. They look to Washington, and see the machinery of war still operating, although war has long ceased.

The Committee ask that Mr. Stanton be removed as speedily as possible,—and suggested that the Irish are a nation here, with three-fourths of a million of voters; and they suggest that in appointments to be made in post offices and in the internal revenue that Irish citizens should receive their pro rata share of the offices, not alone in the State offices, but in the diplomatic corps, that our Irish citizens be represented.

The President in his reply, referred them to his past record, wherein he had shown he was always consistently and earnestly a friend of the Irish. He might say he was himself strongly tinctured with sympathy for the Irish.

[Just such a friend of the Irish, we suppose, as he said he was of the freedmen.—He did not say anything, that we see in this speech, about Moses.]

FROM NEW ORLEANS, Sept 18.—The news from the cotton regions continues to represent the injury to the crop as serious and widespread. Only a small district on the uplands of Mississippi seems to be exempt. Otherwise the States of Louisiana and Mississippi are afflicted with nearly the total loss of the cotton crop, while very little corn or other breadstuffs have been raised. This especially is the case where the negroes have worked on shares, which leaves them now very reluctant to labor and greatly disheartened.

THE OUTRAGE AT PLATTE CITY, MO. An eye witness of the affair at Platte City, Missouri, on Saturday, states that the conduct of the rebêls, the arms they carried and their large numbers, leave no doubt that they came into the town to break up the Radical County Convention. Four men were killed and three or four more will probably die. About a dozen were wounded. The affair excited a profound sensation and serious trouble is apprehended.

GUILLOTINE CALLED FOR.—The National Intelligencer, speaking of the President's reception home from his pleasant tour, says that "of three thousand well-paid officials in the Department, there were, we think, less than a hundred in the line." Those thoughtful clerks were probably just then engaged in reading the returns from Vermont and Maine.

— The man who takes things easy—the city pickpocket.

— It is denied that Gen. Fremont affiliates with the Johnson party which was assembled at Cleveland, and asserted that, were his business to allow him, he would attend the Pittsburg Convention.

— A woman named Korwan committed suicide in New York a day or two since. Before committing the act she made mourning dresses for her children, bound her husband's hat with crape, and laid out her own burial clothes.

— Senator Norton of Minnesota, one of the "my policy" renegades from the Republican party, is undergoing the chills of a reception by his constituents. He is said to be anxious to "explain" his course—but his neighbors say they want none of that.

Hygienic Wine, Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris. Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, and Conversazione, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members. This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from PURE SHERRY; Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in Aromatic and Balsamic Principles, and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the Nervous Fluids is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants. HYGIENIC WINE is moreover MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE, Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an Appetizer, IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST. MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported) is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country. All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with "Muscat Perle." ☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE: In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market. These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers. REED, CUTLER & CO., Boston, Agents for New England. au14—tf

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion. ☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless. Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION. Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Alicock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1849. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Local.

☞ A fleet of Seine Boats, nine in number — rather odd-looking crafts — each from six to ten tons burden, came into the harbor Wednesday, and were moored at Portsmouth Pier. They were from Fall River, bound to the eastern coast of Maine, Pogie fishing. Each boat held from ten to twelve oil barrels, in which the oil tried from the fish was to be stored. These crafts were built not unlike the fishing boats at the Shoals, but five times as large, without deck, and very massive and clumsy in their construction. Quite a crowd collected about the wharf to take a look at the strange visitors.

POOR CLAY IS DEAD.—That fine Newfoundland Dog, owned by J. M. Tredick, Esq., was found dead in the cellar Wednesday night. He was apparently well at 9 o'clock in the evening. It is thought he must have been poisoned.

☞ Harper's Magazine for October is received from A. Williams & Co., Boston. An excellent number; don't take our word for it, but go to Mr. Mr. Shores' bookstore and get copy.

☞ The Saco Democrat states that York County is the only one in Maine which makes a Democratic net gain from last year,—and that gain is 154 in a vote of over 12,000. When we consider that the Navy Yard is in that county,—and that last year was exceptional, this crumb of comfort is very small.

THE STATE FAIR AT NASHUA.—On account of the prevailing storm, the Directors of the State Fair have voted to continue the exhibition until Friday night. Entries will, therefore, be received until Thursday morning.

A NOBLE ACT.—The Cairo Democrat says that just before the steamer Tennessee left that port on Wednesday night an incident occurred which deserves special mention. A lady and infant child fell overboard from the Tennessee, and in the darkness it was some minutes before the attention of the bystanders was directed to the exact locality, when the lady was discovered holding up her child above the water, while her own head was nearly covered by the effort. It was immediately evident that before ropes could be procured the woman would be drowned, or at least incapable of catching hold of them, and on realizing the situation a colored firemen of the Tennessee, named Nat Embers, bravely plunged into the river and supported the lady and child until ropes were passed to him by which he held them safely until the yawl could be brought around. After all were brought out of the river, the crowd began to congratulate Nat, when he, overwhelmed with confusion, exclaimed, "Oh, let me out of dis crowed, I'se got to go and fill up them firedoors." The Superintendent of the line promptly gave Nat a substantial present, and some citizens are about making the brave fellow a handsome testimonial by subscriptions, which is to be presented to him when the Tennessee returns.

A MISTAKE IN A BARBER'S SHOP.—A laughable mistake occurred in a Baltimore barber's shop on Thursday. Two gentlemen hung up their coats and sat down to be shaved at about the same time. One of them for whom the operation was completed first arose, and by mistake donned the other one's coat, in the pocket of which was a wallet containing $2500. Off he walked, but a policeman soon overtook him. When the charge against him was explained he became greatly alarmed about the safety of his own coat, in the pocket of which was the sum of $5000. Explanations followed, coats were exchanged, and each found his money safe.

GOLD, Wednesday, 145.

— Funny-sounding drums—Conundrums. A good one is very hard to beat.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for October contains much the ladies desire to know.

— Great Reform meetings seem to be the order of the day in various parts of England.

— Letters from the continent speak in rather discouraging tones of the health of the Emperor Napoleon.

— Secretary McCulloch and Ex-President Fillmore have in recent letters affirmed their approval of the Johnson Philadelphia Convention.

— They are as bright as ever in the London press about American matters.—One of the leading dailies announces that the Republicans are "losing ground everywhere!"

— Salmon Bixby, of Corinth, Vt., was killed a few days since by the accidental discharge of a gun in his hand. He was riding in an ox cart, and some jolt gave a blow to the hammer of the gun, causing the explosion, and sending the bullet through his head.

— A convict who was about to be sent to the house of correction, was told that they would set him to pick oakum. "Let 'um try it, by gosh," said he. "I'll tear their darned oakum all to pieces!"

A. JOHNSON'S POLICY.—The citizens of West Newton, Mass., have had a fine illustration of the policy. Soon after Mr. Lincoln's re-election, the Republicans procured the removal of Mr. Marsh, who was then Postmaster, and had been for twenty-five years, and obtained the appointment of Mr. N. W. Tufts, a poor man, who was driven from Georgia at the outset of the rebellion, and who enlisted in the Union army. This devoted lover of the Union and defender of the flag, who suffered the persecutions of the rebels, has now been removed, and the quarter-of-a-century Postmaster re-instated in his old position. The surprise of the soldiers of the town at witnessing this treatment of their comrade in arms may be imagined.

— A letter was dropped in the postoffice yesterday, addressed as-follows:

Hill
Massachusetts.

After a good deal of study, one of the clerks managed to make out it was intended for "A Underhill, Andover, Massachusetts." Does the reader see the point?—Ex.

— A lady's absence was apologized for at a party the other night, by a friend, who said she was detained by an interesting little incident—"weighing just nine pounds and a half."

— The rascal who counterfeited the U. S. 10s was a modest man. Peterson's Detector says "the toes of the female on the right end can scarcely be seen." It is difficult to count her toes on this counter-feet.

Holloway's Pills.—Debility and Languor.—To remove the cause and prevent the effects is the true theory on which the treatment pursued by these medicines is founded. Languor arises from debility, and debility from the impoverishment of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. If from the latter, the Pills are the best tonic medicines in use, and for their purifying and sanative properties they stand unequalled. REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

The Subscriber, formerly with S. F. COBB, would inform his friends and former patrons of Mr. Cobb, that he has opened a store of a similar kind, for the trade in Piano Fortes, Organs, Melodeons, Stools, Covers, Sheet Music, Flutinas, Accordeons, Stringed Instruments, Pictures, Frames, Cord, &c.

PIANOS and REED INSTRUMENTS tuned, repaired, rented, bought, sold, or taken in exchange.

PICTURE FRAMES on hand and made to order. LAMPS altered and repaired.

Having made arrangements with Prof. W. K. DAY, I now have the exclusive agency in this city for the sale of the celebrated Piano Fortes of Chickering & Sons, and Geo. M. Guild & Co. The superior merits of the former have too long been established to need any comments. Of the latter, suffice it to say that the sale of over fifty of them within the last five years by Mr. Cobb, proves a sufficient guaranty of their excellence. Also the celebrated Estey Cottage Organs for sale on reasonable terms.

Every Instrument carefully selected and fully warranted, under the inspection and approval of Prof. Day. Also, the selection of SHEET MUSIC adapted to the wants of the musical community, will receive a just consideration by the same gentleman. D. H. MONTGOMERY.

☞ The New Bedford Standard learns that the property of the town of Ashford, Mass., is in the hands of a few families who have enough to make them comfortable without depending on business; and desiring to live quietly and not be troubled with new comers, they are pretty sure to buy any real estate in the town offered for sale. The consequence is that the population of the town had decreased from 490 in 1790 to 178 in 1865.

— The report that Gov. Wise's personal property had been restored to him is denied by his nephew, through the Richmond Enquirer. It was the personal property of Mrs. Wise which has been restored.

— A firm in Scotland has recently sent an agent to New York with a proposition to construct on the Clyde a fleet of steamers to run on the Hudson river, at prices which are very much lower than the same vessels can be built for in this country.

— The grasshoppers, which have devoured everything about Fort Kearney, are rapidly approaching the river, and may yet sweep over Missouri. A few days ago they appeared in clouds at Seneca, Kansas, five miles west of St. Joseph. It is said that they will average one hundred to every square foot of surface.

— The Newburyport Herald a week ago had a stirring article against General Butler as a candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, declaring that he could not be elected. On Saturday it says: "We are occasionally asked if we think Butler can be elected to Congress. Bless your souls, he is elected. It is a past event with him. They will count the votes, as a matter of form, in November, but only for form."

— All efforts to rival the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap have signally failed; we do not hesitate to pronounce it the cheapest and best Soap in existance, it will take out grease spots, or paint, it will make nice soft soap, and make good lather of all grades look better after washing than any other article of the kind in the market; it will not injure the finest fabric. Try it, their Depot is at 112 Liberty Street, New York. Most of the grocers sell it. 14.

A CARD.—A large number of Tickets remaining unsold, it will be necessary to POSTPONE THE DRAWING until THURSDAY, the 11th of October, 1866, at which it will positively occur. The many swindling schemes that have been presented to the public during the last few months seem to have delayed our sales, until we were able to satisfy the people throughout the country that this enterprise was genuine, and solely for charitable purposes. The Directors are confident of the sale of every ticket, and have allotted sufficient time to guarantee the sales without any further postponement.

Postmasters, Booksellers, etc., are requested to act as Agents, and Tickets will be supplied on application, but no commission will be allowed.

The Chronicle.

☞ The Richmond Times welcomes another civil war. Hear it:

It may be considered that we have already had enough to chasten our people. But the chastening has been partial and one-sided. One storm is often insufficient to purify the atmosphere, and the North has not had such a deluge as would cleanse all her gutters. Her turn is yet to come, and the rash folly and mad action of her malignant spirits may be the selected instruments of Heaven for her purification.

Deluge! is it? Well, there has been a small deluge lately, in Vermont and Maine, that has cleansed several gutters. We observe by the Portland Advertiser, that in Aroostook County every representative is rebublican; in Kennebec Co. ditto; in Cumberland Co. 17 to 1. So all but one of the "conservative" representatives have been washed out of these three counties. A similar deluge is likely to rush over all the loyal States, and will probably put a wet blanket on the civil war party and project.

☞ The Alexandria, La., Gazette, says that Rufus King Cutler, of New Orleans, aggravated by General Sheridan's dispatches and remarks, sent a friend to the Commander of the Department of the Gulf to inquire if that great millitary personage would accept a challenge, and that the general said that if Cutler or any of his friends called on him for any such purpose he would kick them out of his quarters.

☞ The way of the transgressor is hard. Senator Doolittle, on his return home to Wisconsin, vainly attempted to address his townsmen, but they would not listen. We disapprove of the opposing arguments in the shape of rotton eggs as much as Mr. Doolitle can. No matter how high the example for indecency, no Union man should follow it.—Tribune.

— Why is a whisper like a counterfeit bill? Because it is uttered, but not allowed.

— The performances of the needle-gun throw sewing-machines into the shade, when we consider how many Austrians are mendead by means of it.—London Paper.

— What would an Englishman probably say, were he persecuted by the "Bureau?" Oh! Oh! Ow'ard! (O. O. Howard).—Galveston Bulletin.

— It is said that a Chinaman, no matter where he finds himself, is never perplexed. Probably the reason is that he always has his "cue."

— One hundred and twenty Irish emigrants lately returned to Queenstown from the United States, where they had not been able to find employment to their liking.—The same week one hundred and fifty emigrants left Cork for the United States.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It appears from correspondents, that many persons supposed to be influential citizens in the several Northern States are in Washington urging the President to make removals from and appointments to office. Collectors and Assessors of Internal Revenue, and Postmasters, are mainly the officers sought to be appointed. Each particular influential citizen urges the immediate appointment of his favorite candidate, and suggests that if delayed "the thing is up" in his district, and the radicals will elect their candidates.

[This looks as if the "conservative" candidates are likely to get drowned in the radical "deluge," and so catch at President Johnson's coat-tail to keep their heads above water. There may be some danger of his "going under" before they get out of danger.]

The same correspondence says:

Notwithstanding these eloquent appeals for action instanter, the President is disposed to move cautiously and surely, lest he be misled, as he has been frequently heretofore, by the excessive zeal of influential citizens. In truth Mr. Johnson is about as much puzzled to determine whose judgment and commendation is reliable, as he is to decide who shall receive the appointment.

[No wonder the poor man is puzzled:—but no matter; he who goes into a cheating game, need not expect to avoid being cheated.]

☞ A New Orleans dispatch of Sept. 19, says Brevet Col. Mason, of the 17th Infantry, has investigated the Brenham riots. He doubts whether the United States soldiers broke up the negro ball and thinks the two soldiers were afterwards wounded without provocation, and he declares that the subsequent burning of the stores was done by men in the undress uniform of the United States army, but cannot say positively that they were soldiers. Captain Smith, of the 17th Infantry, the commanding officer there, and four soldiers charged with burning, refuse to surrender to the process.

☞ New York papers say that advices from the City of Mexico of the 1st, and Vera Cruz of the 6th, via Havana, state that Maximilian had received a dispatch from some person unknown, saying "all was useless." On the strength of this, rumors are prevalent that Maximilian is a prisoner to Bazaine; that he wishes to go to Europe, and the Marshal will not let him, and other stories equally wild. There is, no doubt, a difference between him and the French.

Citizens living near Vera Cruz are removing inside the walls for protection, and fortifications are being constructed.

It is reported in the capital that Bazaine and Douay are to leave in the next packet.

[Not wholly reliable, though some parts of the story may be true.]

☞ From Havanna we get these items:

Don Miguel in San Jago de Cuba had failed with liabilities of $247,000 and assets of $77,000. There was more firmness in the sugar market.

No Government has yet been installed in St. Domingo, and the Republic was given up to disorder. Hayti is in the same condition. Pres lent Geffrard is threatened with another revolution. Outlaws overrun the country and horrible crimes were committed with impunity.

[To be taken with a few grains of salt.]

☞ Mr. Peabody, the London banker, was present on Tuesday, at Georgetown, Mass., at the laying of the Corner Stone of a memorial Church, in memory of his mother. The building is to be used as a house of worship by the new orthodox congregational church which seceded from the old, where Rev. Chas. Beecher is the minister. The new house is of brick, and will cost $50,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— An exchange says Rev. J. C. Holmes died of cancer, at his residence in Nottingham, on the 13th inst. His sufferings for the last year and a half have been intense.

—— The Lancaster Republican says that last Saturday night that section was visited by a very severe frost, effectually finishing the vines and all vegetables not well advanced. Much damage was done to the corn, although it was partially beyond its reach.

—— The Congregational Church and Society in Amherst, have voted their Pastor, Rev. J. G. Davis, D. D., leave of absence for six months, to enable him to accept an agency for the raising of funds for the further endowment of Dartmouth College, unanimously tendered him by the Trustees of that institution.

— The Glasgow authorities propose to expend £1,250,000 in buying up the worst parts of the city and improving it.

—A new and important addition has been made to the Johnson party. His name is "General Confusion," and he has been the principal auditor to the President's later speeches.

Communication.

EXECUTIVE PATRONAGE.—The N. H. Patriot of 28th August ult., in alluding to the President of the United States says, "the influence of the patronage of public office directed by skilful and unscrupulous men, is immense; and it is not only entirely right that this influence should be exerted in favor of the Administration, but as the President well says it is a duty the administration owes itself to see that it is so."

The late T. H. Benton, near the latter part of his long experience in the Senate of the United States, made a powerful speech in favor of diminishing the patronage of the Executive. He had witnessed so many improper appointments made by "unscrupulous" Presidents of his own party that he deemed it to be his duty to advocate a new plan for a part of the appointments, uncontrolled by the President. We think there were then over forty thousand office holders—but now there are probably three times that number; so that if the President has the right to remove from office faithful officers, who cannot conscientiously support his "policy," then "the immense influence of the patronage of public office directed by skillful and unscrupulous men," may be attended with great public detriment, for the appointees would be the "satraps and dependents in every town and village" of the President; and probably a majority would not possess the requisite qualifications, except the support of "my policy". It is a dangerous doctrine that this influence should be exerted in favor of the administration. It was not the doctrine under our most enlightened and patriotic Presidents.

Every citizen whether in or out of office, should be allowed the freedom of speech and opinion. No faithful officer should be removed on account of the sincere convictions of his heart. But it is now evident that the President, deceived and misled by his late enemies, now his professed friends, has decided to dismiss from office the faithful and loyal supporters of the government who can not and will not support his "policy"—which policy means only that the rebel States shall participate in the National Legislation. Should he remove the commanding Generals of the army who will not obey his orders to force the rebel Representatives into Congress—then lookout—"breakers are ahead."—Then let all loyal citizens look to their arms—for then another civil war would be inevitable. Some of the Governors of loyal states would be called upon to organize volunteer troops in the defense of Congress and our political institutions. We hope our fears are groundless, but they arise from Presidential and Democratic threats in various quarters. That there is too much power in the hands of the President is evident. We therefore commend the subject of curtailing the executive patronage to the deliberate consideration of Congress; although the President's position is, that Congress has usurped power, and is not constitutionally organized. If so, he is the "State," as a certain Despot said of himself, and there will be no body that he can lawfully recognize to whom he can deliver the annual Message.

Of the danger of another civil war, the New York Tribune says that "the purpose of forcing representatives of the rebel States into Congress, in defiance of the loyal oath, by the Presidential fiat and military power, is openly avowed, with threats that those who resist it, shall be treated as rebels, and a civil war thus kindled throughout the North and West." The editor is well informed in regard to this grave subject.

X.

☞ In reply to an invitation to attend the Pittsburg Convention, Gen. Grant has instructed his aid, Col. Bodeau, to say that "it is contrary to his habit and to his convictions of duty to attend political meetings of any character whatsoever, and that he sees with regret the action of officers of the army taking a conspicuous part in the political discussions of the day."

— Which of the Apostles was the best cricket player? Paul, who "stood up before the eleven and was bold."

— Mr. Johnson, in every speech, deposits the Constitution and the Union in the hands of the people; this is well, for they are certainly unsafe in his own, tartly remarks the Tribune.

— Andrew Johnson judged by himself: "Whenever you find a man anywhere prating about the Constitution of the United States, spot him; he's a traitor!" [Andrew Johnson's Campaign Speech at Nashville, September, 1864.]

— A spark from the locomotive set fire to the waterfall of a young lady who was riding in the cars of the Susquehanna Railroad the other day, when an old lady sitting behind seized the hairy excrescence and tearing it from the owner's head, saved her from a disagreeable scorching.

— A Chicago dispatch says a German in that city named Lubenheirner, was on Saturday morning accused of having stolen some money, which he positively denied, calling upon God to strike him dead if he was not speaking the truth. The fearful imprecation had hardly been uttered before he fell to the floor a dead man.

From the New England Farmer.

RYE, N. H., is an entirely agricultural town, except its fisheries. It was once called by the Hon. Isaac Hill "the banner agricultural town in the State." In some respects it is so now. Nowhere in the State, and I think I may say, nowhere in New England, will you find all the fields of a town so regularly laid out, with so neat and substantial stone walls, mostly in squares and parallelograms, with so smooth a surface of luxuriant grass. The soil is naturally rocky, and hard to subdue, like much of the soil in Middlesex county, Mass.; but it is the pride of the people in Rye not to leave a stone to be seen in the field, or a rod of wooden fence; and if by chance one side of a field should happen to have a temporary slab of pole fence, the owner will apologize for so unsightly an object, and promise you that he will rebuild it with stone as soon as his hurry is over.

The farms are not large, and the town is deficient in pasturage; still it is celebrated for the quality of its fat oxen. The soil is kept up to a very productive state by means of sea-weed. This has become so important an article for the farm, that, although the law forbids any being taken at night or on Sunday, the people in utter disregard of the prohibition, work all day and often all night, and sometimes in the water up to their arms to gather it. They spread it on the ground or put it in the hill for planting. In this way heavy crops of grass, corn and potatoes can be produced successively for years; but it must be applied every year or no crop. A better way is to compost this sea-weed with muck or loam and manure. This dressing produces better crops, and does not leave the land as much exhausted as the raw sea-weed. A few of the wisest of the Rye farmers have adopted this plan, and are well pleased with it.

There is a great need of barn cellars in this town. After having made improvements up to a certain point, the people appear to have stopped, although they are very industrious as a whole, and very saving of their money—there being but few families in town, if any, who have not money at interest. If the farmers here would take another start in race of the improvement, and in every department come up to the spirit of the day, they might still be the banner agricultural town of the State.

The fisheries are carried on with fair profit; but this year, as is the case with most other places on the coast, little has been done. There is one small harbor into to which vessels of seventy or eighty tons may enter at high tide. Its somewhat celebrated beach is very pleasant and is resorted to by visitors from every part of the Union. Many private houses reap a rich harvest from their summer boarders, while the hotels with good management, are full.

This town in early times suffered severely for its devotion to the cause of the country. In 1696 twenty-one persons were killed and captured at Sandy Beach, by the Indians. Fourteen persons lost their lives in the French war, and thirty-eight were killed in the service in the revolutionary war. Rye was settled in 1635. Its area is 7780 acres. Population is 1857, 1295. Its eastern border for six miles is sea coast.—Distance from Portsmouth six miles, and a half.

Rye, N. H., Aug. 25, 1866.

GOVERNOR WELLS AND THE LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.—A New Orleans dispatch states that urgent demands are being made on Governor Wells to convene the Legislature in extra session, ostensibly for the repair of the levees on the river, but really to accomplish his impeachment, as the Legislature is as ultra Southern as the Governor is radical. He refuses peremptorily, and remains in the State when he really desires to go North, because in his absence Lieut. Governor Voorhees would surely issue the asked-far proclamation.

TROUBLE SO SOON.—The New York World accuses Mr. Raymond of the Times of desertion, bad faith and aggravated perfidy, all because he shows signs of backing out of the "My policy" party.

☞ The following is a list of the wedding celebrations usually observed: The real marriage is (or ought to be) the "love wedding;" at the end of the first month, the close of the honeymoon, is the "sugar wedding;" two years after the marriage is the "paper wedding;" the fifth anniversary is the "wooden wedding;" the tenth the "tin wedding;" fifteenth the "crystal wedding;" the twentieth the "China wedding;" the twenty-fifth the "silver wedding;" the fiftieth the "golden wedding;" the seventy-fifth the "diamond wedding."

— A Washington correspondent, alluding to the present precarious condition of Secretary Seward's health says it is feared that his days of active usefulness have passed.

Holloway's Pills.—Debility and Languor.—To remove the one and prevent the other the theory on which the treatment pursued by these medicines is founded. Languor arises from debility, and debility from the impoverishment of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. If from the latter, the Pills are the best tonic medicines in use, and for their purifying and sanative properties they stand unequalled. For sick headache, nervous disorders, enervation, indigestion and depression of spirits, they are the only remedy. Sold by all druggists.

☞ Near the close of the Cleveland Convention, the Committee on address and resolutions reported resolutions which were unanimously adopted. They approve the resolutions adopted by the Philadelphia Convention of Aug. 14.

General Slack offered a resolution deprecating the action of the soldiers in joining secret political societies. Great confusion ensued, delegates from all sides addressing the chair at once. The resolution was withdrawn.

[No doubt half the members belong to such societies,—as many of them are expert wire-pullers.]

Gen. Heath offered a resolution, which was supposed to be against negro suffrage and equality. Great excitement followed, and the resolution was then withdrawn.

An Executive Committee was announced, but it contains no New England names.

Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Co.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Co., held at Boston, July 25th, 1866, it was resolved to appoint three Trustees—Messrs. S. D. Sargent, R. W. Morse, jr., and E. W. Fiske—to act for the Company, to extricate it from its present embarrassments and debts—and they have accepted the trust.

All persons holding Certificates of Stock are desired to hand them to us immediately, endorsed over in behalf of the Trustees, empowering them to act for the Stockholders,—and take a receipt for the same.

Arrangements have been made for Stockholders in the Eagle Hill to have their Coal—Stove, Egg or Furnace—delivered to them, at the lowest cash price on delivery. The Coal is of excellent quality. Apply to

Hygienic Wine,
Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.
Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from
PURE SHERRY!
Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifugal substances. Recommended with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,
and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing; for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the ORGANIC NERVOUS FLUIDS, it dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE
is moreover
MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,
Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is once called as an
Appetizer,
IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)
Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wines in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with
"Muscat Perle"

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE: In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1849. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial, in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, Jr., Minister of the Gospel.

BEAT THIS WHO CAN!—Our neighbor over the way has one hen, who has since the 20th of Jan. 1866, laid nine dozen of eggs and brought up two broods of chickens, the last brood being now two months old are weaned and the hen commenced her tenth dozen of eggs. The first brood was marketed when 4 months old, averaging $1.27 a piece.

BASE BALL.—The Kearsarge first nine of Concord went to Hanover a few days since and were beaten in a match game with the first nine of the Dartmouth College Club, the score standing at the conclusion of five innings 38 for Dartmouth to 7 for the Kearsarge. A return match comes off in Concord on Saturday. The proposed match between the Granite State Club of Phillips' Academy, Exeter, and the Rockingham Club of this city has been abandoned, much to the disappointment of both clubs, the Faculty of the Academy forbidding play on the part of the College Club. The first nine of the Rockinghams are being "reconstructed" and a second nine are organizing. The regular practice between the two nines occurs on Wednesday and Friday afternoons of each week, scrub games being played every afternoon when the two nines are not in regular practice. Seats are to be provided for the ladies, on Rundlett's Hill and their attendance is desired on the part of the players, who, we perceive, play a great deal more efficiently when encouraged by the presence of the fair sex.

☞ Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Company have organized for their twelfth season, stronger than ever. Besides the chorus, orchestra, and Miss Emma J. Nichols, Mr. Kemp has added this year, Madame Wiley, one of the most superb vocalists we ever heard, and Mr. M. L. Ingalls, the sweet tenor from Concord. This will enable them to present a fine programme, besides the old "slam tunes."

They will give their first concert at Andover, Mass., on Saturday evening Sept. 29th; Monday, Oct. 1st, sing at Lowell, 2d at Nashua, 3d at Methuen, 4th at Lawrence, 5th at Concord, 6th at Manchester, and the 8th Oct. at Portsmouth.

☞ Our compositor stupidly made the receipts of the Rockingham Fair appear to be $15,000, instead of $1500, as it was written. The latter sum is handsome—but the former is fabulous.

☞ Last year at this time, as will be remembered, we were suffering from a severe and painful drouth. The fields were parched and dry, the roads full of dust, wells never before known to fail were dry, and the fire-king held high carnival in the woods in every direction. Every sign of rain, on which the weather-wise relied, proved deceptive, and the clouds refused to distil a blessing. A more marked contrast could not be possible than the present season affords. No sooner does a cloud the size of a man's hand appear than umbrellas are in requisition, for experience shows that every cloud portends rain.—These frequent rains occasion much inconvenience, yet in comparison with the scenes witnessed last year we must really consider ourselves fortunate. The fields are arrayed in a charming dress of green, and when dry enough to warrant an excursion we find all nature blooming and attractive.

— It appears that only four persons were killed outright at Johnstown, Pa., by the accident during the President's visit; but several of the injured cannot survive.

— There is a rumor that another Fenian invasion of Canada is in contemplation.—The parties are men formerly connected with the O'Mahony organization. Their place of rendezvous is Buffalo. Roberts disavows connection with conspiracy, and threatenes if the men do not desist, to give information of the plan of operations, so as to knock it in the head.

— A dispatch from Oregon, says ex-Governor A. C. Gibbs has been nominated for United States Senator, the vote standing 21 for Gibbs and 15 for J. H. Mitchell, with 3 scattering. The Senate held an election and gave Gibbs a majority of 4, but the House adjourned without action, and subsequently appointed the 25th of September as the day for election. Great excitement prevailed throughout the session.

— It is asserted that Thomas B. Manning, the whaler pirate, escaped on the ship Sea Serpent.

☞ New Jersey at last comes right side up—On Tuesday her Legislature elected the Hon. Alex. G. Cattell of Camden a U. S. Senator for five years ensuing, in the place of Hon. John Stockton, whom the Senate decided not to have been duly chosen. The Vote for Mr. Cattell was 11 in the Senate and 33 in the House—a clear majority in each. The Democrats refused to vote, insisting that Mr. Stockton was rightfully chosen, though by a minority vote.—(He received 40 votes out of 81 cast—a majority having voted that a plurality should elect. The Senate decided that this would not answer, being contrary to law.) Mr. Scovel, about whom so much has been said, voted with the Republicans throughout.

— In some Canadian towns the population—and the best of it—has left to an extent of ten per cent. One thousand ship carpenters have left Quebec since the Spring, for the States.

— In Pittsburg, Pa., on Sunday, John Oxenhart attempted to rescue a kitten from large dogs that were worrying it, when the dogs turned upon him and nearly killed him before they could be driven off. His recovery is doubtful.

The Rockingham Base Ball Club,

STOVES! STOVES!

ALL READY FOR THE FALL TRADE.

The Best Cook Stove Out!

URIAH BLAISDELL,

No. 43 Market Street,

Offers to his friends and the public the celebrated

KEARSARGE

COOK STOVE,

Which he WARRANTS to have no superior in the market, in each and all of the qualities of a first-class Stove. It is a new Stove, of neat and symmetrical pattern, very heavy castings, well made, of the best of stock, and, what is rare, works equally well with coal or wood.

In getting up this Stove, it was designed, as its name implies, to make it one that could not be surpassed, and it is believed that perfect success in this has been attained. It is a moderate consumer of fuel, heats up very rapidly, and bakes surprisingly quick; requires no shoveling and makes no dust in cleaning out; will keep fire day and night with as much certainty as the best parlor heaters, and is so simply and conveniently arranged in all respects that a child can work it. The demand for it was so great upon its introduction, late last Fall, that the foundry could not keep up a supply, while the sales have since been steadily increasing, and in every case it has given the fullest satisfaction.

A few names, in different localities, of the many purchasers of this Stove, are subjoined, for convenient reference:

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price,

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

PICTORIAL THEOLOGY.—One of the editors of the New York Observer, now travelling in Europe, writes an interesting letter from Freyburg, in which describes the Great Organ in the Cathedral, and incidentally gives us the follow description of a sculptured device expressive of a dismal dogma:

The cathedral dates back to 1285. Over the front entrance is a queer old bas-relief, representing the last judgment. The Father, God himself, done in stone, sits aloft with angels blowing trumpets around him. At his feet, on the right, the righteous are led off in triumph to their places in glory, and on the left a devil is weighing souls in a pair of scales; another devil, with the head of a pig, is carrying a lot of poor sinners in a basket on his back, and is about to cast them into a great kettle where others are boiling, while little imps are blowing the fires with bellows; and hell itself, represented by the jaws of a monster, yawns near, and Satan sits on his throne above.

— The feelings of lovers at the alter are often altered afterwards.

— What is the difference between a mischievous mouse and a beautiful young lady? One harms the cheese, and the other charms the be's.

— 'Pray,' inquired one minister of another, seeing so many ladies attend his church, 'why do you invariable address your congregation as dear brethren?' "Oh, the answer is easily given," he replied; "the brethren embrace the sisters."

— The Portland Transcript tells a story illustrating the thieving carried on at the fire. It says a man and his wife who were burned out and went over to the Cape to board, on being shown to their room, found it furnished with their own furniture.

— A fur trader lately went up Gateaux River, Canada, with a small stock of whisky. He succeeded in making considerable profit on his capital, but was cautioned by the squaws not to return. Not heeding the warning, he brought again two barrels of high wines, which were promptly rolled off the cart down the bank of the river.

— Gold Medal Saleratus is making a great sensation among consumers, as they find their health depends upon its use. It will strengthen weak stomachs, cure dyspepsia, save one-half in the quantity of shortening, make one-eighth more bread, Cakes or Biscuit from the barrel of flour, and withal is perfectly healthy. Try it. The Grocers and Druggists sell it. Depot 112 Liberty street, New York. 40

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and the Patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved invention.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such numerous claims proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his larger practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

JOHN HICKMAN'S VIEWS.—Hon. John Hickman of Pennsylvania has written a letter in which he says that "the contest this moment is between the spirit of despotism and the spirit of freedom, and is as strongly marked and as distinct as in April 1861." Mr. Hickman gives his views of the present political crisis in a series of declarations, of which we copy the following:

"1. Mr. Johnson is openly and vindictively apostate to the party that placed him in power, as he asserted to the country he was an unconditional friend to freedom, and desired to have traitors punished and their crime made odious. He has falsified all his stereotyped assertions, and consequently, I look upon him as capable of any enormity—the worst.

2. If he can carry out his plans—and he assumes, in the most vulgar and disgusting language, he will do so—they must end in the complete subversion of free institutions.

3. The President is false, but Mr. Seward is infinitely below him in point of political depravity, and is the prime, moving cause of all our present troubles.

4. The National Legislature would disgrace itself and the nation by admitting Senators and Representatives from the late—I might say present—rebellious States, without first carefully providing for the public welfare in the future, and being thoroughly convinced of the loyalty of its new members."

WOOL.—A recent letter from Michigan says that merchants are offering fifty cents to fifty-three per pound for wool. The average price paid for 510,000 pounds purchased, was fifty-five cents per pound. The quality of the wool now held by growers, consisting principally of large clips, is said to be very good.

— J. D. Hunt, U. S. Collector at Milford, Mass., has been removed because he does not support "my policy."

— A race horse having recently been killed, in South Carolina, by lightning, the owner said there was some consolation in knowing that nothing but a streak of lightning ever caught him.

— Rev. Dr. Bellows, one of the most prominent Unitarian divines in the country, has on the other hand been converted from the idea that a reconciliation between the President and Congress was possible.

— We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; our advice to our readers is, go without delay to your grocer and get a supply, for it is a truly wonderful article, and will not injure the finest fabric; our experience is that it is the best and greatest dirt-extracter known among the many different brands of soap in the market. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1866.

POWER OF APPOINTMENT.—The N. Y. Herald publishes an opinion from the Attorney General of the U. States in regard to the power of the President, when appointments to office have been made in recess prior to the last session of the Senate, and there was failure during the session to make a permanent appointment, either by refusal of the Senate to confirm the nominee, a failure to act on the nomination, or other cause, to make another temporary appointment in the present recess. In his discussion of the subject, the Attorney General takes up the general question, whether the President can fill up a vacancy in the recess which existed in the prior session.—After a review of precedents established since the foundation of the Government, and examination of the Constitution on the subject, he arrived at the affirmative of the proposition, and consequently of the original question submitted to him.

What a miserable figure the President cuts, in giving occasion for such a question as this. The Constitution gives him power to fill vacancies in the recess of the Senate, —but not to make vacancies. An Act of Congress, passed long ago, prescribes the term of office, viz. "four years unless sooner removed by the President." This, of course, gives him power of removal, or at all events recognizes such power. But as this power is grossly abused and perverted, by a vicious or insane incumbent, Congress should guard against such abuse in future, by another Act, which should define this power, and limit it to the removal "for cause,"—which cause should in every case be reported to the Senate at the beginning of their next session.

☞ The Boston Advertisers' Washington correspondent states, that by the special direction of the President, lists of appointments are to be withheld from correspondents or representatives of the press. What the object of this measure is, does not appear. Surely he ought not to be afraid or ashamed to have the list published.

AMERICAN SILVER AT A DISCOUNT.—The Montreal Herald complains that the people in the provinces cannot get rid of the American silver quarter dollars which they may have in their pockets at a higher rate than twenty cents. We are willing to exchange them at par for greenbacks rather than have our Canadian friends burdened with them.

SPURGEON'S LAST.—Mr. Spurgeon has just notified a member of his flock that he discourages as much as possible the practice of returning thanks to God after childbirth by any of his congregation, since in most cases it is merely an absurd superstitious practice.

☞ It is now said that ex Gov. Sprague of Rhode Island has not definitely decided to purchase the Kennebec Water Power Company's property at Augusta till he finds out whether he can procure the land along the banks of the river on which to build his proposed mills. His water power purchase alone will amount to $385,000, and the city of Augusta has voted $35,000 in aid of his projects.

— The organization of the "Grand Army of the Republic" in Illinois now numbers 80,000, all officers and men who served in the army during the war.

— Dick Turner, of Libby prison notoriety, who was pardoned by President Johnson, has turned up in a street shooting affray in Richmond.

— The Albany Journal has published 15 columns of the names of soldiers who indorse the platform of the Union Convention which re-nominated Gov. Fenton.

— Maynard, in Faneuil Hall, stated the issue with admirable terseness. The question is, he said, whether you shall reconstruct the disloyal States or whether they shall reconstruct you?

— A foolish young Frenchman undertook on a wager to drink twelve glasses of wine while the clock of the Tuileries was striking twelve. On emptying the ninth glass he fell dead upon the floor.

— It is estimated that one thousand persons have arrived at Galveston and Houston, Texas, to escape the persecutions of guerillas in the interior, who rob and murder on both sides indiscriminately, for plunder. Affairs throughout the State are daily becoming worse instead of better, and outrages are hourly recorded.

— At a Union mass meeting at Brazil, Indiana, last week, over twenty-five thousand persons were present. One of the processions was composed of 400 ladies and 600 gentlemen, all on horseback. There were actually counted on the ground 1836 wagons and 671 buggies and other carriages.

— Hon. A. G. Cattell, the new Senator from New Jersey, is a native of that State, about fifty years of age. He was a Whig till the Republican party was formed. Though residing in New Jersey, he does business in Philadelphia, and is President of the Corn Exchange Bank. Few men have an equal reputation in business circles.

IN A REGATTA at Springfield, Mass., Thursday, a race open to single scull wherries, was accompanied with more than ordinary interest in consequence of the renowned oarsmen Ward and Brown being entered in it. It is thus reported in the Boston Journal. Besides these, Messrs. John McKeil of Hudson, N. Y., and Foster Doyle of Boston, also competed. The distance to be rowed was two miles, and the prizes were $150 and $75. Brown had the advantage of position, Doyle the second, McKeil the third and Ward the fourth. All four of the boats started evenly, and the eyes of all were upon Ward and Brown The latter did not exhibit such superior skill as he displayed in Portland, but Ward did, and of course took the lead.—Brown kept up well, however, but was seen to fall in the rear just before reaching the stake boat. Doyle and McKeil were not inactive and they, too, passed by the hero of the Portland race, and it was painfully apparent to the many who had so liberally risked their money on the ability of Brown, that all was to be lost to them. Ward made the two miles in 15 minutes and 59 seconds; McKeil followed only two and a half seconds later, and Brown and Doyle were left in the distance. The result as may be expected from Brown's victory at Portland, was wholly unexpected. Even if he was to lose the race none believed he would be beaten a distance of forty or fifty yards. The reason Brown assigns for his defeat is, that his boat was too light for him. The boat in which he rowed was not the one used at Portland, although one of his own build. Its dimensions are thirty feet in length, thirteen inches wide, four inches deep, and forty pounds in weight. He is not disheartened, but asserts that he is willing to row a three mile race with Ward, Hammill or any other man in America.

RAINS AND FLOODS.—Our three or four days' rain here, has been much more than matched elsewhere. A Cincinnati dispatch estimates that twenty-thousand bushels of corn have been destroyed by the freshet on the Miami bottoms.

A dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says:—

The damage done by the freshet in this city will amount to three or four hundred thousand dollars. The damage done to the railroads is very great.

And a St. Louis, Mo., item of the same date says:

It has rained here almost incessantly since Monday evening, and the storm is not yet over. A very large quantity of water has fallen. The storm extends over a large portion of the West and Northwest, and all the rivers have risen considerably.

GEN. LOGAN'S COMMENT.—In a recent speech, Gen. John A. Logan, after reading the third section of the Constitutional Amendment, prohibiting traitors who had violated their oaths to support the Constitution of the United States from holding responsible offices in the State or National Governments, said:

"Why is the Democratic party opposed to this? Do they want Jeff. Davis again in the Congress of the United States? (O, but there is no danger of that,' they say, 'he is in prison.' But he would be out of prison if Johnson were not afraid of public sentiment. If a court were to convict him, however, I believe Johnson would let him hang—not because he thought he deserved it, but because he is afraid he will be a formidable opposing candidate for the Presidency at the next Democratic Convention. (Great laughter and cheers.) I dont want to see Jeff. Davis in Congress any more.—I don't want to see Alex. Stephens there any more; nor do I want to see any traitor there, whether big Davises and Stephenses or little Davises and Stephenses.—I want to see only loyal men there, and hence we insist on this provision of the amendment. (Cheers.)

THE JECKER BONDS, which occasioned the invasion of Mexico by the French, were for five millions of dollars, and were given by the Usurper Miramon. Napoleon has expended nearly two hundred millions of dollars in attempting to collect the debt of five millions. A loan of more than a hundred millions has been raised in France to help Maximilian. Since the Austrian Archduke occupied the Mexican throne the debt of the country has been increased from less than ninety millions to more than two hundred millions.

☞ The last report from Washington is that the Johnson leaders have, within the past two or three days, been making an effort to induce the President to modify his policy and come out in favor of the amendment to the Constitution, or at least to secretly urge its ratification upon the Southern leaders, as the only means now left for protecting the veto power and securing a respectable administration minority in Congress during the remainder of Mr. Johnson's term of office. So says the Boston Advertiser's correspondent.

☞ Hon. George G. Fogg, U. S. Senator elect from New Hampshire, arrived in Washington Thursday morning, and had an interview with the President during the afternoon.

☞ The fancy ball costumes in GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for October, 1866, will be appreciated by the fair readers, so that the ladies will not be at a loss for costumes during the gay season.

A RECEIVER OF STOLEN GOODS in Boston, has come to grief. In the Municipal Court of that city on Wednesday, David H. Lowe was arraigned on a complaint made by Deputy State Constable Wade, charging him with receiving $342 worth of silver ware stolen from the house of Wm. H. Gardner, $115 worth of silver ware stolen from the house of Ebenezer Gray, and $56 worth of silver ware stolen stolen from the house of John K. Grout, knowing the same to have been stolen. The goods were found in his store.

Maj. Jones, the State Constable, stated in court, that from information in his possession, he had no doubt the defendant had at different times within the last three or four months received silver ware to the value probably of $20,000, which had been stolen from the residences of gentlemen residing at different points within twenty miles of that city, and this being the case, he thought justice required that the amount of bonds should be sufficiently large to hold the defendant to answer, as in all probability other complaints against him will be forthcoming. Lowe is the keeper of a fancy goods store at 29 Leverett street; and it is stated he has been receiving stolen silver ware and melting it on his premises so as to obliterate all marks or means of identification, and then disposing of it to manufacturers.

Under these circumstances Judge Hurd ordered Lowe to recognize in $4000, with sufficient sureties in the same sum, for his appearance at the October term of the Superior Court for trial. In default of bail, the prisoner was committed to Jail, but the the amount was afterwards furnished by the defendant.

Lowe is a man of over forty years, possessed of considerable property, and previous to this expose is said to have borne a fair reputation.

If he is out on bail,—it is not all probable he will tarry in Boston to be tried; but make his way off as fast as possible with his funds.

FOREIGN ITEMS.—The Finance Committee sent to Paris from Mexico to negotiate for a loan are disheartened, and have announced the Empire of Mexico without funds.

The abdication of Ludwig, King of Bavaria, is now regarded certain.

FADING AWAY.—How often we see men and women who are fairly fading out of existence. They seem to have no especial disease, but general lassitude and languor; no ambition, no energy, indigestion, weakness, total inability to eat and relish food, &c., &c.—all of which is nothing but Dyspepsia.

The Best Cook Stove Out!

URIAH BLAISDELL,

No. 43 Market Street,

Offers to his friends and the public the celebrated

KEARSARGE

COOK STOVE,

Which he WARRANTS to have no superior in the market, in each and all of the qualities of a first-class Stove. It is a new Stove, of neat and symmetrical pattern, very heavy castings, well made, of the best of stock, and, what is rare, works equally well with coal or wood.

In getting up this Stove, it was designed, as its name implies, to make it one that could not be surpassed, and it is believed that perfect success in this has been attained. It is a moderate consumer of fuel, heats up very rapidly, and bakes surprisingly quick; requires no shoveling and makes no dust in cleaning out; will keep fire day and night with as much certainty as the best parlor heaters, and is so simply and conveniently arranged in all respects that a child can work it. The demand for it was so great upon its introduction, late last Fall, that the foundry could not keep up a supply, while the sales have since been steadily increasing, and in every case it has given the fullest satisfaction.

A few names, in different localities, of the many purchasers of this Stove, are subjoined, for convenient reference:

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits to its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Nutritious substances. Represents a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS SYSTEM is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYS. PEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Livers-pot,) and Lentigo, or freckles, are often very annoying, completely marring the beauty of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any complaint of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

ALMOST A FIRE.—A boy at Mr. Frank Jones' Brewery, in draining Kerosene from a barrel Thursday night, accidentally set it on fire, and but for the timely assistance of the neighbors there would have been quite a serious conflagration.

☞ Our police have been so energetic in bringing offenders to punishment that the stock of culprits at large is nearly exhausted, consequently our Police Court reporter has had little to do of late, and has doubtless laid up a store of antique attempts at witticism wherewith to assail the next unfortunate.

☞ We understand that officers in the secret service of the Treasury Department captured $2800 of "queer" en route from New York to the Nashua Fair, after entering the confines of the State.

☞ The sun came out yesterday afternoon, whereupon the daughters, who had been kept in-doors by the long-continued damp weather, immediately followed suit, in large numbers.

HOW LADIES DRESS THEIR HAIR.—A Boston paper says the summer style of hair is over, and during the Fall, curls, without the waterfall, will be much worn for full dress. The front is also worn in smooth puffs, but this is not becoming to all styles of features. There are several different modes of arranging the waterfall—to suit the fancy of the wearer. It may be composed of several small puffs, or two or three, or two narrow bands crossing it, which give it the appearance of puffs. But coils were ruled out some time since, and though occasionally we see one defying the fiat of fashion, yet they are decidedly out of style.

REDUCTION IN PRICE

OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, and for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

PIANOS and REED INSTRUMENTS tuned, repaired, rented, bought, sold, or taken in exchange.

PICTURE FRAMES on hand and made to order. LAMÉ'S altered and repaired.

Having made arrangements with Prof. W. K. DAY, I now have the exclusive agency in this city for the sale of the celebrated Piano Fortes of Chickering & Sons, and Geo. M. Guild & Co. The superior merits of the former have too long been established to need any comments. Of the latter, suffice it to say that the sale of over fifty of them within the last five years by Mr. Cobb, proves a sufficient guaranty of their excellence. Also the celebrated Estey Cottage Organs for sale on reasonable terms.

Every Instrument carefully selected and fully warranted, under the inspection and approval of Prof. Day. Also, the selection of SHEET MUSIC adapted to the wants of the musical community, will receive a just consideration by the same gentleman. D. H. MONTGOMERY.

SENATOR WADE ON THE PRESIDENTIAL PLOT.—Senator Wade of Ohio, in a recent speech referring to the Presidential plot to recognize the Southern members and their Northern allies as the real Congress in case they form a majority, adds the following significant words:

"What else? This is not the Congress; it is a usurped Congress, without authority to pass constitutional amendments, or enact laws. If this be so—if, as Mr. Johnson says, we are not Congress, but a body of men assuming to be Congress—don't you see that the moment he can get a majority in Congress your laws will be declared void, as well as your constitutional amendment by which slavery was abolished? Those great measures by which the rights of the loyal Southern men were protected; your Bureau law, the Civil Rights Bill, are to be treated as unconstitutional and void; and slavery to be reinaugurated, because it was not legally abolished. This is the plot you are to face; and I tell you that, in my judgement, there never has been any issue from the American People to be compared in importance with this. I would not give much for the scalp of the wretch who should undertake to carry out such a proposition as this; but that it may result in civil war I have no more doubt than that I am speaking here. It can only be avoided by the prompt and decided action of the people in the re-election of their loyal and tried Representatives."

— A clergyman says that at church some people clasp their hands so closely in prayer, that they are unable to get them open when the contribution plate comes round.

— So common has become the shooting of ministers in Missouri, it is now regarded as a branch of sporting. In Cooper county, the other day, a stranger, in search of game, was answered, "Not much, sir, but there's the preacher coming over the hill."

THE FREEDMEN IN SOUTH CAROLINA. The Charleston Leader, the Freedmen's paper, says the persistence of the landholders in South Carolina, in refusing to lease or sell lands to the freedmen, has begun to work already. In a number of the districts, hundreds of men have planted their last crop in the State. They are saving their money from this year's labor, and are preparing to go to Florida, and seek homes for their families, and leave the petulant planters to till their own ground or starve. Five hundred are already organized in Darlington district, to go this winter; thousands more of the best men are making preparations to follow. The freedmen have the exclusive right till 1867 to take up the public lands in Florida, of which each man can secure eighty acres by paying five dollars down and five more in five years. The Leader advises the freedmen to exert themselves to thus secure homes and independence in Florida, and it is good advice.

AN AEROLITE.—A few evenings since Mrs. George H. Cutter of Boston, while sitting at the window of her summer residence, in Ocean street, Lynn, observed a brilliant meteoric display. Following the course of the erratic messenger she witnessed its descent directly beneath her window upon the grass. On approaching the spot Mrs. C. discovered a white substance, and upon touching it found it to be hot, and smelling strongly of sulphur. It was sent to Boston and submitted to Dr. Jackson, who pronounced it a very fine specimen of an aerolite.

☞ The method of treating consumptive diseases by raw meat and alcohol, appears to have been attended with wonderful results. It has now been tried in no less than 2000 cases, and, as we are told, in nearly all successfully. Patients have increased in weight to the extent of some five, eight, ten and thirteen pounds in the course of two or three weeks.—Exchange.

[The same thing, or nearly the same, was once said of Cod Liver oil.]

☞ In the case of John Clifton, colored, and Molly Clifton, white, who were married in Ohio and arrested lately in Louisville for amalgation, in violation of the laws of Kentucky, Judge Ballard, of the United States District Court, issued a writ of habeas corpus. The case is carried into the United States Court and the parties are at large on bail.

☞ In New York City, at the Johnson meeting on Monday night Mayor Hoffman announced his intention to "speak on every platform." There were a number of gentlemen present who have spoken on so many platforms that they can hardly distinguish one from another.—Tribune.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1866.

WHO HAS CHANGED?—If we can believe the President and his organs, four million seven hundred thousand voters have, in the course of two years, abjured their political principles; while one man, unerring in his perceptions and immaculate in his convictions, has remained firm and unshaken! The Republican party has gone over en masse to the opposition; the opposition party stands squarely upon the Baltimore platform; and the disloyal Southrons have espoused the principles which required their own discomfiture, and which secured their utter defeat. And this movement of millions has been secured by the immobility of a single individual! All this is true, or else it is true that President Johnson has abandoned the party that elected him, has renounced its principles, and has sworn fealty to its foes. On this issue, the loyal men of the United States are now passing their judgement.

The question is put in the above shape by a loyal paper. Now, is it most likely that traitors and rebels are all loyal,—and that patriots have all turned traitors,—or that one or two madmen have broken loose and done mischief?

VALLANDIGHAM'S STATEMENT.—In a speech in Warren, Ohio, last week, Mr. Vallandigham said:

"He heard from the first, that Mr. Johnson was not a supporter of the Union Republican party in sentiment; that he had not deserted them, for he never was with them. He had this from Johnson's own mouth."

What will be said of this by Mr. Raymond and those others who have been trying so hard to prove that Mr. Johnson was not only a Union Republican at the time of his election, but that he has remained so throughout, while his party has deserted him? Again, Andrew Johnson himself told Mr. Stearns and others that he was simply carrying on a contest inside of the Republican party, in which the defeated were to quietly yield; while he has been telling Vallandigham, in justification of his war upon that party, that he never belonged to it! The Boston Journal asks, will the riddle of Andrew Johnson's character ever be read?

STARTLING IF TRUE.—The following communication, which appeared in the Boston Journal of Saturday, speaks for itself,—and will command attention.

An article in your issue of yesterday, entitled "Vallandigham's Statement," quoting his words, that he had from "President Johnson's own mouth that he never was with the Union Republican Party," you close with the question, "Will the riddle of Andrew Johnson's character ever be read?"

Perhaps I can throw a little light upon the darkness. It will be remembered that in June, 1865, South Carolina sent a deputation to the President. On the first day of July, 1865, at the Astor House, in New York, I heard one of that delegation say to a released rebel prisoner substantially this: "We are coming out right. The Republicans will find themselves disappointed. We have seen the President and he is with us. He will take the lead of the Democrats, and with their help we shall have things as we want them."

He mistook me, I presume, for a released prisoner, and so was frank and jubilant in his expressions. I had at the time the fullest confidence in the President, and remarked on going out, to one present with me, "He'll find the mistake is on his part. How insanely there men cling to the hope of ruling this country."

It seems, however, that he did know Johnson, and that Vallandigham tells the truth.

I can send these correspondent testimonies of the frank, honorable character of Mr. Johnson, to the consideration of Henry Ward Beecher and others, who have sincerely supposed him honest.

It is not strange that honest men should believe such double dyed, deliberate, premeditated treachery as Johnson's impossible.

A CLERGYMAN OF MASSACHUSETTS.

☞ Meetings of the different Fenian Circles in New York which support James Stephens take place every night, and addresses are delivered by the C. O. I. R., or some other prominent official. The Herald says the greatest enthusiasm and unanimity are manifested by all the Circles, and money, arms, and ammunition are received daily in large quantities. Rifles, carbines, sabres, pistols, and catridges are received at the headquarters, picked up, and mysteriously disappear, to again see daylight in some secluded spot in Ireland. Nearly all the arms bear the United States mark, and have already done good service in this country. Secret agents pass to and fro between New York and Ireland with the greatest apparent impunity, and from their unusual activity during the last few weeks it is evident that preparations are being made for events of more than ordinary importance.

— Mr. Fennefrock, one of Mr. Johnson's new friends in Ohio, and candidate for Congress in the IXth District, made this appeal during the war: "Democrats, arm yourselves. Go armed to the polls. Resist the draft, for if blood is to be shed, it might as well be shed in Sandusky county as in Abe Lincoln's slaughter-pens."

ROW IN VIRGINIA.—A row occurred at Fredericksburg, Virginia, on Tuesday night, between members of the Union Soldiers' Burial Party and a lot of ex-rebels. There has been considerable feeling of late in that city as to the building of a monument in the Union Burying Ground on Marye Heights. On Tuesday the burial party were paid off. Several of them being at the railroad at night, a little influenced by liquor, were branded by a crowd of citizens with unkind epithets; replying in usual complimentary style, the crowd set upon them, and a desperate fight resulted, in which eight men were badly bruised. No weapons were used. Intense excitement prevails.

☞ A conflict of authority between the civil officials and the troops in garrison occurred at Columbia, S. C., last week. A German who had been arrested for debt, and released on a responsible citizen becoming his surety, enlisted in the United States cavalry stationed there. His surety fearing that the debtor would leave the city, surrendered the man into the custody of the Sheriff, who, finding payment refused, locked him up. A Major of the regiment called on the Sheriff with an oral order for the release of the prisoner, which was disregarded. A written order, emanating from Col. Green, the commander of the post, was then sent, but the Sheriff refused to surrender the prisoner. A squad of soldiers then appeared, broke open the jail, and released him.

☞ The Lebanon Free Press says the President is reported to have ordered a new pair of cowhide boots with which to commence his promised kicking operations.—Probably, there is nothing which would so consolidate and strengthen the Republican party and disgust the people with the President, as a sweeping removal for partisan reasons. The President's plea of "rotation" will not serve him so long as he rotates loyal men out and rebel sympathizers in.

☞ A Canadian volunteer officer writes to the Montreal Herald that the militia force is almost naked, and the arms provided are such that the Fenians might fearlessly walk up to the muzzles without injury; that the men have not been paid for a year previous to April last, and that unless something is done speedily, the volunteer militia of the province will be rendered worthless.

— That the Republican party is now divided from "stem to stern," there can no longer be any doubt.—Dover Gazette.

If the Republicans could, divided, carry the Maine election by 27,000 to 29,000, what would have been their majority if working harmoniously?—Statesman.

☞ The New Nation is the title of a weekly paper published in Richmond, Va., by J. W. Hunnicutt,—who will be remembered by many of our readers as lecturing here last winter in the Parson Brownlow style. Its object are to aid reconstruction on the plan of Congress, to elevate the poor white, educate the freedmen, ect. Its many friends at the North are determined to sustain it, and to this end contributions and additional subscriptions from every section of New England are solicited. The services of Rev. J. B. Davis, Room No. 13 Merchants' Exchange, Boston, have been secured, and all moneys and business communications will be directed to him there, as General Agent at the North.

☞ Fron A. Williams & Co., Boston, we have the October number of "Hours at Home," an excellent moral and religious magazine, published by Charles Scribner & Co., New York, and for sale in this city by J. H. Foster.

CANAAN ITEMS.—The Lebanon Free Press is good for local items in that region. Under the head of Canaan, the last number of the Press has these:

We are having a fine rain at the present writing, said by those posted on the subject to be the equinoctial. Be that as it may, it is much needed, the ponds and streams being very low. The awl shop and hammer factory, which obtain their water from the pond here, have been obliged to suspend operations for some time, the water in the pond being called lower than ever before known.

We were visited by a severe frost on the morning of the 16th inst., which put a stop to the growth of vegetation in the hollows, and the fall farms suffered considerably. Corn has been injured most by it, there being many pieces not yet entirely glazed.

Mr. Prince, of Orange, the loss of whose horse we mentioned last week, has been singularly unfortunate. The day after losing his horse, a fine shote died,—and the day following, a cow got cast in the pasture, and was found dead at night.

From the number of auction bills posted, and the private sales we hear of, it seems that the whole town is to be offered for sale, and a general stampede of the inhabitants to take place. It is not strange that, after the extremes of the present season, people should desire to go where the climate is not quite so much like a flock of sheep composed of all we(a)thers.

— At the Mystic Park course, Boston, Ike Copp's sorrel horse Berkshire Boy beat John Bartlett, Friday, in 2:39 1-2, 2:41 1-2, 2:41—winning $400.

— It has been asked when rain falls does it ever get up again? Of course it does in dew time, and though it falls hard it is always soft water.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

☞ The 43d Annual Fair of the Merrimac County Agricultural Society is to be held in Concord, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. This Society is one of the best managed and most active in the State, and always makes a good show. Moses Humphrey is President and J. E. Pecker Secretary.

—— It is said that although the rains of this summer and autumn have been abundant for the purposes of agriculture, yet the streams are no higher than the usual level at the beginning of autumn.

—— Among the Examining Surgeons appointed by the Commissioner of Pensions is Jno. W. Buckuam, Great Falls, New Hampshire.

—— A man from Maine, attending the Fair in Exeter, lost his pocket book, containing 1200 and notes. Too much to carry to any place of recreation.

—— The inhabitants on the north side of Ossipee Mountain, known as the Perkins settlement, are much troubled by the depredations of hedgehogs, and Mr. Jeremiah Wiggin informs the Wolfeborough News that they have destroyed his corn, and he has killed twenty-five that came up around his buildings.

☞ Notwithstanding the anti-fair weather all last week,—the State Fair at Nashua went through all the motions, and all came out as well as could be expected. We hope they gave the clerk of the weather the first premium, for the nastiest spell of weather ever seen.

Mr. Woodbury Locke's grey mare Nellie contested for the purses of $100, $50 and $25, best 3 in 5 mile heats, to sulkies. Jessie Wales took first in 2:42, 2:39 1-2, 2:40 1-2—8:01 3 4. Lady Farnum was second in 8:11; Old Spot third in 8:15 1-2, Tommy 8:15 3 5, and Nellie Locke defeated in 2:41, 2:52, 2:59—8:32.

The fair, which lasted four days, was blessed with but three hours of sunshine, the rest of the time being rainy. Financially, Treasurer Riddle states that it was by no means a failure. The Boston Herald says the receipts were more than expenditures in a slight degree, but had the weather been pleasant the society would have made hundreds of dollars. The officers, President Estes, Secretary Young, and Treasurer Riddle, as well as Superintendent Morrill, Gen. Stevens and aids, and in fact, all connected with the management of the fair, did all in their power to make it a success, in spite of the rain, and received the thanks of correspondents for the liberal arrangements that were made for their convenience and comfort.

☞ The Traveller correspondent states that a trotting match was made up at the State Fair between the owner of Jessie Wales, the mare that won the race there, and the gray mare Nellie W. Locke of this city, for a purse of $250, best two in three, to harness, to come off within a fortnight on some New England track on which neither horse has before trotted. It will probably be over the Haverhill course. It will be remembered that Mr. Locke's mare beat Wales at Exeter,—Wales beat at Nashua, and now comes the rubber.

☞ The steamer Meteor, (built at this port, under the name of Gen. Grant,) which was held under seizure in New York, on suspicion of being designed for a Chilian privateer, is again in trouble at Boston.—After being released in New York she came found and was offered for sale by her owner, Mr. J. M. Forbes, and was recently bought by Mr. Thomas Walsh for the Japan trade. She cleared the Boston Custom House under command of Capt. Watson for the British East Indies, but was seized by the government officers according to instructions from Washington, and she is now under the surveillance of the U. S. revenue cutter. The Meteor is a fine steamer of 1221 tons, and is a very fast vessel. The present detention of the Meteor was made at the instance of the Spanish Consul, in consequence of renewed suspicions that she is still designed for a Chilian privateer. The matter will be investigated. According to Custom House documents the steamer cleared out in ballast. She now lies at anchor in the stream, and it would seem that our authorities are dreadfully afraid this Meteor will shoot. P. S.—She is again released.

— There was a Johnson meeting at Knoxville, Tennessee, on Wednesday, at which a dispatch was read from the President in which he predicts "a dissolution of the Union and a change of our free institutions," if the Republican policy is carried out.

FACT.—As a culinary preparation, Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is infallible. It has great advantages over yeast fermentation, and will make twenty-five pounds more Bread or Biscuit from the same barrel of flour, and much better. It retains all the glutinous starch and sugar that is in the flour, and from two-and-a-half pounds of flour will make three and a-half pounds of Bread or Biscuit, while the same quantity by yeast fermentation will make only a trifle over three pounds, and require more than twice the quantity of shortening, besides being much more unhealthy. Try it and be convinced. 31

☞ A Washington item of Saturday says:

It is understood that the President will receive no more political Delegations with programmes for removal of officers. Such business must be referred to the appropriate departments.

A very base and scurvy business it is; and is receiving, as it deserves, the scorn and contempt of honorable men. No previous administration has sunk itself quite so low.

☞ A Washington item of Sept. 20, says The friends of Mr. Seward who have visited him to-day expressed alarm at his condition, and fear that he cannot survive much longer. It is with great effort that Mr. Seward speaks, and his articulation is very imperfect.

FOUR MEN KILLED BY A BOILER EXPLOSION.—A terrible accident occurred at New Milford, Conn., on Monday, resulting in the death of four men. Chauncey Fairchild of that town was threshing grain with his machine. The steam boiler of the machine exploded, and was thrown twelve rods through the barn. Edward Oviatt was killed instantly. Two sons of Noble Bennett, a merchant in New Milford, were killed instantly. Chauncey Fairchild was thrown a distance of over one hundred and sixty feet, and shockingly torn. He lived only an hour.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is used in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or Inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYS. PEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Warriness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfulls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera, during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere; my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, Jr., Minister of the Gospel.

CROPS IN EUROPE.—Hay in all the European countries is light in quantity but good in quality. Fruits of most kinds have failed. In France barley and oats have proved average crops. Wheat is from a quarter to a third under an average, and the quality bad, both as to weight and color. The millers prefer buying the old wheat at the price demanded by the holder, than the new at the market quotation. England, which until lately had counted on a good average year, is also beginning to complain, as the quality leaves much to be desired. Northern Germany appears to be divided. The southern Provinces of Hungary have suffered much. Russia has had an excellent wheat harvest, as well as Spain. Italy does not seem to be much more fortunate than France. The locusts have ravaged Algeria. The vine has suffered much this year, especially in the South; the dryness first, then the oidium, and finally the rains, have singularly endangered the results of the approaching vintage. The probable quantity is not yet known, but the quality will be mediocre.

☞ A contemporary says it is under stood that the Government is getting possession of as many of the bills of a smaller denomination than fives, of the National Banks, as possible, and locking them up, with a view of creating a scarcity, and hurrying up the banks into paying out specie. Already some inconvenience has been caused by this movement, and it is feared that the embarrassment will soon become serious. It is said there is likely to be a scarcity of scrip also. [Doubtful.]

☞ The Boston Commonwealth, which wishes with "all its heart" that Mr. Phillips would go to Congress, says that it has reason to know that he will decline each and all nominations; that he does "not deem his sphere of usefulness to be in Congress, and therefore says 'No' to all overtures for his nomination." Ayer's Ague Cure,

Intermittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, induced by the malarious poison of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is due not only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Dumb Ague, Pleurisy, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hypochondria, Hysteria, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is free of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. The dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.

Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Co.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Co., held at Boston, July 22d, 1856, it was resolved to appoint three Trustees—Messrs. S. D. Sargent, R. W. Morse, Jr., and E. W. Fiske—to act for the Company, to extricate it from its present embarrassments and debts—and they have accepted the trust.

All persons holding Certificates of Stock are desired to hand them to us immediately, endorsed over in behalf of the Trustees, empowering them to act for the Stockholders,—and take a receipt for the same.

Arrangements have been made for Stockholders in the Eagle Hill to have their Coal—Stove, Egg or Furnace—delivered to them, at the lowest cash price on delivery. The Coal is of excellent quality. Apply to

STOVES! STOVES!

ALL READY FOR THE FALL TRADE

The Best Cook Stove Out!

URIAH BLAISDELL,

No. 43 Market Street,

Offers to his friends and the public the celebrated

KEARSARGE

COOK STOVE,

Which he WARRANTS to have no superior in the market, in each and all of the qualities of a first-class Stove. It is a new Stove, of neat and symmetrical pattern, very heavy castings, well made, of the best of stock, and, what is rare, works equally well with coal or wood.

In getting up this Stove, it was designed, as its name implies, to make it one that could not be surpassed, and it is believed that perfect success in this has been attained. It is a moderate consumer of fuel, heats up very rapidly, and bakes surprisingly quick; requires no shoveling and makes no dust in cleaning out; will keep fire day and night with as much certainty as the best parlor heaters, and is so simply and conveniently arranged in all respects that a child can work it. The demand for it was so great upon its introduction, late last Fall, that the foundry could not keep up a supply, while the sales have since been steadily increasing, and in every case it has given the fullest satisfaction.

A few names, in different localities, of the many purchasers of this Stove, are subjoined, for convenient reference:

AMBROTYPE BUSINESS.—Messrs. Davis Brothers of this city, are extensively engaged in the Ambrotype and Photograph business, and are very successful in producing good pictures. It is a treat to look in to their reception room, where a large collection of good pictures are displayed. They keep up with the times in all the improvements made in this great art of modern days. Among the stereoscope pictures they have recently produced are twenty-four views of the most interesting scenery of the Isles of Shoals. They have sought out all the points of interest, not half of which have met the eyes of one in a hundred who have visited the Isles. Neptune's Hall, on Appledore, as taken, is truly a grand display of the rugged rocks. In fact, the whole series is a pleasant study for hours, giving such an idea of the Isles as will lead to a desire to visit the scenes. Many copies have been sold to the visitors at the Shoals the past year, and will continue to be in demand for years to come.

THE OLD BLACK CHERRY TREE.—When the Frenchman was killed near the head of Islington creek nearly a century ago, the circumstance gave the name of Frenchman's lane to the locality. The railroads have now cut off the lane, but until a few months since one of the old landmarks remained there. A few rods from the spot where the murder was, was a Black Cherry tree, then perhaps forty years old. It was well known from the days of the Revolution to the successive generations of pasture boys, who have tasted its fruit as they drove by their cows. It has been thrifty to its old age, until it reached the dimensions of about twelve feet in circumference. The past year Messrs. Eldridge have cut it down, and last week we saw its venerable trunk and large branches sawn into boards and plank. Some of the boards are four feet in width. Between two and three thousand feet were obtained—worth probably $200. The wood lines indicated it to be about 135 years old.

STORE BREAKING.—The store of E. F. Sise & Co. was entered on Tuesday night last, through a front window. The thief made a pretty thorough search of the papers in the counting room, but succeeded in securing only a small quantity of fractional currency, and a bag of cents. A second bag he had in grasp, but it burst, and the little copperheads were scattered over the floor. As he did not stop to gather them up, he probably became frightened at finding himself in such company, and at the noise they made, and fled.

HIGH CONVENTION.—"There seems to be some sort of Convention up there," said a man on Market Square on Tuesday morning, observing fifty or more swallows resting on the vane of the North Church. "Can you tell me what party or sect they represent?" "Of course they are for the vane-ity man."

NEW TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATION.—On Tuesday evening the Grand Worthy Patriarch of the State of New Hampshire, with his Deputies, instituted a new Division of the Sons of Temperance in this city, under the title of Granite State Division No. 5, Sons of Temperance, Portsmouth, N. H.

The following persons were duly elected and installed as officers for the present term.

E. H. Leslie, W. P.	Wm. F. Rice, R. S.
John W. Dame, W. A.	R. F. Russell, C.
Frank M. Drake, R. S.	G. H. Dame, A. C.
J. M. Grogan, A. R. S.	Frank H. Warren, I. S.
J. H. Lowd, T.	John Dame, O. S.

THE CONSTITUTION.—Mr. Johnson and Mr. Seward, by taking the untenable ground that rebellion setting at defiance and reprobating the government of which they were members, is no loss of rights and privileges under the Constitution they strove to destroy, are continually appealing to people of common sense about the Constitution! But it is forgotten that all the rebel language of these States, for four years was, "any thing but a return to the hated Union." Well, they were beaten, and so necessarily conquered to preserve the government. They had no rights to plead under that Constitution any more than had the inhabitants of Australia, or the Austrians, after being beaten, to German superiority and control. They had staked their all upon the success of rebellion and war. They must come back if at all under such terms as Congress, the legislative power of the government, may prescribe—not what the executive branch only might rule. Hence the importance of the pending elections. Congress may prescribe the universal franchise, as one condition if advisable, for no provision of the Constitution has any application to rebels, though they have submitted, until again admitted as States. But in this case, they must be strong enough to overcome Executive veto. The universal desire is to receive them all. But the suppression of the late rebellion has cost too much blood and treasure to risk another without ample security of future good behavior.

SOUTHERN LOYALISTS.—Members of the Southern Loyal delegation have visited New York, Boston, Hartford, &c., commanding immense audiences. Gov. Brownlow at Faneuil Hall, "kept the house in a roar." They will take the Western States on their way home.

THE SOUTHERN LOYALISTS are doing good work in Connecticut, New York, and Massachusetts.

IN OHIO, the only unsettled question is, whether the Republican and Congress policy question majority will stop at 75,000 or reach 100,000. So in New York and Pennsylvania. Gov. Fenton is re-nominated in New York, and the gallant and popular Gov. Geary will be overwhelmingly elected in Pennsylvania. We doubt not the next Congress will be vastly stronger than even the present.

Mr. Johnson's life was insured against accidents during his late tour. Now he has got home, and reads the papers, he will find "his policy has run out."

Why was Mr. Johnson's behavior at Cleveland, like the town of Candia in this county? It's a little beyond Raymond.

THE LOST CAUSE is now safely restored, giving a double line of Telegraph to Europe. Three months ago it was generally feared that one would never succeed and be established. It is now said the rates of communication will be reduced 50 per cent.

The latest talk is about the removal of our Minister to France to make room for—who?—why Henry J. Raymond, to be sure.

THE REAL DEVILS.—In my own experience the cases that I have most despaired of among those who have come to me for spiritual help, have been persons that were nervively sick. I could do them no good, because I could not reach the conditions of their body. If a person drinks green tea, which is like the quintessence of a thousand sharp needle points in its effect on a man's nerves, what is the use of his coming to me with complaints about blue devils? They are not blue devils! If a man gorges and oppresses his stomach, and so overlays the keys of life—for the keys of life are located in the stomach, as the keys of the piano and the organ are located in their appropriate places in those instruments—and he comes to me for deliverance from temptations, or for the removal of obscurities that stand between his soul and God, unless I can have control of that man's habits of eating, what can I do for him?—H. W. Beecher.

[True and good:—and then query.—What had Br. Beecher been eating or drinking, when he wrote his soothing syrup letter to the rebels and their allies?]

☞ Vallandigham is a sly joker as well as a bitter copperhead, and both these characteristics are seen in the subjoined paragraph cut from a report of a recent speech by him. Having been interrupted by opponents, he said:

If the President of the United States sees fit to allow himself to be disturbed, and to engage in wrangling with blackguards on the outskirts of the crowd, why I am neither President nor candidate for the Presidency, and will do no such thing. [Laughter and cheers.] If I am wrong, just let our Republican orators expose my arguments. But you cannot answer argument with groans. I do not accept any such response. You cannot break up our meetings so that we cannot be heard. That was tried on me. A man by the name of Burnside, by another named Lincoln, tried that experiment. [Cheers.] They thought to close my mouth, but it is rather a large institution; it won't stay closed. [Laughter.]

— The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. Augur Wells and wife Abigail Hitchcock was celebrated in Albany a week ago. Their children, five merchants, one lawer, and one lady, all living, were present with their children, and four ministers who are near relatives. Mr. Wells is years of age.

— The following is a correct statement of the number of artificial limbs furnished gratuitously by the Government to disabled Union soldiers from the beginning of the late war up to May 11th of the present year: Arms, 2134; legs, 3784; hands, 144; feet, 9; apparatus, 104; the total number furnished being 6075, at a cost to the Government of $357,728.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1866.

A BASE LIE CONTRADICTED.—Saturday evening's papers brought a New Orleans item about an expected riot by negro soldiers which were to be disbanded. We laid it by, till we should get the news of the actual riot. But a New Orleans dispatch of the 22d says:

There is no truth whatever in the statement telegraphed to the New York Herald, that the 82d regiment of colored troops, stationed here, ever contemplated at any time to create a riot in this city. No troops could possibly have behaved better than they have done since their arrival among us, and any reports to the contrary have been manufactured for merely political purposes. Gen. Sheridan is very much annoyed that such maliciously false reports should be sent North, and intimated to-day that correspondents who in future send such lying messages shall be compelled to leave New Orleans.

☞ The people of this country can have very little adequate idea of the horrors or extent of the famine now existing in the interior of Idia. The famine began in October last, and has been depopulating Orissa, a district about three hundred miles southwest of Calcutta, ever since April; the natives of this region live altogether on rice, and the rice crop having failed for two or three years, they are reduced to absolute starvation. The number of deaths has been from 2500 to 3500 a week; and upwards of 150,000 persons have been fed by private charities for a long period.

TOPPING CORN.—It has been proved by fair experiments in many parts of the country, that the old practice of topping corn, soon after it is scaled over, is injurious, and that it will ripen sooner without topping, be heavier, sweeter, and more in quantity. It seems to be strange that such a practice was ever adopted. The process of nature in ripening corn, as in respect to other vegetables, is far superior to human invention. The juice absorbed by the roots is far from being fit to enter the kernels on the cob. It first ascends into the corn-blades, where it undergoes a chemical action, or as chemists say, is elaborated; thence it descends from the blade, enters the cob, and is concocted into a sweet pulp, a milky substance, before it is fit to enter the kernel. While this process is going on, it is irrational to cut off the top and blades. It should not be done until after the milky substance ceases to enter the kernel, or until the corn becomes hard. Then by cutting up at the roots, there will be more feed for cattle than under the old practice.

Every part of stalk has its natural function. The farina of the top falls upon, and impregnates the silk threads, which have a small aperture at the end, and one thread comes from each kernel of the cob, without which there would be no corn, as may be proved by covering the silky ends at the time the farina falls. Should farmers once adopt the new theory, they could never return to the old practice. Farmers come to gather and pile up in the barn six or eight loads of corn, and let it lay in the heap several days, until it often heats. An effluvia pervades the whole heap, and thereby the taste of the ground corn meal is much injured. This has often been done, in order to have an evening husking frolic. When corn, without topping, is suffered to come to maturity, the meal is much sweeter and more palatable than it is under the old practice.

A FARMER.

☞ A Washington dispatch of Sunday stated that a large number of the most prominent supporters of the President's policy in Maine and New Hampshire, including Hon. Chas. A. Shaw, Mayor of Biddeford, Me.; Gen. Roberts of Bangor, Col. Gurnsey, recently of Gov. Cony's staff; Hon. E. D. M. Sweat of Portland, Mayor Mann of Gorham, Hon. Daniel Marcy of Portsmouth, the Mayor of Manchester, N. H., and others, were there, urging further changes of government office-holders in those States.

☞ A Chicago dispatch of Sept. 23, says in the trot Saturday between Cooley and Butler, the first two heats were won by the former and the next two by the latter. The excitement before the fifth heat was intense, and considerable ill feeling was displayed by the drivers of the horses. Jockeying delayed the start for the last heat until after dark, from which Butler came in without a driver. The latter was found near the half-mile pole with his skull broken. There are suspicions of foul play, and Cooley's driver is under arrest. The driver of Butler, named McKeever, died in the evening. Several arrests are made.

☞ With the rebels who have sincerely repented rebellion, Mr. Johnson's plan is extremely unpopular, for none know better than they its evils. Mr. Botts, in his speech at Paterson, N. J., quoted a letter from a distinguished officer in the rebel army, which bore earnest testimony to the hatred of the Union still cherished by the leaders of treason, and the criminal folly of giving them again the power they forfeited.—Tribune.

NATURE'S PICTURES.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."—So says the poet, so say we, and we are led to think so every day that we stroll by the banks of our noble Piscataqua and enjoy the beauties which Nature has so prodigally spread out on its waters and shores. Reader, do you enjoy nature's painting? if so, go with me to our river bank of a bright summer's morning, and there you will witness the great pulsations of nature in the ebb and flow of the majestic river, in its course to and from its mother ocean. The sun is up and is throwing its golden rays upon the waters and the land. To the east, stretches out the fort-crowned islands arrayed in their garb of summer, which appear like acres of green velvet.—To the north, the highlands rise, dark with heavy foliage; and below, stretching to the river side, are corn and hay fields, checkered with golden harvest. Farther on, and we see the crooked bridge over which comes creeping the morning train from the east; and beneath which, deep-freighted gondolas with their picturesque lateen sails, pass and repass, on their inward and outward trip to and from the city; and still farther on, piercing the sky like a frowning battlement, rises the verdure-crowned heights of Eliot, dotted here and there with the farmers' white cottages.

Before us is the Navy Yard and adjacent villages spread out in varied form, a picture in itself—with noble ships proudly riding at anchor near by, towering columns, mammoth structures with village church spires cleaving the heavens, and the deep blue sky over all—it is indeed a lovely scene. White boats and black boats, carrying the starry flag and filled with neatly dressed jack tars, pass to and from the shores, the dip of their dozen oars keeping time as if but one. A long, low, graceful craft, manned by jauntily-rigged oarsmen, slips noisely by, and you watch its swift passage as it cleaves the bright water, all sparkling in the sun. The saucy petite steamer from the Yard startles the still air with her shrill whistle, and darts across the stream, leaving in her wake a pathway of seething foam. The stately Pioneer moves gracefully along, bearing on its deck its crowd of pleasure seekers for the ocean cliffs of Appledore. Here and there, drifting slowly with the tide, float deep laden colliers just arrived from the Chesapeake, and full-freighted lumber crafts from the shores and rivers of Maine. A score of tiny boats from the river side villages glide up and down the blue waters, their ashen oars flashing brightly in the sunlight.

Down little-tide way, the fishing crafts are getting underway for their morning cruise, and one after another their snowy sails are hoisted, and like swans they bear away to the harbor's mouth and to the open sea. It is a still, quiet morning, the tide ripples brightly among the piers of the wharf, a warm south wind creeps softly over the water. Soon the hour of the morning strikes in the church tower of the city, it is echoed from the clock tower on the Navy Yard, and we again hear it rung out by the noble frigate in the stream.

The notes of the morning reveille on board ship now comes floating over the stream, and before its echo has died away it is taken up at the barracks on the Yard, and from over the river and the land we again hear its music from the forts below.

And this is our morning picture. It is not fifty, nor ten, nor five miles away, but, it is at our very doors. A morning stroll, and you will find it at the foot of State street, on the long pier that stretches out into the beautiful Piscataqua. We often sigh for scenes of interest far away, we make long journeys to feast our eyes on waterfalls and sea views and mountain pictures, but do we half appreciate the beauty which lies so near us? Are there not hundreds in our city who visit our river side scarcely once a year? Are not the lovers of this river scene (one of nature's best) to be numbered by scores, when they should be counted by thousands? is the picture too highly colored? if you think so, walk in that direction of a pleasant morning, or when the sun is setting behind the western horizon, throwing its last rays upon the glistening waters, turned violet-colored by the hues of twilight, and if you do not find beauty there, by frequent visits you will germinate within yourself a taste for the beautiful in nature, which, of all inspirations, is the noblest and the best.

J. B. H.

☞ It is reported that the steamer Gen. Buel, lying between Louisville and Cincinnati, was seized by 200 guerrillas at Warsaw, Ky., Thursday evening, and Dr. Ferris, the mail agent, was taken away by them. He had formerly been Provost Marshal of Warsaw while Burbridge was in command of the District of Kentucky, and had executed two guerrillas near that town. It is supposed that he was seized in revenge and will probably be murdered. But a Louisville dispatch says Dr. Ferris, the mail agent on the steamer Gen. Buell arrived here, and was delivered up to the United States Court on a charge of murder.

A SOLDIER'S WIDOW'S LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT.—The Philadelphia Press publishes a letter from a soldier's widow of that city to President Johnson, to answer to that portion of his Cleveland speech in which he asked his audience, "Who made greater sacrifices in the war than I?" "Who suffered more than I?" &c., and submits to the just judgment of the world whether on the score of sufferings and sacrifices his claims to popular sympathy and support bear any comparison with hers. She says;

Before the rebellion, sir, I had a husband, kind, loving, industrious, economical, who for myself and our four little ones made a comfortable provision. Our home was the abode of peace and plenty. What has become of him? He was starved to death at Andersonville, and that by the "chivalric" men whom your "policy" would fain restore, without repentance, to the head of our Government. Since then I have been trying my best to earn bread for my little ones by plying the needle. At times, when that kind of employment has failed me, I have even been obliged to stand, from early morn till night, over the washtub.

I had two brothers, steady men, kind and generous. Had the rebellion left them as it found them, pinching poverty I should have never known. Alas! alas! one of them perished from exposure and want on Belle Island, and the other had his right arm taken off by a rebel shell at Antietam. He cannot assist me. The privations and hardships I have had to endure have so shattered my own health and strength that I feel at times unable even to endure the fatigue of plying the needle. So that, except my trust in a merciful God, I have sacrificed for my country my all—husband, brothers, house, home, living—and I am cast a beggar, on the cold charity of the world. And all this I owe to the Southern slaveholders, and to their iniquitous attempt to murder my beloved country, as they did murder my husband and my brothers.

Now Mr. Johnson, since you invite a comparison, what have you suffered?—Exhibit your scars, and wounds, and bruises! Did you lose a leg or an arm, or were you even so much as scratched or bruised? Where is the blood you shed? Would it stain a white cambric pocket handkerchief? How much property did you lose? Why, it report speaks true, during most of the time of the war you were living on the "fat of the land," in Nashville, out of harm's way, protected as you were, by Union bayonets. Out of Uncle Sam's overflowing commissary stores you drew plenty to eat and drink—the best of meats, and, what was of still more consequence to you, the choicest of liquors. Add to this your handsome salary as Military Governor. Then the great Union party, whom you have since so foully betrayed, made you Vice President, with a salary of $8000 per annum. Then, to crown all, John Wilkes Booth made you President, and there you are yet, to the tune of $25,000 a year, with "fixins." The rebellion found you, I learn, comparatively a poor man. Now you are rich, with a sound body, not to speak of your mind, whose soundness is not so certain.

You, Andrew Johnson, talk of your sacrifices and your sufferings, and challenge a comparison. Fie! fie! upon you! Why sir, on that score I ought to be America's Queen, and you ought to be sweating over the wash tub! And now, sir, are your questions as to who sacrified more than you, by reason of the war, answered! I did, sir, and I know hundreds of poor women, tossed from the heights of affluence into the vale of penury and want, who have suffered and sacrificed ten thousand times more than you, and are making no ostentatious parade of it either.

Yours respectfully,

MARY JANE CATHERWAITE,

A soldier's widow, and the mother of four fatherless children."

☞ The Monde, one of the leading Catholic organs of Europe, has the following lament over the precarious situation of the Pope's temporal power:

"We cannot see indeed what is to prevent the Italian revolution from ascending the capital. France abandons Rome; Austria makes advances to King Victor Emmanuel; all the Catholic Powers become more and more entangled in revolutionary embarrassments under the pretex of escaping the embarrassments of the Roman question. Christian princes seem more inclined to ally themselves with the revolution than to rise in defense of the Holy Father and the Catholic church. Rome, then, for one reason or another, is really abandoned by men. It is quite natural, therefore, that the Garibaldis, Ricasolis and Garibaldis should prepare the moral means for taking possession of it. The only power which the revolution has now to fear is God. But what is God in the eyes of certain persons who are on the high places of power? A child's scarecrow. All this is horrible, but is true."

— "I have been generally considered a Radical," said Mr. Johnson in a Senatorial speech delivered in 1860. "I go for enactments by Congress, and for amendments to the Constitution, upon the principle that they are right, and upon no other ground." As Mr. Johnson "never deserted a principle" we suppose Congress has become entirely too Conservative for him.—Tribune.

— Mr. S. A. Waberton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., became acquainted with Miss Catherine Shannon at a party, in 1862, paid his devoirs to her, went to the war in the 14th, wrote his proposal in one of his love-letters and was accepted, came home and married another girl who it is said he became acquainted with through an advertisement. Miss Shannon sued him for breach of promise, and a jury has very properly just given her $2500 damages.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is the best article in the market. It requires a little less than one-half the quantity to do the same work, and when done, leaves the fabric in a much better condition than any other kind of soap. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Use no other, have no other, and be put off with no other. 16

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY!

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and diffuses Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"MUSCAT PERLE."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face on a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either, and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. C. Perry, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—Sir: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial to its fame.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

MORE NEW CARS.—Two "rolling palaces" (as the Saturday Evening Gazette aptly calls them,) arrived here on the Eastern Railroad Monday evening. They are new sixty-passenger cars, of the same model as one we lately noticed, but have several valuable improvements even upon that pattern of elegance and comfort. They were built by Mr. John P. Somerby, formerly of this city, at the company's works in East Boston, and are intended for the through trains to Portland. The traveling public fully appreciate the endeavors made to ensure their comfort by the Eastern Road in all branches of its management.

☞ Among the various floral tributes with which we are favored, we should like to Chronicle the superb bouquet—(why do so many people call that word bo-quet, when it should be bou-quet?) the bunch of dahlias, &c., from —— well, no matter who—a young lady we are forbid to name, but whose breath we dare say is fragrant as the roses of June, and whose cheeks we know have all the bloom of the autumn flowers with which she annually blesses us. May her path ever be strewn with such.

A MONSTER CUCUMBER.—I noticed on Monday the largest Cucumber I ever set eyes upon. Its dimensions are 20 inches long, 14 1-2 inches circumference, and weighs 8 3-4 pounds. It was raised by Uriah Blaisdell, Esq., of this city, in his field, and can be seen at the store of Franklin Ayers, North street. M. D.

☞ We learn that Professor A. P. Clark, formerly of this city, has recently come into the possession of a number of thousand dollars, by the decease of a very near relative in the city of Roxbury. The Professor having seen the rough side of life, can now see the bright side, live on the interest of his money, and be a gentleman. Sich is life.

☞ The Portsmouth Philharmonic Society have voted to provide themselves with a new book for practice—the Operatic Bouquet, copies of which may be had at Montgomery's music store, and we presume elsewhere. Members are requested to furnish themselves with them for the rehearsal this (Tuesday) evening.

☞ Several persons who had neglected to pay their Internal Revenue tax, had the pleasure of attending Deputy Collector Jewell's levee on, Monday, paying an admission fee of twenty cents toward defraying the expenses of the Government.

☞ Gen. Meade arrived in town on Monday evening from Portland.

U. S. MARINE CORPS.—Capt. Philip R. Fendall was detached from headquarters Aug. 10th, and ordered to proceed to New York for duty on board the flag-ship Pensacola as the senior marine officer of the South Pacific Squadron. Detached from the Pensacola 29th, and ordered to Gosport, Va., for duty.

☞ The Buckley Minstrels, the oldest organization of the kind in the country, give a concert at the Temple this evening. Doing away with much of burnt cork, they now strive to furnish more that is really good in a musical line, while still retaining all their choicest Ethiopian comicalities.

☞ Mr. Wendell will sell to day the stock of groceries now in store at No. 36 State Street, corner of Washington.

—— We are pleased to acknowledge from the officers of the Exeter Agricultural and Horticultural Society, the receipt of an invitation to attend their Exhibition at Exeter, Oct. 9th and 10th. Wm. P. Moulton is President, N. A. Shute Secretary.

— In New York city, Sunday morning about 9 o'clock, Cornelius Rottiger, his wife and three daughters, were burned to death by an incendiary fire in a tenement house.

— At Vienna, the cost of the war, including the losses undergone by the neutral countries and the indemnities to be paid, is estimated at £40,000,000.

— A telegram from New Orleans reports that Governor Wells had received information of an alleged attempt to assassinate him during his return from a visit to the Parish of St. Laudry. He avoided the danger by taking a circuitous route.

— The Presidential order refusing admittance to delegations who come to demand changes in the public offices has had the effect to send many home. The President found that all of his time was being occupied by these delegations, and that in many instances he was beseiged by rival ones.

GOLD, Monday, 143 1-2.

☞ Seven persons were killed and 17 wounded, by a collision on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, a few days since.

☞ Multitudes of soldiers (besides many officers) are flocking into Pittsburg to attend the Convention.

☞ The Tribune's special learns from undoubted authority that the President has instructed the Secretaries of the departments to discharge all soldier clerks who shall attend the Pittsburg convention.

[Could anything be more cowardly or contemptible than this]

☞ A Frankfort (Germany) letter of Sept. 6 says Mr. Wright, our Minister at Berlin, and Mr. Murphy, U. S. Consul General at Frankfort, have made a visit to Stuttgart and Carlsruhe to see about the conscription of some American citizens in the armies of Wurtemburg and Baden. They have been naturalized and were on a visit to their aged parents when arrested and put in the ranks. The Department of State at Washington had instructed the Minister at Berlin to examine into the case and demand their release if the facts were as reported. The mission was attended with complete success.

☞ The Soldiers' and Sailors' Union Convention for the State of New York has adjourned, after appointing delegates to the Pittsburgh Convention, and electing Col. McKeon of Saratoga as President. This State meeting was as large as the entire Cleveland Convention, and far more influential.

— Emil Gerralini, who has been in the employ of the secret service of the Treasury Department, searching for counterfeiters, was convicted of robbery in New York, on Thursday and sentenced to the State Prison for twenty years.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fever, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, as if the patient when cured is left as healthy as it he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. Be sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine every where. au29

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

ALL READY FOR THE FALL TRADE

The Best Cook Stove Out!

URIAH BLAISDELL,

No. 43 Market Street,

Offers to his friends and the public the celebrated

KEARSARGE

COOK STOVE,

Which he WARRANTS to have no superior in the market, in each and all of the qualities of a first-class Stove. It is a new Stove, of neat and symmetrical pattern, very heavy castings, well made, of the best of stock, and, what is rare, works equally well with coal or wood.

In getting up this Stove, it was designed, as its name implies, to make it one that could not be surpassed, and it is believed that perfect success in this has been attained. It is a moderate consumer of fuel, heats up very rapidly, and bakes surprisingly quick; requires no shoveling and makes no dust in cleaning out; will keep fire day and night with as much certainty as the best parlor heaters, and is so simply and conveniently arranged in all respects that a child can work it. The demand for it was so great upon its introduction, late last Fall, that the foundry could not keep up a supply, while the sales have since been steadily increasing, and in every case it has given the fullest satisfaction.

A few names, in different localities, of the many purchasers of this Stove, are subjoined, for convenient reference:

SUMMER AND AUTUMN.

The hot mid-summer, the bright mid-summer
Reigns in its glory now;
The earth is scorched with a golden fire,
There are berries, dead ripe, on every brier,
And fruits on every bough.

But the Autumn days, so sober and calm,
Steeped in a dreamy haze;
When the splands all with harvests shine,
And we drink the wind, like a fine cool wine—
Ah those are the best of days!

RICHARD HENRY STODDARD.

— It is well that we have a President who is consistent. What said Mr. Johnson to Gov. Sharkey a year ago? "If you could extend the elective franchise to all persons of color who can read the Constitution of the United States and write their names and to all persons of color who own real estate valued at not less than $250, and pay taxes thereon, you would completely disarm the adversary." Yet the President now opposes the still milder terms of the Constitutional Amendment. Of course his adversaries are undismayed.—Tribune.

DON'T BE EXTRAVAGAFT.—If the poor-house has any terrors for you, never buy what you don't need. Before you pay three cents for a jewsharp, my boy, ascertain whether you cannot make just as pleasant a noise by whistling, for which nature furnishes the machinery; and before you pay seventy-five dollars for a coat, young man, find out whether your lady would not be just as glad to see you in one that cost half the money. If she would not, let her crack her own hazel-nuts and buy her own clothes.—When you see a man spending two or three dollars a week foolishly, the chances are five to one that he'll live long enough to know how many cents there are in a dollar; if he don't he's pretty sure to bequeath that privilege to his widow.—When a man asks you to buy that for which you have no use, no matter how cheap it is, don't say yes until you are sure that some one else wants it in advance. Money burns in some folks' pockets, and makes such a big hole that everything that is put in, drops past finding.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

E. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The fourteen years below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office for the kind has the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during years past, has enabled him to collect the ablest a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the enormous great delay there, are saved, to the usual great delay there, are saved, to the usual great delay there, are saved, to the usual

McARON ON RHEUMATISM.

There are no roses in the wilderness of vines that inclose the piazza of the country house where I write, but an easterly wind of much asperity and virulence, is making itself very much at home there, and whistling like a first class boatswain whose mother was a calliope.

Easily enough this easterly wind brings me to the rheumatism.

It also brings the rheumatism to me.

Did you ever have a red-haired man throw a millstone on your hand, and then bore into your elbow with a centre-bit?

That is the sensation of the inflammatory rheumatism, as performed by me for seven consecutive days and nights.

I had some very fine, eccentric, and humorous ideas, during this period; but when a fellow's right thumb is swollen to the resemblance of a Hamburg sausage, and his fore-finger has a wire run through the bones lengthwise, he is not in good condition to write down even the most brilliant mental scintillations.

Neither is he expert with those frail, unassuming, but potent instruments, the knife and fork.

Buttons, also, at such times, present a formidable resistance, and a razor becomes a vain and impotent toy.

The only thing, in fact, that runs the easier and slides the more vigorously for rheumatism, is profanity.

There is a peculiar twist to the elbow, coupled with simultaneous twinges in the hip and knee, that produce great fluency in that particular.

The remedies that one's friends suggest are by no means the least troublesome portion of the complaint.

One suggests a common horse chestnut or "buck eye," carried in the trousers pocket, as an infallible preventive.

A lady says that an application of cotton batting is a sure thing.

I once knew of a famous cricket-player who was cured of batting by rheumatism, but I never knew that the rule would work both ways.

A third suggestion was that I should be enveloped from head to foot in blue clay, not to be disturbed till it cracked off itself.

This last struck me as a good idea, especially if I were to be placed at the bottom of a pit six feet deep, to be thus enveloped; the hole to be then filled up and a neat headstone erected to mark the place.

I am assured that the clay, under these circumstances, would crack and come off of itself at about the time when Gabriel performs his solo obligato for the trumpet.

These are but invalid conceits; of the rheumatism, rheumatic; but I can hardly do better to-day. This paper is, in fact, the first I have written for nearly a fortnight, and is but a sort of experiment.

Indeed, if it gives you the same pain in the elbow to read it, that it gives me to write it, I sincerely pity you.

But if, as I said, "easy reading is hard writing," this stands a chance of being uncommonly easy of perusal.

I am a little out of humor with Fate, or whatever you may call it, for this shabby treatment. It was rather rough to give a fellow a whole summer of bilious agonies, with no remittances to hope for except remittent fevers, and then to crowd on a crippling rheumatism at the end of it!

It is hard on a fellow's stamina, and constitution and things. The thought of dumb bells makes a weak feeling creep down my back; and when I walk, leaning on my cane, you might take me for some old sport, like Professor Holmes' "Last Leaf."

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1866.

☞ Wilkes' Spirit of the Times goes in for impeaching the President, who we think deserved it long ago. Wilkes says:

* * * We leave to the Congress, which is the only direct representative the People have, the duty of vindicating the country from his falsebloods and his usurpations. It is not true, as he has declared, that Congress has practically prohibited the restoration of the Southern States; and for stating this untruth he deserves to be solemnly arraigned. It is not true that the People of this land have sunk so low, that for a few millions of dollars, and the patronage appertaining to a single bill, he could corrupt them to become his slaves, though he twice has said it; and for thus having degraded the country in the eyes of foreign powers, he deserves to be impeached!

He deserves also to be impeached for the attempt to extend those military attributes of the Executive, which attached only in a state of war, and which inured to him solely during the legislative interregnum, over the Congress when it was in session. He further deserves to be impeached for having accused Congress of concocting and inciting the massacre at New Orleans; for denouncing that co-ordinate branch of the Government as a factious body hanging on its verge; for inflaming the People against the authority of laws passed constitutionally by a two-thirds vote; for usurping the functions of the Supreme Court by declaring those laws to be unconstitutional, in advance of any case, and while all the sanctions of the Constitution bind them upon him and upon the People; for pledging himself to the citizens of St. Louis to veto all the measures of this Congress, without regard to their legality or fitness, whenever they may come before him; and, finally, for endeavoring to corrupt the People and subsidize the Press, by offering the patronage which is entrusted to him by the Constitution for public purposes, as an inducement for their party votes.

While lying is not comprehended by the Constitution as a possible Executive offence, the crime of bribery is, and so long as it remains among the causes for impeachment against the President, his scandalous offers at Philadelphia and St. Louis, should not pass without rebuke. Seductions in the way of office, are as gross as temptations in the way of cash, and when they are offered to promote apostacy, instead of being conferred as legitimate considerations for past usefulness or merit, they should receive all the ignominy of a criminal indictment.

We grant that all this would be very mortifying to the country, but the scandal of a formal Presidential trial and impeachment would not be half so great, as the unspeakable disgrace of permitting, without complaint, a man like Andrew Johnson to denounce the Congress as a treasonous body, and to declare that the American People could be made to sell their liberties for a handfulof patronage and a few millions of dollars. The only thing to be regretted in connection with such proposed impeachment is, that the man who could put this insult upon the American People, could not be impeached out of his nativity, and utterly ignored as an American citizen.

That's the talk—it has the right ring to it. Mr. Johnson has no sort of conception what a Republic is. Instead of his being a paid servant of the sovereign people, he thinks he is their sovereign and owns them and their offices, and that the people and their Congress ought to do his bidding.—Out with the pretender! down with the despot! But never despair of the Republic—it will take more than a Johnson to shake it, whether he be turned out of the office he disgraces, or not.

JEFF. D.—The Tribune's special says the trial of Jeff. Davis cannot take place in October, and its postponement is a legal necessity owning to an irregularity in the adjournment of the Circuit Court at Norfolk in April last. Chief Justice Chase announces himself in readiness to call a special session of the Court and proceed with the trial.

"GIN EDUT."—There is mourning and lamentation among the disciples of King Gambrinus in New York, the supply of lager beer having giving out, and no worthy substitute having been furnished. Sundry of the beer-shops have been compelled to shut up for lack of the fluid.

— The New York Times now recommends the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment.

— Ex-Governor Washburn of Worcester has given $500 for the erection of the Payson Memorial Church at Portland, Me.

— A conference of the pastors and delegates of American Unitarian churches will be held at Syracuse, New York, October 9.

— A calculation in one of the Macon journals estimates that it will require 15,000,000 bushels of corn to supply the deficiency in Georgia the next season.

— Westminster, Md., was visited with another remarkable hail storm on Friday of last week. Two thousand panes of glass were broken.

— It is stated that in all the cases for treason where bills have been found in the United States Courts of Kentucky, nolle prosequis have been entered.

— Messrs. A. & W. Sprague of Providence have made very extensive purchases of land and water power at South Windham, Conn., and vicinity, with the view of establishing a great manufacturing enterprise there.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Fremont next Sunday.

—— John Huse, of Manchester, died of lockjaw on Thursday night, from injuries received while blasting stone the week previous.

—— At Newmarket, a fire broke out Sunday morning, at daylight, in the magazine under the counting room of the Newmarket Manufacturing Company, in some waste left there for inspection. Owing to the promptness of the citizens it was arrested in its progress before any damage of consequence.

—— A correspondent of the News Letter, writing from Nottingham, says:—

On Monday week, Hon. Judge Butler had an ox shot by some villain. A few days since he caught a sheap stealer cutting the throat of a fine ewe. In one of the mountain pastures an ox-hide was recently found, giving evidence of having been taken from the animal. About ten days ago, Mr. Moses Noyes, of Deerfield, was called to his door about midnight by "a friend." As Mr Noyes opened the door, a pistol was discharged in his face, the ball lodging in an inner casing. Mr. Noyes shut the door and the assassin fled.

—— The Robinson Fund, in Exeter, is likely to yield about $200,000.

This ample fund, which proves to be fourfold what the testator expected, at the time of making his will, is to be used for the purpose of purchasing real estate, constructing buildings, providing books and apparatus, and with the income of the remainder, defraying the salaries of teachers and other expenses of maintaining an institution of learning of a high character for females.

It would seem to be wise, to have professors and tutors selected, suitable rooms rented, for the present, and the School began, without waiting two years for building.

☞ Marshal Bazaine notified the "brokers" of Vera Cruz that if they did not at once build four block houses on the railroad line to Paso del Macho, at their own expense, he would withdraw the troops now stationed along the line as guards. The merchants, not liking to be called "brokers," and knowing what is going on in another direction, plainly told the Marshal to withdraw his troops, as they did not care whether the road was guarded or not.

☞ At Memphis, Tennessee, Sept. 24, Adolphus Bernard, ticket agent of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company, absconded with nearly $10,000 of the Company's funds. He was followed to Chicago by detectives, brought back, and committed for trial in the Criminal Court. He pleads wine and women as the cause of his dishonesty.

☞ A Louisville, Ky., dispatch of the 24th, says, Major Gen. Jeff. C. Davis will to-morrow send a Commission of officers to Gallatin county, Ky. to investigate the facts relative to the recent arrest of Dr. Ferris and detention of the mail steamer General Buel.

☞ Beadle's Monthly for October, has an illustrated article on Montana and Idaho, by Albert D. Richardson, and a variety of interesting reading. Published by Beadle & Co., New York. Batchelder has it, in this city.

☞ The Eclectic Magazine for August, has fine steel portrait of Cyrus W. Field, and a table of contents including selections from most of the European periodicals.—W. H. Bidwell, publisher, New York.

A LITTLE REBELLION IN TEXAS.—The N. Y. Tribune has the following dispatch dated New Orleans, Monday, September 24th:

The Tyler (Texas) Reporter of the 12th inst. says that a detachment of United States troops under command of Capt. Tupper were fired into by an Arkansian who was not aware that the war was over. Official information received from Brenham, Texas, shows that place to be in a state of insurrection.

The citizens are all armed and patrol the streets to prevent the soldiers from coming into town. The Mayor or Sherriff is reported to have telegraphed to the Adjutant General of the State to know how many men he could furnish to drive off the Yankees.

A reply is said to have been received offering 500 men well armed and more if necessary. The officer in command of the detachment of United States troops, numbering about 60 men, has entrenched and otherwise fortified his position after receiving a large supply of ammunition from Galveston.

He expressed confidence in being able to withstand an attack. Gen. Sheridan left for the scene of action on the morning of the 12th.

☞ The Boston Journal's Washington special of Sunday says:

Messrs. L. E. Dudley and W. A. Short, prominent members of the Soldiers' League of this city and employees of the Treasury Department, who have been active promoters of the Pittsburg Convention, were yesterday refused leave of absence to attend its sessions. They thereupon left without leave. It is probable they will be dismissed in consequence. Last week ten days' leave was granted to an employee of the same Department to attend the Cleveland Convention.

☞ John Crowley, an Irishman about 60 years old, was found drowned at Bristol, R. I., last week. The drowning is supposed to have been accidental.

PITTSBURG SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.—Under date of Sept. 14, the Boston Journal's special (Perley) writes:

In addition to the numerous delegations arriving by the railroads which centre here, others come on the Ohio, Alleghany and Monongahela rivers in steamboats, on board of which they will reside during the Convention. The citizens are opening their houses and continuing that loyal hospitality which prompted to furnish during the war over half a million of meals to passing soldiers, and to tenderly care for nearly seventy thousand sick and wounded.—Accommodations have been provided at the Sanitary Soldiers' Home for any of the "Boys in blue" who may be taken sick or whose old wounds may break out afresh.

Prominent among the loyal ladies who are interesting themselves in the convention is Mrs. Cook, who had six sons in the war. Two of them fell fighting at Gaines' Mills, and another died a languishing death in the pen at Andersonville.

Among the prominent arrivals are Gen. Cox, now Governor of Ohio; Gen. Ferry, now Senator from Connecticut; Gen. Barlow, now Secretary of State of New York; and Gen. Geary, who is to be the next Governor of Pennsylvania. Gen. Banks is expected as a guest at the residence of Ex-Gov. Moorhead, who now represents this district in Congress.

On Thursday there is to be a grand procession, officered by the most distinguished of the delegates.

The Pittsburg Convention is not out and dried, as the Cleveland gathering was.

On Monday, prominent among the delegations was one from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union of Washington City which originated this Convention. The mover and chief engineer is Mr. L. Edwin Dudley, formerly of the 13th Massachusetts, but more recently a clerk in the Internal Revenue Bureau of the Treasury Department. When Mr. Dudley asked for a leave of absence to come there he was summarily dismissed, and a "policy" man appointed in place. So much for starting a Union Convention.

From Maine we have Gen. Hamlin; from New Hampshire, Gen. Harriman; and from Massachusetts, a strong delegation. A large meeting has been held in the open air, and Gen. Harriman of New Hampshire has made an effective and eloquent speech, in which he reviewed the past, and pointed out what is to be done in the future.

☞ The Alden patent Type-Setting Machine is attracting world-wide attention; and the wonderful manual of its manufacture, &c., and the author, Mr. Charles C. Yeaton formerly of this city, are thus referred to in a long and able review by Wilkes' Spirit:

Mr. Yeaton is a native of New Hampshire, and figures as one of the self-made men of whom the old Granite State has so much reason to be proud. He is still young—scarce over thirty, though with a reputation already achieved which places him in the front rank of the mechanical and financial organizers of his age. In his success all the journals of the country are interested; and it has given them pleasure to observe his indomitable perseverance and inexhaustible fertility of resource, overcoming all physical impediments as they were developed from time to time in the progress of the machine, and the not less serious obstacles arising from the misconceptions of the devotees of the hand-labor system of setting and distributing type. His temperament is of that order in which perfect calm is blended with inexorable purpose, his mind doing all its work quietly but ceaselessly, and with an irresistible faith in its own capacity to achieve whatsoever it may aim at. Only by such a mind could such a volume as the one before us have been prepared; and only by the mind capable of preparing such a volume, could the unfinished and crude, though beautiful discovery of Timothy Alden, have been carried forward to its present condition of recognized completeness and supremacy, as the greatest practical triumph of our country and age.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—The Evening Post says that there is not a shadow of a doubt of Governor Fenton's re-election, and that letters from men in every precinct familiar with public sentiment, show that the St. Lawrence Congressional district promises 8000 majority; the Cattaraugus district promises to exceed that; the Steuben district promises over 6000; the Tioga and Tompkins district 5000; the Cayuga district the same or more; the Onondaga district 5000 more; the Oneida district 500 better than ever before; while the democratic counties will hardly rise above the Siocum majorities of last year.

OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.—The report of General Sheridan's Military Commission on the New Orleans riots, accompanied by the testimony, has reached the President's table. The report itself covers nearly seventy-five pages of foolscap, and the testimony is very voluminous. The pressure of business upon the President is so great that its examination is likely to be postponed some days.

[So says a Washington item:—and we suppose the President would be quite willing to postpone it till after Pennsylvania election—or forever, if that were possible.]

— Formerly Jews were altogether excluded from the interior of Russia. The Emperor has greatly modified the restrictions, in order to facilitate Jewish immigration. The consequence is a considerable influx of Jews into the government of Kieff, most of whom devote themselves to agricultura.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE.

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all doubt PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Traveling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, Jr., Minister of the Gospel.

POLICE COURT.—In the absence of Judge Odell, M. Bafford, Associate Justice, dispensed the following favors to those attending his receptions:

Sept. 21.—John Hanscom and George E. Robinson, being found intoxicated, were allowed to depart on complying with the assessment of $6.86 made upon each of them.

Sept. 22.—John Hanscom, not having learned wisdom of his yesterday's experience, was again called upon to disburse $6.86, for a repetition of his offence.

Geo. Woodsum, on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, was considered not guilty, and was discharged.

Sept. 24.—John White, for rude and disorderly conduct on Congress street, was fined $2 and costs $3.86.

Tuesday, Sept. 25.—Act 1—Scene 1.

From the regions of the lowly
Comes a sound both sad and loud—
Catharine Reydey, (lately Crowley)
By her action draws a crowd.
(enter policeman.)
Cath'rine Reyday, she the strengthy
Visits (on) David blow on blow,
From the land where shillelahs flourish
There she learned to do just so.
(Note, David'sOther name is Berry.)
Pounded, pummelled, beaten, sore,
David can resist no more.
(Exit policeman and Catharine.)

Act 2—Scene 2.

Before Judge Bafford,
Said Catharine Reydey in consequence of
The wounds she inflicted,
Which wounds were not healthy wounds,
Nor easily mended,
Nor patiently received,
Nor properly appreciated,
Nor given with any intention of being so!
Mended,
Received and Appreciated—
Was fined ten seventy-four, ($10.74.)

Charles Abrams, brawl and tumult, $7 80.

☞ A brakeman named Littlefield, belonging in Wells, Me., while walking on the top of one of the cars of the up freight train from Portland to this city, on Monday evening, was struck by the bridge east of South Berwick, and knocked down in the next car—an open one filled with cattle. He was seriously injured by the blow and fall, and had one of his legs broken by the cattle trampling upon him.

☞ The gas light of the city was suddenly shut off, last Sunday night, about 10 o'clock. This was done to ensure safety. The gas holder had caught in the Guide Posts, a sheet of iron having split, and the gas escaping,—the only effectual remedy at that time was to stop all operations at once.

Communication.

☞ Will some one inform us if there has been any movement on the part of our citizens in regard to holding a course of Lyceum Lectures this season? As the long evenings are fast drawing near, measures should be immediately taken to secure the best public speakers in season, and, let us have a course of ten good lectures this coming fall and winter. Will not some person make a move in this matter, and see if it cannot be done? T.

☞ See the advertisement of the Moonlight Excursion in the steamer Pioneer, for this evening, with music by Portsmouth Cornet Band,—for Benefit of Mr. Chas. D. Perry, Engineer. If the weather is unfavorable, the excursion will be made on the first pleasant evening hereafter.

☞ Thirteen genuine Negro Minstrels are advertised to appear in a Minstrel Concert at the Temple this evening. The notices in the papers, published where they have played and sung, give them credit as musicians,—and of course they give the negro character to the life, as no imitation or caricature darkies can do.

PURE WINES.—The list of New Hampshire's productions is rapidly increasing. Gold, silver, and other mineral treasures are disemboweled from our hilly districts, and one man recently feared he had "struck ile" in this State. Now, the vineyards of the Rhine are to lose our custom. Mr. S. G. Clark, of Sandwich, is manufacturing large quantities of native wines—Blackberry, Elderberry, Grape, and Cider wines,—and Mr. John Hodgdon, 2d, of this city, can furnish those wishing these varieties, with a pure article, bottled by himself.

☞ Dr. Chas. H. Swett of Kennebunk, was poisoned with morphine and died on Sunday night. His wife was arrested for the crime on Monday.

☞ The American Life Drops, and other medicines, advertised by Orrin Skinner & Co., which have received so favorable a verdict from the public, are for sale at Thacher's drug stores.

GOLD, Tuesday, 144 1-2.

MR. NORTON THE "SOUTHERN LOYALIST."—The Albany Evening Journal says the H. G. Norton, who telegraphed to the Cleveland Convention that he had "left the loyal Southerners and would be in Cleveland the next day to expose them," is not a loyal Southron at all, so far as known, and is not recognized by any of that party, though he tried to attach himself to it. He succeeded in making the Albany Democrats think he had been abused, however, and they took up a collection and furnished him with a basket of cold victuals, after which he suddenly disappeared.

☞ At Nashville, Tennessee, Sept. 24, there were 70 deaths from cholera.

☞ Mexican Liberal officers are at odds among themselves,—and the Emperor's throne is a shaky institution.

☞ The State of Oregon has ratified the proposed Amendment of the U. S. Constitution.

☞ The Canadians are alarmed by an apprehended Fenian invasion, and fear that Toronto will be captured or burnt by them.

☞ General Sheridan has left New Orleans on a tour of inspection through Texas. He denies having forwarded a report of the situation in Louisiana and Texas.

☞ A locomotive engine blew up Monday morning, in an engine house at Phillipsburg, N. J., destroying the building and other property: damage, $50,000.

☞ Geo. W. Gray, alias Williams, one of the burglars who escaped from the Massachusetts Constables at Chelsea, has been caught in New York, and brought to Boston. He confesses many thefts.

— Mr. Wm. Cameron of Petersburg, Virginia, just returned from abroad, brought home a pair of ostriches, which he turned loose upon his lawn. The Index says, "two interesting colored children and several pigs" are missing since.

— The Norwich Bulletin of Friday says it is understood that the commission of Joseph G. Lamb, Democrat, as Assessor of internal revenue for the 3d district has been revoked. Jesse S. Ely, Republican, has been ordered to continue in the discharge of the duties of the office. The appointment of Lamb was a dose which the Johnson Republicans of Connecticut objected to swallow.

— During a recent performance at Niblo's an unmannerly fellow took a standing place directly in front of Horace Greely. The mild philosopher, as the story goes, patted the intruder on the shoulder with his white hat, and gently said: "If anything entertaining occurs on the stage, will you please describe it to me? for you see, my dear sir, that at present I must totally depend upon your kindness."

— A human skull was lately found in Calaveras county, California, at the depth of one hundred and fifty feet, in what is known by geologists as the pliocene formation. This discovery is thought to establish the fact that man existed on this planet countless ages before the time designated by any of our traditions respecting his first appearance here. According to former theories of geologists the world was not habitable by man at the period to which they assign the skull.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

ALL READY FOR THE FALL TRADE.

The Best Cook Stove Out!

URIAH BLAISDELL,

No. 43 Market Street,

Offers to his friends and the public the celebrated

KEARSARGE

COOK STOVE,

Which he WARRANTS to have no superior in the market, in each and all of the qualities of a first-class Stove. It is a new Stove, of neat and symmetrical pattern, very heavy castings, well made, of the best of stock, and, what is rare, works equally well with coal or wood.

In getting up this Stove, it was designed, as its name implies, to make it one that could not be surpassed, and it is believed that perfect success in this has been attained. It is a moderate consumer of fuel, heats up very rapidly, and bakes surprisingly quick; requires no shoveling and makes no dust in cleaning out; will keep fire day and night with as much certainty as the best parlor heaters, and is so simply and conveniently arranged in all respects that a child can work it. The demand for it was so great upon its introduction, late last Fall, that the foundry could not keep up a supply, while the sales have since been steadily increasing, and in every case it has given the fullest satisfaction.

A few names, in different localities, of the many purchasers of this Stove, are subjoined, for convenient reference:

THE DIFFERENCE.

BY HIRAM RICH.

Men lose their ships, the eager things,
To try their luck at sea,
But none can tell by note or count
How many there may be.
One taketh East, another South—
They never come again—
And then we know they must have sunk,
But neither how nor when.

God sends his happy birds abroad—
"They're less than ships," say we;
No moment passes but he knows
How many there should be.
One buildeth high, another low,
With just a bird's light care—
If only one, perchance, doth fall,
God knoweth when and where.

[Round Table.

HOW TO PREVENT A DIVORCE.—When the senior Jonathan Trombull was Governor of Connecticut, a gentleman called at his house, requesting to see his excellency in private. Accordingly he was shown into sanctum sanctorum: and the Governor came forward to meet Squire W., saying, "Good morning sir; I am glad to see you." Squire W., returned the salutation, adding as he did so, "I have called upon a very unpleasant errand, sir, and want your advice. My wife and I do not live happily together, and I am thinking of getting a divorce.—What do you advise, sir?"

The Governor sat a few moments in deep thought, then turning to Squire W., said: "How did you treat Mrs. W. when you were courting her? and how did you feel towards her at the time of your marriage?" Squire W. replied, "I treated her as kindly as I could, for I loved her dearly at that time." "Well, sir," said the Governor, "go home and court her now just as you did then, and love her as when you married her. Do this in the fear of God for one year, and then tell me the result." The Governor then said, "Let us pray." They bowed in prayer and separated. When a year had passed away, Squire W. called again to see the Governor, and grasping his hand, said: "I have called, sir, to thank you for the good advice you gave me, and to tell you that my wife and I are as happy as when first we were married. I cannot be grateful enough for your good counsel."—"I am glad to hear it, Mr. W., and hope that you will continue to court your wife as long as you live." The result was that Squire W. and his wife lived happily together to the end of life. Let those who are thinking of separation in these days, go and do likewise.

— The Denver News says that intense indignation has been aroused among the people of Colorado by the action of Gov. Cummings in giving a certificate of election to Mr. Hunt, the Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress, when Mr. Chillicotte, the Radical candidate, received 1008 majority according to the official returns.

— Perfection has been obtained, through art, science and experience, in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, as every lady who has tested it universally exclaims, "There's nothing like it." THE EFFECT OF MARRIAGE.—Doubtless you have remarked with satisfaction how the little oddities of men who marry rather late in life are pruned away speedily after their marriage. You have found a man who used to be shabbily and carelessly dressed, with a huge shirt-collar frayed at the edges, and a glaring yellow silk pocket-handkerchief, broken of these things, and become a pattern of neatness. You have seen a clergymen who wore a long beard, in a little while appear without one. You have seen a man who used to sing ridiculously sentimental songs leave them off. You have seen a man who took snuff, abandon the vile habit. You have seen a man whose hair and whiskers were ridiculously cut, speedily become like other human beings.

A wife is the grand wielder of the moral pruning-knife. If Johnson's wife had lived, there would have been no boarding up of bits of orange peel; no touching all the posts in walking along the street; no eating and drinking with a disgusting voracity. If Oliver Goldsmith had been married, he would never have worn that memorable and ridiculous coat. Whenever you find a man whom you know little about, oddly dressed, or talking ridiculously, or exhibiting any eccentricity of manner, you may be tolerably sure that he is not a married man. For the little corners are rounded off, the little shoots are pruned away, in married men. Wives generally have much more sense than their husbands, especially when the husbands are clever men. The wife's advices are like the ballast that keeps the ship steady. They are like the wholesome, though painful, shears snipping off little growths of self-conceit and folly.—Fraser's Magazine.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Reissues, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
JOHN DUBOIS,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him for securing their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1866.

COLONIZING IN PHILADELPHIA.—We learn that there is to be a strong effort made to defeat the re-election of Wm. D. Kelly, the radical candidate for Congress from Philadelphia. To this end six vessels have been ordered to the Navy Yard "for repairs," and the force has been ordered to be increased to five thousand. The arsenal there is being packed with employees, the expection being to "colonize" enough votes to defeat Mr. Kelly.—Ex.

[Such rascality deserves impeachment and the penitentiary. It may perhaps be successful in this particular district—and perhaps not. But it must and will damage, on a larger scale, the miserable man that plans it.]

☞ The New York Times continues to denounce its late Democratic allies, and says it is very evident that the public mind dreads the renewed ascendancy of the democratic party more than it does the continued exclusion of the Southern States. It truthfully adds:

What the Democratic party would do if fully reinstated in power—by what definite action it would damage the future of the nation—those who dread it most might not be able to say. But there is no difficulty whatever in feeling that the party which opposed the government during the war ought not to assume control of it when the war is over. The instinct of the country is that those who stood by it during its time of peril should have charge of its fortunes when the danger has passed.

☞ The report of the Inspector of the Freedmen's Schools in the District of Columbia gives many remarkable facts regarding the educational progress of the negro youth of Washington. There are now in the schools 6552 pupils, in charge of 132 teachers. Nearly two thousand of the pupils have progressed as far as geography, arithmetic and grammar. In the above are not included eight or ten private and academical schools, which are taught by colored teachers, nor twelve night schools, twenty-two Sabbath schools, and eight schools of industry, which have an aggregate of 3471 pupils.

☞ Hon. John W. Forney is out in a full denial of the charge made in the Intelligencer that he has lately declared in a public speech that if the South refuses to ratify the Constitutional amendment "a war will come which would establish the fact that that which has just passed was but a child's play or as a picnic to that which will come." Mr. Forney says that this extract purporting to come from his speech is a base fraud.

☞ At Washington, Sept. 25, was held a meeting of claim agents to express their indignation at the ruling of the Paymaster General, which practically prevents them from collecting the bounties authorized at the last session of Congress. The Paymaster General decides that as the bounty is a gratuity, not a debt, the Government has the right to prescribe how and to whom it shall be paid.

☞ Mr. H. G. Norton writes to the Chicago Tribune: "The reports in the different papers saying that I sent a dispatch to Cleveland, stating that I had left the loyal Southerners and was going to expose them, is a base lie. I have never left the loyal men of the South, and God forbid I should; and as for exposing, I have nothing to expose, for they do all their work openly."

☞ From San Francisco, we learn that Queen Emma of the Sandwich Islands, has arrived there; that the Mexican Liberals have defeated the Imperial garrison at Mazatlan, and now holds the place; and that steamer Continental, going in there, was seized by the Liberals with 3000 stands of arms.

☞ There was a rain-storm at Pittsburg, Wednesday,—nevertheless, the "Boys in Blue" were stirring about town, and the Convention was crowded. Gen. Benj. F. Butler is Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions.

☞ It is said that 150 persons have been killed by hostile Indians, recently, between Laramie and Powder River,—and trains have been attacked in other directions on the overland route.

☞ Mr. Vallandigham, in a recent speech, asserted that Major Gen. Jno. Ewing, jr., who figured before the Cleveland Soldiers' Convention, was the author of the terms of Sherman's treaty with Johnson, and that the President had confessed to him (Vallandigham) that he had never acted, and did not intend to act with the Republican-Union party. We cannot say that either of these revelations is astounding, nor are we the least surprised that Mr. Johnson or Mr. Ewing, jr., make Vallandigham their confessor.—Tribune.

— A midshipman asked a priest to tell him the difference between a priest and a jackass. The priest gave it up. "One wears a cross on his back and the other on his breast." "Now," said the priest, "tell me the difference that there is between a midshipman and a jackass?" The midshipman gave it up, and asked what it was. The priest said he did not know of any.

— Governor Wells of New Orleans denies the statement that he indorses the President's policy.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Ruth Williams, aged 76, of Sutton, has lately given five dollars to each of the Volunteers who enlisted from that town.

—— Rev. Mr. Barrows, of North Hampton, has asked a dismission from the Pastoral Charge of the Congregational Church and Society in that place;—and a Council is to consider the case.

—— Israel Fuller, of Nashua, made a murderous assault on a policeman who attempted to arrest him on Thursday, for brawl and tumult. Fuller fired a pistol, but did not hit, and then struck the policeman with a slung shot. F. is supposed to be insane.

—— On Wednesday forenoon Wolfeboro' was visited by a very heavy blow accompanied by a great fall of rain. Several chimneys and trees were blown down. Many apple trees were damaged, fences prostrated and things stirred up pretty generally.

—— Mrs. Warren, of Wolfeboro', while rising from bed on Tuesday morning, was suddenly seized with dizziness of the head; the bed being located in a chamber near a flight of a stairs, she fell down the stairs on the floor of the room below, fracturing both arms and a rib, and badly injuring the shoulder, face and head—producing entire helplessness and unconsciousness for awhile.

—— The New Hampshire removals and appointments are now under consideration at Washington. A dispatch says that the contest for the Manchester Post Office lies between Mayor Hosley and Coughlin. It is the most important and lucrative in the State. The delegation had an interview with the President Tuesday, and while urging removals and appointments in the State, petitioned for the removal of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Chandler, who is from New Hampshire, and united with the Massachusetts delegation to solicit the appointment of Wm. Aspinwall of Boston.

☞ The resolutions adopted at the recent Republican State Convention of Minnesota indorse the Constitutional amendment, thank the soldiers, and declare that the late action of Congress giving additional bounties has only partially discharged the Government's duty to its heroic defenders, and urge that further and more full justice be done them. The following also was included:

"Resolved, That we join in the demand that the loyal men of all the States that defended and preserved the National Government shall dictate the terms on which traitors and rebellious States shall participate in the Government."

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for October, is solid rather than brilliant. It has a political Indian legend, by T. B. Aldrich, among its contents.

Bright and sparkling, "Our Young Folks," for October, "can not fail to please the little ones, for whom it is designed. Ticknor & Fields, publishers, Boston.

FRICTION MATCHES have more to do with the well-being of human matches than we are apt to suppose. A quaint writer thus descants upon the subject:

Have you no recollection of attempting to make a fire, of a cold morning thirty years ago, with the aid of the only then existing means of ignition, a tinder-box with flint and steel? Can you remember that when you were most anxious to be quick about it, the tinder would invariably be damp, or the rags only half charred, and the sharp flint oftener strike your benombed fingers than the steel; and when you did make a bit in the right direction, the sparks would be seen to fly off in the wrong direction, and land outside the tinder-box, until you were ready to despair or to go into the next neighbor's and borrow a shovel-full of live coals (an opportunity for a little neighborly gossip not unfrequent in those days). Or suppose you were more fortunate, and at last a happy spark happened to catch the tinder; your next process was to apply a small stick of pine timber, five to eight inches long, with half an ounce, more or less, of brimstone attached to the end of it; your chance then must have been a favorable one, if you were not half-suffocated by the fumes of the brimstone before you could obtain oxygenated flame enough to light your candle. Does not the remembrance of these light trials of former days cause us to bless the man who invented friction matches? His name deserves to be enrolled among the benefactors of his race, side by side with that army of thinkers who have contributed to free mankind from the fears and fumes of brimstone. The friction match has opened wider the doors to that great reservoir of heat that shall help regenerate the world.

Latent repositories! into what commotion would the world be precipitated were you to retire to former obscurity, or become one of the lost arts? How should a poor man light his pipe of comfort, the shivering soldier the fire of his bivouac? What a wave of strange, uncomfortable humor would roll around the earth each morning! The world has adopted thee, and, like a recovered invalid, it has forgotten the discomforts of the past, and fails to appreciate how much the condition of man is improved by a friction match.

— The Postmaster at Amsterdam, Montgomery county, N. Y., whose three sons, son-in-law and brother-in-law fought in the Union army during the whole rebellion, has been removed from office and an unconditional Breckinridge Democrat appointed. In Portsmouth two men have been dismissed from the Navy Yard for attending the Southern Loyalists' Convention.—Exchange.

☞ The New York Herald's Washington correspondence says that recent political events and signs have had such an effect upon the President that correspondence has been opened with the Governors of the lately rebellious States as to the propriety, in view of the probable success of the radicals in the North, of ratifying the constitutional amendment, and the Governors of South Carolina and Alabama have already replied signifying a readiness to assemble the Legislatures of their States and recommend the adoption of the amendment, if the President adjudges it expedient to do so, or to co-operate with him in whatever course he may deem it advisable to pursue. [Doubtful.]

SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.—At Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 25, Gen. Negley called the Convention to order at noon. Prayer was offered by Gen. Moody, formerly Colonel of the 74th Ohio Regiment. A choir of 100 ladies sang the "Star Spangled Banner," the delegates joining in the chorus. Gen. Barlow of New York then read the call under which the Convention assembled. Edwin Dudley, a private soldier of the 13th Massachusetts Regiment, was made temporary Chairman.

Gen. Cox, Governor of Ohio, is the President, and there are two Vice Presidents from each State—among them General Hamlin and Sergeant George Robinson of Maine; General Harriman and General A. F. Hopkins of New Hampshire; Lieut. Colonel W. G. Ripley and Colonel Redfield Proctor of Vermont; General Banks and Private James M. Bronson of Massachusetts; General Charles H. Tompkins and Sergeant Benoni Carpenter of Rhode Island, and Generals L e and Greeley of Connecticut.

Among the Secretaries are Maj. Duncan and Capt. Clark of N. H. On the committee on Resolutions, Generals Harriman and Duncan.

Several resolutions were presented and referred to the Committee, but not until they had been read for the Dixie Doolittle gag rule is not enforced here.

It was also decided, after an animated debate, not to the have any address, but a complete platform, to consist of a pertinent series of resolutions.

A torch light procession, and grand illuminations, took place in the evening.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Sept. 26.—The arrival of troops in this vicinity has given rise to an exaggerated rumor of intended concentration of a large military force of from 25,000 to 30,000 men at this point. The fact is that the number of soldiers for some months past has averaged only from 2000 to 3000 men, and that several companies of the 12th Infantry and a few other regular troops have been recently ordered here; the aggregate being less than the usual assignment to headquarters of a department. It is presumed that the whole number in this city, when arrangements are completed, will not exceed 5000 men.

The Boston Herald's correspondence of the 24th says:

The President has been so overrun with office-seekers during the week just ended that he has naturally enough lost his patience and on yesterday refused to see any delegations. There are, of course, a good many removals going on, but they do not approach the demand for the same. Out of five thousand office-holders in Pennsylvania not more than fifteen hundred have been removed thus far. For the week ending yesterday but one hundred and fifty postmasters were removed throughout the whole country. The slow working of the guillotine causes a good deal of disappointment, and there was quite an exodus of delegations on yesterday.

GEN. LOGAN AND THE PRESIDENT.—A Washington correspondent gives the following incident which happened in that city recently:

"A little incident related of Gen. Logan and the President will well illustrate the passionate determination of the latter.—When Logan was here last, he called at the White House and obtained a private interview with Mr. Johnson. It was a couple of days before he spoke in denunciation of the Presidential course. The Illinois soldier exportulated with the Tennessee executive as to the policy of the latter, assuring him of his mistake, and declaring the people generally opposed to his policy. This the President doubted. Gen. Logan, with friendly but emphatic language, assured him that the West was determined that the South should not come back except on their terms. The West would not submit to less. 'By God!' was Mr. Johnson's inclent reply, 'I will make them. They shall submit.' 'Mr. President, they won't do it,' said Gen. Logan, 'not even if in resisting the attempt they have to hang you and Jeff. Davis on the same tree.' Of course, the interview was abruptly terminated. Andrew Johnson continues his attempt at the consummation of 'my policy,' and John A. Logan is at work on the prairies rousing the people with that sense of danger which the accidental President has contrived to arouse in the breast of every earnest man with whom he has come in contact."

☞ It seems there are to be two State Conventions in Boston on the 3d of October. The first is called by the "National Union Committee," which is composed of four Democrats and one Johnsonized Republican (Josiah Dunham,) and is to meet at 12 o'clock. The other is to be held at 4 P. M., and is called by Moses Bates, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee. The same delegates will compose both Conventions, and the effort to get up two separate organizations (says the Boston Journal,) is a farce which will amuse but not deceive the people.

— There are thirty-two foreign newspapers printed in New York.

— It is said that there is scarcely a member of the French Court who does not owe more than he can by any sacrifice possibly pay. Dissipation and extravagance.

— Wheat is so scarce in Lynchburg, Va., that the mills are doing absolutely nothing. The total receipts since the opening of the season are estimated not to exceed three thousand bushels.

— Rev. Dr. Noah Porter, who for sixty years has been pastor of the Congregational Church at Farmington, Connecticut, his only pastorate, died on Monday at the age of 84.

— It is reported that a duel is to take place between Colonel John Tyler, the son of the late President Tyler, and H. Rives Pollard, editor of the Richmond Examiner. The difficulty arises out of a political controversy.

— Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; nay wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 17

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. Hygienic Wine has a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Langour, by gently refreshing and illuminating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE. In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are very very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the tender or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, reliable and harmless.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, I saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy; one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

☞ The spacious and elegant mansion of Clement March, Esq., in Greenland, came very near being destroyed by fire, on Tuesday evening. It was kindled in the cellar, from the gasolene, with which the house is lighted, and was discovered about 8 o'clock, when the cellar was full of flame, presenting a spectacle of danger and difficulty as viewed from the outside, through the windows. Help was promptly on hand however, and the fire was subdued, but not till it had burned through the dining-room floor. Mr. Jonathan Ladd who is employed on the farm, being an energetic and powerful man, contributed largely to the safety of the house and its contents, braving the dangerous element, and working with a determined will; and deserves the thanks of both owner and insurers. The premises were insured.

POLICE COURT.—John Gordon and Wm. McDonough, loaded themselves too heavily with fire-water, and as an overload causes a gun to kick back when fired, so this overdose of stimulant recalcitrated upon these gentlemen, and they were brought before His Honor, Justice Bufford, upon a charge of willful intoxication. The usual penalty of $3 fine and $3.86 costs, was imposed upon each.

[Acting upon the time-honored axiom that "It is never well to do to-day that which we can do to-morrow," this reporter put on a "sub" to report yesterday's proceedings. And a pretty mess he made of it—dram-atizing a drunken quarrel, which we should scruple to acknowledge if we thought it made an ounce of difference who fathered the production without a grain of sense. A wreath of immortelles, beautifully bound with bed-ticking and stuffed with horse-hair, was presented this rival of Shakespeare, on Wednesday.]

MURDER AND ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE IN KENNEBUNK.—On Sunday morning last Dr. C. M. Sweat, of Kennebunk, died from the effects of morphine administered by his wife. The Dr. until within a few years has always sustained a good character, but in that time he had taken to drinking, and on Sunday morning he had a bottle of whiskey hid in the hay in his barn, which he had visited two or three times before the family were up. His wife sent a little girl to find the bottle, which she found and handed to Mrs. Sweat, who poured some powder into the bottle, and after shaking it, sent the girl to replace it in the hay. Shortly after the Dr. went to the barn for a few moments and came in, after which he helped his wife about making the fire, and then went and sat down on the sofa, where he soon fell asleep, never to wake. His wife, after finding that he could not be awakened, took a large dose of morphine for the purpose of killing herself, but was discovered in season to prevent death. Mrs. Sweat, we understand, had given her husband morphine two or three times previously, which had made him sick, and it was for that purpose, she says, the last dose was intended. The case will be brought before the Grand Jury at the present term.—Saco Dem.

THE CHOLERA AT NASHVILLE.—The cholera was raging so badly at Nashville last week that a panic prevailed. Business was suspended, and the trains were loaded with people fleeing from the city. The scourge is confined to no particular class—high and low suffer alike.

— In Greenfield, Conn., last Saturday, Zalman Bradley, eighty years of age, saw an eagle sitting on a fence near him, and threw a stone at it, hitting it on the head and wounded it so severely that it died in a few moments. It measured over five feet from tip to tip.

— English newspapers do not consider American news worth paying the Cable price for. They wait for the steamers as before.

— The editor of the Farmington (Me.) Chronicle, having lost his official head by removal from the office of postmaster of that village, congratulates himself that in view of such an accident he had already taken out a policy in the "Travelers' Insurance Company." He said he insured in the Travelers' Company because he foresaw that the nature of his accident might compel him to travel.

— "Mr. White, will you have the kindness to lend me ten dollars?" "Certainly, upon one condition." "Name it." "That you tell me why your request is like the back of my neck?" "I must give it up." "Well, it is because I can't see it."

GOLD, Wednesday, 144 1-2.

— New York is said to rank third among the German cities of the world.

— The Virginia farmers are making molasses from water-melon juice.

— The present style of hoops reveals the posts of many a swinging gait.

— How may a man be know from a fatigued dog? One wears a shirt, the other pants.

— Why is a selfish friend like letter P? Because, though he is the first in pity, he is the last in help.

— Why should young ladies make good rifle volunteers? Because they are accustomed to "bare arms."

— An old lady, who recently visited Oneida, N. Y., was asked, on her return, if the canal passed through that village. She paused awhile, and answered: "I guess not. I didn't see it, and if I did it must have gone through in the night when I was asleep."

— A man was lately invited to a dinner, and a dish of ice-cream was placed before him. It was a new dish to him. He tasted it, then beckoned to the waiter, and said audibly, "That is very good pudding, but do you know it's froze?"

— Some of the ladies may be interested in Brick's opinion of the present style of head gear. Here it is: "Seaside hats are made by whitewashing old hoop skirts, stand them out to dry, and setting down on them quick; an old suspender over the top completes the novelty. When out of date they make excellent parasols for young ducks, or will do for a baby's bathing tub."

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our facilities for manufacturing, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now, from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to over eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in saying that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett." Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. ONE LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that, unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED
